Long To Be Remem- bered.

The Republican campaign of Wright County ended at the JAH-Ville Colony where nearly all the County Republican Candidates were present. And also Hon. Mr. Maskill of Springfield who spoke in favor of the national Candidates and made one of the finest pleas for Hon. Hughes for President of the United States that could be, and about four hundred present. And oftentimes cheers came from the audience not only for the National speaker But also for the County speakers.

The meeting was held in a very large new barn put up by the Colony people for Hon. L. D.
Caudle the upstairs was used, the barn had just been completed the day before, and the Colony people both men and women took an active part in decorating the room with the grandest of emblems.

Meeting opened by the Caudle choir with Hon. Mr. Swing as leader who did choice service.
And Miss Jarrett as organist who need much praise for her service. And the singing was of the best. Prayer was offered up by Rev. L. S. Garrett Conductor of the service. How the election will go Tuesday will tell and it will be before this reaches the people. We shall also give the results as far as we obtain them by Thursday.

Editor of the Cresset.

Chicago Nov. 4 1916.
Dear Bro. Garrett:—

Bro. Richardson been free reader of CRESSET at last he has subscribed he borrowed fifty cents of Jane Adams who runs hull house where the Bro. works now and then telling furriners about books and literatur, Jane been on easy street since Bro. Ford's peace ship went and came and Bro.
Richardson is in pretty soft now when he wants small bit of change.

Delightful time other evening Bro Garrett, we organized a CRESSET Club and had meeting Bro. Goodwin and Bro.
Richardson and me we sat down and had heart searching talk about creation and formation and Hon Caudle and the other folks of Caudle Grove. Bro.
Richardson is strong for you Bro, Garrett He got happy at meeting said halliuvia That was when he said he would borrow fifty cents of jane which he did and here it is for you Bro.
Garrett.

Folks say on sly that the bro. is a swede others he is a dogo I dont believe it but I have heard him talk mighty like both of them kind of furriners.

Sister Olson she is on mourners bench today Bro, Garrett, I am full of gloom her spirit is quaking in tempest of repentance She is good sister after all she means to do right and says she longs for two man theory to straighten her out. She gave me the two bits and I am sending them to you for dear CRESSET.

The sister is great for the eats though, she likes green peppers and far be it from her to slight a meal for any social engagements "Eats first and business later" says she and banged up the receiver. Sister Louis says if Helen ever marries the rest of the family will be able to live in big fine house on the drive as it is grocery bill eats up the income They say Bro. Horace goes hungy half the time because Sister Helen reaches over and takes his eats at table Shame to the sister.

I have great honor Bro.
Garrett to introduce a nother despille of dear CRESSET although I aint met her myself yet she is dear friend of Olsans Mrs Alette Johnson. She read CRESSET other day and felt great thrill of joy and mirth sent me two bits said tell bro, Gar-ret this is last cent between me and starvation but I rather starve then be without love and the three links of quadrant of oddfellows as shown by dear CRESSET Give me the quadrant or give me death says she.

Sister says creation and formation are beautiful words and two man theory is great There couldnt be two woman theory says her, because two woman is like two cats who fight on back fence at midnight Men are full of love and all the mysteries of the quadrant and friendship and so two man theory is possible and great pestulate for the evolution of a dualistic philosophy as old bill James might have said.

Sister Johnson and Bro.
Horace arent peaceful they is always at odds about something or other I dont know what but they is agreed that president Wilson should be relected president bro. Horace is tantalizing anyway. If you was to meet him Bro. Garrett he would look upon you not as an individual with a personality but as a mathematical proposition with quadrants and tripods and cube and triangles and cube roots and fourth dimensions, that's the kind of stinner bro. Horace is, I aint much use for him but we is always peaceful like when we meet.

Bro. Goodwin greatly cheered at what I said about him he is boy with sweet dispoish and nice ma who I like but he dont treat her good He makes her work at office too much but that aint none of my business so I just keep quiet and leave him alone yet we never quarrel any Ah this is a beautiful world bro, Garrett, its not a sphere. after all its a quadrant I do believe you said its flat I guess you are right if it wasent flat I guess the blood would be rushing our heads half of the time when we was on under side wouldnt it?

Sister Olson wants you to explain why you think world is is flat. Please do so.
Adorinly, E.B. Orr.
