SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

Program for the Wood township Sunday school convention to be held at Fairview church.
Dec. 17, 1916:

10:00—Song by congregation
Onward Christian Soldiers, 10:05—devotional Service. Eugene Innan.

10:15—Song by congregation,
Tell Me the Old, Old, Story.
10:20—Welcome address, Mrs D. W. Young. 11:00—Song by congregation Jesus Savior Pilot Me.

11:05—How Shall the Officers and Teachers of Union S. S. Be Elected? Mrs J. T. Blackford, General Discussion.

11:55—Song by congregation
My Faith locks Up to Thee.

12:00—Basket Dinner.

1:00—Song by congregation,
Blessed Assurance.

1:05 Parental Responsibility, Byrd Willis, Mr Moon and D.
Needham. 2:00 Report of Sunday Schools by Superintendents Song. Blest Be the Tie That Binds.

Owing to the fact that so many schools in the township have failed to be prepared to sing at the convention, it was decided to sing familiar tunes and ask all schools to assist with the singing. If any school present will furnish a song, opportunity will be given, and you are not only invited, but urged to do so. Do not think because your name is not especially mentioned on the program that you are not included.

Every Sunday school worker in the township has a place on this program. If you are not included personally with the speakers you will be given an opportunity to speak, and you are included in the singing Let everyone who can, be present and let everyone present lift up his voice. Come and let us feast together, a feast for the soul as well as the body.

slang or slang phrases go thru its columns.

PAPER GOING HIGHER.

The price of print paper is going higher and higher. Where it will stop no one knows.

Many of the smaller papers have been forced to suspend business and many more will have to follow the wreckage unless the subscription price is raised to meet conditions. It is not our desire to raise the subscription price of the CRESSET.

It is almost exclusively a missionary paper in the interest and upbuilding of christianity, an institution I love and cherish for its influence for good and the broad christian principles embodied in its government and daily practice of its God-like friendship. I would rather have one hundred thousand readers at 25 cents each than fifty thousand at 50 cts. each.

While the paper and mailing would cost a little more, the possibilities for doing good would be so much greater, that it would outweigh the difference in cost. So help us get subscriptions.

WAR Depart- ment.

The Germans have Armored car. A great improvement over the British "Tank" Difficult to destroy—it carries a crew of ten men and travels at the rate of 25 miles an hour.

GERMANS, offers to aid Greece in war on entente—Pursuit of Rumanian armies is continued, and the retiring defenders are apparently making little effort to check the advance of invading forces.

U. S. Protests in Belgium's behalf, results may "seriously embarrass German Government"

Who wants war? Men who have selfish rights to protect.

We do not want war, we want peace at all times, at all places and every where.

PROHIBITION.

As a foreman of a Colony of 20 families, we wish to express our minds and wishes to the people of Springfield, as a leading city, and we believe a city of a people as general— wish the good of all people. And if they could only look, in and around Mt. Grove and Norwood, And look down into the sad hearts of mothers on the account of their sons being led off by intoxicating drinks. The men, who have the power certainly would hasten the time to give the people the privilege of having the opportunity to vote it away from them entirely.
