LIVESTOCK

Kansas City, Monday, July 24.—The break last week stopped cattle loading for to-day to a great extent, and receipts dropped to 10,000 head. There was a light run at all the markets, and prices opened strong, unevenly higher, some sales called 25 cents up.

BEEF CATTLE.

Top steers sold at $9.90, not up to the limit of the market by about 50 cents. Choice pulp steers sold up to 9.35, same price the same cattle brought a week ago. Kansas wintered steers are scarce, but are quotable up to 8.50. Some plain 1100 lb steers sold at $7.45 last Monday, showing that nearly all the decline on that kind late last week was regained today. Oklahoma cattle were plentiful to-day, and the movement from that section is now on for good balance of the season. Best Osage wintered steers sold at 7.99 to 8.25, good grassers 6.50 to 7.50, light grass steers 6.00 to 6.40. Quarantine steers were all from Oklahoma, best at 7.65, 10 cars of Wilson & Selfridge steers from Okmulgee, 1202 lbs at 7.50, light steers 5.75 to 6.50, cows 4.50 to 5.40, 36 cars in all. Best cows in native division sold at 7.50, good cows 6 to 6.75, veals up to 11.00.

STOCKERS and FEEDERS.

The low point of the year was touched late last week, sales 50 cents to $1.00 below the opening of the week. A good many buyers appeared to-day, and as the run was far below expectation, prices stiffened 10 to 20 cents. The good cattle sold at 6.50 to 7.50, useful cattle at 5.75 to 6.25.

HOGS

Receipts were moderate last week, packers were bearish and the market was 10 higher. Quality is good, and weights are heavier than heretofore, 205 lbs. last week, 10 lbs heavier than same week last year. Top price to-day is 9.80, 15 cents above last Friday, and bulk of sales 9.50 to 9.70 in spite of the depression last week, the situation is regarded as strong, and no further break is expected at this time.

SHEEP and LAMBS.

The market was 10 higher to-day following weakness every day last week. Eight cars of Idaho lambs topped the market at 9.00, 72 lbs. average, natives sold at 9.50 to 9.75, yearlings worth up to 8, wethers 7.50, ewes $7. Receipts are running very light, 4700 here today, and the supply promises to run light for a month to come. Feeding lambs sell up to $9, breeders 7.50 to 8.00, light young ewes to-day at 8.50.

James Whitcomb Riley Hoosier Poet, Is Dead.

Indianapolis, July 24 —The body of James Whitcomb Riley will lie in state in the rotunda of the capitol from three o'clock to nine o'clock tonight.

President Wilson telegraphed the family "I am sure I am speaking for the country in expressing my own sense of loss".

James Whitcomb Riley, the Hoosier Poet, died at his home in Indianapolis Saturday night at 10.15. The immediate cause of his death was paralysis. He suffered a severe stroke Saturday morning at 10:30 and from this he never recovered.

James Whitcomb Riley was born in 1853 and was known throughout the country as the "Hoosier Poet." Perhaps no other American poet is so well known by the children. He never married, his nearest relative being a sister, Mrs. Mary Panye of New York.

"Every pint of whiskey a man drinks shortens his life by eleven hours, and every pint of beer he drinks he steals 25 minutes from his life." "The foregoing statement," says Tom Thompson, "is made by an eminent temperance writer and it is mostly hosh and rot. I can take a pencil and show by figures that if every pint of whiskey Gib Childers has consumed had shortened his life by eleven hours, he would have died nine years before he was born."—Oswego Independent.

Kind friends, have you heard of the town of No-Good, on the banks of the river Slow, where the Some-Time or Other scents the air and the soft Go-Easies grow? It lies in the Valley of What's-the-Use, in the province of Let-Her-Slide; it's the home of the reckless I-Don't-Care, where the Give-It-Ups abide. The town is as old as the human race and it grows with the flight of years; it is wrapped in the fog of idler's dreams; its streets are paved with discarded schemes; and are sprinkled with useless tears.—Unknown.

Public Land Selection

A Call For Volunteers

We want five hundred men, women and children to visit our store, see what we have to sell, get prices and buy if the goods and prices suit you. We will meet all competition in prices, quality considered. Satisfaction guaranteed or money back.

W. B. JONES & CO.

THE REASON WHY—

many people never have their share of this world's good things is because they fail to cooperate with their own interests, many of them without thinking to be sure, but never-the-less to their own injury.

For Instance: If you are not patronizing your home bank you are not cooperating with one of your best interests. You surely know that a good safe bank in your community substantially enhances the value of your land. It helps you get a better sale for your cattle and produce by keeping constantly on the alert to bring buyer and seller together to the best advantage. It is not altogether through selfish motives that your home bank solicits your cooperation, but the interests are mutual. We need your patronage and cooperation to increase our strength and ability. You need your home bank at its best strength and ability, for it speaks well for your community, enhances the value of all your property, finances your business in a pinch and keeps the wolf from the door. We need you. You need us. Let's cooperate, we will meet you half way.
