Dean Clich and Carl Aber, of Livingston, left for that place last night after spending a couple of days here.

Mrs. Joe James left this morning for a visit to Wisconsin, her old home state. She was accompanied by her nephew Charles Jacobs, who has been visiting here for some months. Mrs. James will be absent until the first of October.

The Guy E. Benson family left last night for California where they plan to make their future home. Their furniture, which has been in storage here, was shipped to Los Angeles last week and it begins to look as though it would be a long time before they return. May all good attend them.

The beautiful and well kept flower garden west of the Rightway hotel, is attracting and deserving a good deal of attention from passersby. The well clipped grass, with blooming cannas, roses, lilies, and in the center a bed of flaming portulacca is well worth a trip on purpose to see. The garden shows the result of loving care and culture on the part of some one.

Col. E. J. Hubbard, the Chickasha, Oklahoma, auctioneer, brother of our H. D. Hubbard, is in town for a brief visit to his brother's family and to see his daughter, who has spent the summer here. He is accompanied by a niece, Miss Blanche Philbrook, of Muskogee, Oklahoma, who comes for a short visit. The young lady is a trained nurse, and is taking her vacation.

Rev. F. M. Smith, of the Arkansas conference, preached a fine sermon at the local Methodist church Sunday night. Owing to the threatening weather the congregation was not large. All present, however, were repaid for going. Mr. Smith, who is an uncle of Mrs. D. G. Grantham has been here six weeks, visiting, but will leave the last of the week for Hot Springs, Arkansas.

Professor May and wife, Jim Crain, wife and daughter contemplate leaving this week in their automobile for a trip through New Mexico and possibly Arizona. The families are friends of many years standing and expect to derive a great deal of pleasure from their trip together. If they find a place to suit them they expect to purchase property and locate there.

Among many other affairs planned in honor of Miss Quarterman, of Roswell, was the dance given at the Geo. M. Cooke residence on Hala-gueno street last night, Miss Frances Cooke being the hostess. The young folk danced to the music of the Victrola and at the close of the fun had refreshments of cream and cake in abundance. Those present were Misses Julia Quarterman, Grace O'Quinn, Lillian Crawford, Florence Brady, Nellie Linn and the hostess, Frances Cooke; Messrs. Edward Purdy, Tom Jacobs, Will Reed, Ray Hill and Arthur Breeding.

Mrs. Helia Helateel, a stock owner from the Hope country, was in town today shopping and was registered at the Bates.

Carlsbad will soon experience a dearth of ministers. Reverend Barb of the Baptist church, is attending an assembly at Clouderoft; Rev. H. Lowry, Presbyterian, left Monday for Cleveland, Ohio; Rev. A. C. Bell, pastor of the Methodist church expects to take his vacation next week. However, Rev. Sellers, of the Christian and Rev. F. W. Pratt, Episcopal together with Rev. Fathers Arbogast and Gilbert of the Catholic church are still here; so it looks as though Carlsbad's morals can still be attended to.

After all, Carlsbad is a good place to live when it comes to eatables. In a grocery window this mornign were displayed squash, lettuce, cucumbers, tomatoes, beets, peas, beans, onions, cabbage, radishes and other vegetables. Of fruit there were peaches, plums, apricots, cherries and gooseberries. Now, if some one will give us a "hunch" on how to get the money to purchase these luxuries we will be content to continue our residence in the Beautiful for some time to come.

For Miss Quarterman.

Miss Lillian Crawford pleasantly entertained twelve couples of young people at her home last Saturday, honoring Miss Julia Quarterman, a charming young girl of Roswell, who is visiting Miss Grace O'Quinn. The young folk spent the evening at dancing and were served delicious refreshments. Miss Jim Penny furnished the music for the occasion.

T. C. Love from his ranch eight miles south where he has goats and sheep, is in town today and said they were needing rain, but felt sure their long felt want would be realized.
