Indiana Man's Experience

Frank Mosely, Moore's Hill, Ind., writes: "I was troubled with almost constant pains in my sides and back and attributed it to weakness of my kidneys. I got a package of Foley Kidney Pills. Great relief was apparent after the first dose and in 48 hours all pain left me." If you have rheumatism, backache, swollen aching joints or stiff painful muscles, why not try Foley Kidney Pills? They stop sleep disturbing bladder ailments, too. For sale by

"EVERY KNOCK (?) A BOOST"

Man Reads Neighbor's Citizen and Sends Subscription to The Popular Paper as Result

Every knock is a boost. We are one dollar, and what is more important, one subscription, ahead, because our contemporary has failed to learn this simple motto.

Clapham, N. M. June 12, 1916.

Editor, News

Clayton, New Mexico. Dear Sir—Please find enclosed one dollar for your paper for the length of time that sum will cover. I read in my neighbors Citizen that your issue of last week was largely devoted to the cultivation of flax and I think we need more of that, out here, than of politics.

Yours truly,

GRENVILLE SCHOOL CLOSES WITH APPROPRIATE PROGRAM

Playlets By High School And Lower Grade Pupils, Music, Box Supper, And General Good Time

The Greenville school closed last

Friday afternoon with appropriate closing exercises by the pupils of the high school and the lower grades.

"Her Son's Sweetheart" was given Friday evening and was a grand success. Much credit for the success of the affair is due Miss Marie Meyers, the teacher, for her untiring efforts in preparing the closing exercises.

The casts of characters was as follows; Mrs. Perkins, Lolo McClure, Lilly, her daughter, Hattie Lou Smith, Kitty the maid; Vida Revis, Mrs. Clayton; Elsie Meyers, Betty Gardner, the son's sweetheart; Margaret Duffy, Elizabeth Burton, the governess, Lulu Harmon.

One of the pleasing features of the entertainment was the instrumental selections by Elsie Meyer, Mr. Pagn and Mrs. Lawson and vocal selections by Mrs. E. U. Scott and Hattie Lou Smith.

A box supper concluded the entertainment. With E. U. Smith as auctioneer, the bidding was lively and the boxes brought a neat sum which will be used to build and equip a tennis court.

Mrs. Len Chelf's pupils held their closing exercises Friday afternoon and a large number attended the excellent entertainment which had been prepared.

The pupils of the lower grades deserve great credit for the excellent manner in which they rendered their parts.

Mrs. Chelf has been re-elected to teach next year and all are well pleased with her work in the lower grades. The coming term will make her fourth in this school.

The music for the afternoon entertainment was furnished by Mrs. D. W. Thorpe on the Edison phonograph.

The playlet, "Cinderella," was well performed and showed much care and training of the pupils by their teacher. The casts of characters was as follows:

VALLEY VIEW

The fine rains of Monday and Wednesday put plenty of moisture in the ground and the farmers of this community are all taking advantage of it. The corn and other crops look fine and there will be only a few instances where re-planting of early sown crops will be necessary.

C. C. Hodges is buy hauling lumber from Clayton. He will build a fine four roomed house on his place.

Sam Solomon made a trip to Clayton the fore part of the week for supplies and a load of lumber.

Mrs. Geo. Hyde, who has been visiting her parents, Uncle Pete and Mrs. Kieran, returned to her home at Beenham, Monday.

B. L. Jones, of Mangrum, Okla., spent several days here looking for a location but decided upon the Rose bud district where he will probably locate.

J. J. Brown was a Sedan visitor, Monday.

O. P. Stead is building a nice little house on his farm north of the post office.

Our singing class meets each 2nd and 4th Sunday at two o'clock. Everybody is invited to attend the class which is making some good music. Visitors are welcome.

Ira Massey made a trip to Clayton the middle of the week and reports business good in the county seat.

E. R. McElroe and family spent Sunday in the Pyle neighborhood.

J. M. Haug is putting the finishing touches on the fine cement house for H.G. Magruder, in the Tramparos Valley.

The Stead and Tate ball teams will cross bats, Saturday, the seventeenth. Both teams claim to have the game in their hip pockets at this writing so it will sure be a good one.
