Dry Farming Address
Orren Beatty, government agriculturist for Union County will give an address on Dry Farming to the people of Union County at Clapham, New Mexico, on July 5th, 1916.

Don't miss this as you will find it instructive, entertaining and of vital interest to your own success and welfare.

Don't forget the date, (July 5th,) nor the place, (Clapham, N. M.) 21-26-27.

SENECA

This neighborhood is so busy replanting, cultivating and attending to other farm work that we have no time to learn the news. But we always find time to read the News.

Tom Wiggins, of Kenton, passed through the Seneca, Tuesday, with a fine bunch of cattle for his ranch on the Cimarron.

Mrs. R. Huttman, and sister, Miss Savage, are spending the summer on Mrs. Huffman's claim.

Rev. Herrin held services at the Knoll's school house, Tuesday. His sermon was enjoyed by all who attended.

Clarence Govless accompanied Rev. Herrin, Tuesday.

Grandpa Alderson is reported ill this week, suffering an attack of a Grandma Rinker recently suffered a stroke of paralysis, but is some better at this writing.

The sympathy of the community is extended to the sufferers and we all hope to see them enjoying good health again, and soon.

Mrs. Holt and her mother, Mrs. Lewis, of Childress, Texas, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Creed the past two weeks. Mrs. Holt and Mrs. Lewis were among the first home seekers to come to this community.

A protracted meeting will begin at Creed Chapel the first Sunday of next month. The meeting will be conducted by Brother Creed, from Texas, a son of our own Brother Creed.

Word received from our teacher of last winter is to the effect that he is now located at Raton and that the weather is hot and dry, there.

W. E. Howard has purchased 15 two-year old heifers from Tom Wiggins. The fifteen are the "top" of a bunch recently purchased by the Cimarron ranchman at Alamogordo. —"Wide Awake"

Chester O'Brien of north of Sedan transacted business in the city Monday.

GRENVILLE

Grenville farmers are all rejoicing over the fine rains that have put the ground in such excellent condition. They are all busy putting in their crops.

Mr. and Mrs. Cram attended church in Clayton, Sunday.

Mrs. Luck Bailey was shopping in Grenville Wednesday.

E. Cavanaugh and wife made a business trip to Claton Wednesday. Mrs. Cavanaugh called on Dr. Slack and wife while there.

Rev. Luther Dumerest passed through here, Wednesday enroute to Clayton.

L. Stone will commence the erection of a new house in town, soon. He has the lumber on the ground in readiness.

Mrs. E. L. Beal, of near Harington, was a Grenville visitor, Wednesday, coming here to take the train for Snyder, Texas, where she will visit for some time.

Mrs. S. Stone and little Jerrold Thorpe are reported ill this week.

Miss Marie Meyers was the guest of Mrs. A. J. Robertson from Sunday until Tuesday.

Miss Vida Rives is staying with Mrs. Roberson during Mr. Robertson's absence.

John Urton and family have moved to town, and will occupy John Perigo's house. Mr. Urton has the contract for building the Weber store and wants to be closer to his work.

John Perigo and family will occupy the house vacated by Mr. Urton for a short while.

W. T. Oldham was a business visitor to Clayton, Saturday. He purchased a new windmill for the well he has just recently drilled.

Mrs. Nays is visiting here during the summer. She lives in California but says she cannot stay away from New Mexico.

Mesdames Steel, Stone, Lait and Cavanaugh visited Mrs. Laurel Stone Saturday afternoon.

Miss Marie Meyers visited with H. H. Errett and family a few days last week, returning home Saturday. Miss Betty Mc Grudder accompanied her home and will spend several days here.
