Row at Dance Hall.

We understand, that a little unpleasantness took place night before last at dance hall on the South East corner of the Plaza. Epifanio Baca, being a little under the influence of whiskey got into some kind of an altercation with some Americans when two or three of the latter turned in and gave the Mexican a very severe beating and then threw him out of the dance hall.

The rain boom in New Mexico is just now commencing and it is time that it should for it has been preceded by the Grant Tilden booms in the east.

Corn is now coming out in silk and tassled.

Since hurting himself by falling down stairs, Neal Dow has dislocated his shoulder while attempting to board a train of cars. Temperance Men are continually tumbling about and getting hurt.

Henry Lesinsky has contracted for fifty Chinamen to work on the Clifton copper mine railroad. This accounts for the large amount of railroad iron which has been going through here by freight wagons.

The Springs Finally Sold.

We have reliable information that a sale of the Hot Springs at this place to the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad company, was finally consummated yesterday. The deed was made to Alden Spear of Boston, Mass. The consideration mentioned in the deed is $12,000. The document we understand was left in escrow with Louis Sulzbacher of this city.

This is certainly an important epoch for Las Vegas. It will ensure extensive advertising, the construction of valuable improvements and give an impetus to everything. We consider that this insures a great future for Las Vegas.

Mr. Booth the transfer man, reports business good.

A large amount of wool is being shipped by Blanchard & Co. to New York and Philadelphia.

The recent warm showers have enabled the surrounding prairie to put on a desirable coat of verdure.
