

THINGS OF INTEREST FROM OUR NEIGHBORS

Scholle

(Special Correspondence to the Independent)
Scholle, Nov. 1st.

Ernest Bowen is our third truck operator at the depot now.

T. P. Arnett went to Belen Sunday morning in his Ford, returning by train, leaving the Jitney in the garage.

E. C. Heckethorn left the first of the week for Flagstaff, Arizona, on business for a few days.

The Abo Cañon Copper Mining Co. has discontinued working one shaft in order to get in shape to install their new hoisting engine which is expected to arrive any day.

Mr. Franklin, a mining man from Kansas City, left a few days ago after a very pleasant and satisfactory visit to the camp and says he will return in the near future.

A. H. Reynolds, a mining man from Las Vegas, and brother of President Reynolds of the First National Bank of Albuquerque, has been visiting the camp for several days. He is thinking very seriously of locating here.

Mrs. G. M. Cleghorn and little daughter, Verdine, left Monday for a month's visit with her parents at Alamogordo. She will also visit at Albuquerque and El Paso before returning. Mr. Cleghorn accompanied them as far as Albuquerque.

Pleasant View

Lee Briggs was up from Scholle over Sunday, returning Monday.

Miss Bergeman entertained Friday night at her home and a pleasant time was reported.

M. Turner from Texas is here looking for a location. He brought about forty head of horses with him.

The Hallowe'en party given by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hewlen was a pleasant affair as well as appetizing with dainty refreshments.

Messrs. Brown, Hollis and Raleigh of Oklahoma, passed through Tuesday en route to their locations between Broncho and Mountainair.

Carl Parker was absent from singing Sunday, following the bean thresher. We are expecting the thresher in this immediate neighborhood this week.

Mrs. Ordway and daughter, Mrs. Dr. Buer, Mrs. Doyle and daughters, and Miss Bernie Orme of Mountainair were among the visitors at Singing Sunday.

Messrs. Osborne of Oklahoma, friends of our neighbor Stark, are with him this week. They are building on their homesteads near the Mesa.

Miss Lula Kenton's home will be opened to her friends for a social evening Friday night, November 10th. You are invited. Light refreshments will be served.

We have just heard that Rev. Mr. Land, father of our neighbor, has returned from Texas. We don't want to be in too big a hurry, Bro. Land, but you have a special invitation to preach at the school house any Sunday. Suppose next Sunday, the 12th?

School opened last Monday with a good attendance. On account of school having been deferred a month, the pupils must get busy and make up for lost time, and great interest is being taken. We especially invite the patrons to visit us and make the school the centre of home attractions.

Messrs. Walpole, G. M. Waggoner, W. W. Manning and V. B. Manning attended the Gus Dunn sale Tuesday. Wes and V. B. bought a cook-stove, machine and dresser. We know batchelors have no use for sewing machines and it looks as though preparation for two was being considered.

The Singing Convention met with the Pleasant View class Sunday, the 5th and a pleasant as well as profitable day was spent. Bounteous dinner was served. The convention will meet at the Mesa schoolhouse the second Sunday in May. We are indeed glad we live in a land of song again, and some fine classes have been organized. While this work is in its infancy in this county, it is up to us to see that it walks right off. We hope other classes will be formed and more and better work be done. We can't all be preachers, so let's learn to sing the Gospel. Liberty class was well represented and proved themselves lovers of song. Round Top was also represented and we found active workers among them.

(Received too late for last week.)

Some are very busy yet threshing beans.

Roy Custer is attending school at Willard.

W. W. Manning has been hauling oats into his barns all week.

Lester Williams and family are sporting a new Chevrolet.

School will begin Monday 30th at Pleasant View. Mrs. W. N. Walpole teacher.

Miss Ethel Waggoner had dental work done at Willard Wednesday. She was accompanied by Miss Bergeman.

Miss Nadene Waggoner spent Friday night with home-folks, having come out from Mountainair to attend the box-supper.

The organ for the schoolhouse that was donated to the community by J. L. Clark was shipped Friday. Again we wish to thank Mr. Clark.

Sunday School at 10 a. m., the remainder of the day devoted to Singing. Dinner on the ground. Everybody invited to come and bring lunch.

Mr. Owen from Erath County, Texas arrived with his family this week. They will make their home at the place known as the Meadow place.

The Misses McKinley and Isabella

Clark from Mountainair attended the box-supper. They were accompanied by Messrs. Vonde Velt and Patterson of Willard.

Mr. Fales, the well-driller, also Mr. Le Briggs, who have been drilling a well for Miss Lula Kenton, will leave this week for Scholle, having secured W. W. Manning to drill the well.

Messrs. Waggoner and Sinclair attended the horse race two miles south of Willard Wednesday. The race was between Bullock and Joe Brazil, and was decided in favor of Brazil's horse.

Singing convention meets with Pleasant View singers Sunday Nov. 5th. Messrs. McGuinity and Louis from House, New Mexico are looking out new locations, one of the gentlemen having rented a ranch three miles north of the school house. They were guests in the Manning home.

The box-supper was all that could be expected after the cloud came up Friday night. Only a few families were represented, and with Oscar Sinclair as auctioneer, soon announced the proceeds $27.20. Miss Nadene Waggoner received the cake as the prettiest girl and W. N. Walpole awarded the cake for being so miserably ugly. We thank the visiting parties for their patronage.

Testea Recipes

(In this column each week will be found a number of Testea Recipes. By clipping these and pasting in a note book, a complete book of tried recipes may be gathered. We will be glad to print any favorite recipes of our readers.—Ed.)

Ham Dandy

One cupful chopped ham; one half cupful bread crumbs; one half cupful chopped hard boiled eggs. Season and stir into thick milk gravy, then bake and serve hot. Any kind of left over meat, including liver and bacon chopped fine together are very nice fixed this way. This mixture may be served hot in green pepper shells also.

Bacon Fritters

Have pieces of bacon fried until done. Dip each piece in a fritter batter, (made of egg, flour and milk, seasoned) fry in the bacon fat until browned on both sides. Serve with apple sauce.
Mrs. E. P. S.

Rabbit Roast

Cut the rabbit into parts, salt, roll in flour and fry quick in hot fat to a nice brown. When nicely browned take out the rabbit, and with the fat, add flour and make a brown gravy, and pour this over the rabbit which has been placed in a roaster or bread pan. Season with salt and pepper then place in the oven for a couple of hours, adding a little water when necessary. Steak or any kind of meats may be fixed in this manner including chicken with milk gravy.

This is a very nice Sunday dish as by putting sufficient water, in the gravy and a slow fire in the stove one may attend Sunday School and church and not be worrying about the meat burning.
Mrs. P. A. S.

Pork Chops with Apples

Pork chops are hard to digest, but most people like them. It is well to serve them with apples in some form, as the fruit serves as a corrective for the richness of the pork and aids the process of assimilation. A new idea is to fry the apples and use them as a garnishing for the dish of chops. This is very easily done in the fat left in the pan after the meat is cooked. The apples should be cut into quarters and the cores taken out. Then they may be fried a light golden-brown, well drained and laid all around the edge of the dish. A few sprays of parsley will add to the appearance of the dish.—Selected.

Pork Chops with Dressing

One and one-half pounds of pork chops; one onion ground; three tablespoonfuls butter; one egg; three cups stale bread crumbs; one eighth teaspoon pepper; one teaspoon of ground sage.

Place pork chops in a dripping pan, soak the crumbs in warm water to moisten, then squeeze dry and add the ground onions and other ingredients; put a mound of dressing on each chop, set a slice of onion on top of each and dot with butter. Put a little water in a pan and bake until the meat is tender.
Mrs. B.

Beef Loaf

Take two pounds chopped beef, add a small piece of suet and a small onion, chopped, one tablespoon flour and one pint of tomatoes. Mix all together well and form into a loaf, leaving out the juice of tomatoes to pour over the top. Season with salt, pepper and a touch of red pepper. Bake or steam.
Mrs. B.

Deviled Tongue

Chop boiled tongue very fine, and season well with salt, black and red pepper and mustard. Add a little vinegar to moisten. Press solid and slice thin. This is very nice for sandwiches also.
Mrs. K.
