The Pie Supper given by the Epworth League last Saturday night proved a success both from a social and financial standpoint. All who attended had a good time, and the League treasury is twenty dollars to the good.

Harper Sprull; Optometrist, will be in Mountainair on Nov. 22nd, on his regular semi-annual trip, and will be pleased to see all of his old patients and as many new ones as need his services. Do not forget the date—Nov. 22nd and a few days after.

Prof. B. G. Woodward, superintendent of the Mountainair public schools, surprised his Socorro friends with a pleasant visit Saturday and Sunday. From all reports it appears that the Mountainair schools are thriving greatly under Prof. Woodward's direction.—Socorro Chieftain.

The enrollment at Mountainair has reached 108. There are nineteen in the high school ninth and tenth grades. The teachers are B. G. Woodward, principal; Mrs. McNeese, Mrs. Veal and Miss Hoyland. Both teachers and pupils are pleased with the new $12,000 school building.—New Mexico Journal of Education.

Never lend yourself to the borrowing of trouble.

Our idea of a plucky man is one who refuses to be plucked.

You'll never find much cause for gratitude unless you make some.

It goes without saying that the less said about some things the better.

Few men are able to keep within hailing distance of their good intentions.

But it sometimes happens that the light of truth casts the shadow of suspicion.

Our idea of a modest man is one who can keep his opinion of himself to himself.

Many a woman trusts her husband because she doesn't know as much as she might.

There's at least one redeeming feature about air castles; we don't have to pay taxes on them.

Many a man is in the bachelor class today because the girl in the case had been taught to say "No."

The easiest task a business man is ever called upon to perform is to induce an employee to accept an increase in salary.
