Personal and Local

A number of our citizens are attending district court at Estancia this week.

Lloyd Orme has sold his farm north of Mountainair to Ralph Stuart, who will take possession at once.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Corbett expect to leave for southern California about the first of December to spend the winter.

There will be a free public dinner at the Methodist Church on Thanksgiving Day. Everybody is invited to come and bring filled baskets.

K. Tabet, accompanied by his son and daughter, returned from a trip to Albuquerque Saturday morning, going on to their home at Manzano, in the afternoon.

Rev. R. E. Farley left with his family Friday afternoon to take up their residence in Albuquerque. Their many friends here are sorry to lose them, but wish them God-speed in their new home.

J. R. Green, a son-in-law of J. A. Perkins unloaded a car of horses, cows and hogs and a car of household goods and farm implements the first of the week, which he brought from Lake Arthur.

On Friday evening Miss Alice Hoyland and Mrs. Behrman entertained at dinner and a social evening, the guests being Mesdames McNeese and Harris and Messrs. Marshall Orme, Robertson and Woodward. A most pleasant evening is reported.

Dr. Buer has received a nice lot of single comb white Miñorca chickens, which are claimed to be great egg producers. He will add these, a dozen pullets and a cockerel, to his several pens of pure-bred chickens on his farm. If Doc keeps on getting in pure-breds he will have to take an "enlarged hospital" to find room for all of them.

Sheriff Julius Meyer was in this vicinity Thursday summoning witnesses for the district court. He was accompanied by Mrs. Meyer. They spent Thursday night in Mountainair, spending the evening with the editor's family. It was like old times to have Julius sit around the office-fire with us. Come again.

—WT: 1 cow, 1 calf branded on left side; liberal reward for information leading to recovery of said stock. John W. Conant, Mountainair, N. M. 7-4tp

Forest Mason was over from Estancia Saturday, having brought over some traveling men via the mountain towns.

The family of A. A. Ireton left the first of the week for their homestead near Cedarvale. Mr. Ireton will make final proof to perfect his entry December 4.

Born on Thursday night, November 16, a fine baby girl to Mr. and Mrs. Hibner, east of Mountainair. The attending physician reports mother and baby as doing well.

F. B. Moore, contractor who built Mountainair's splendid school house, came in Friday morning to prepare to place the opera chairs in the auditorium. He expects to put the finishing touches on the basement as soon as he can secure necessary materials.

Harper Sproull; Optometrist will be in Mountainair on Nov. 22nd, on his regular semi-annual trip, and will be pleased to see all of his old patients and as many new ones as need his services. Do not forget the date.—Nov. 22nd and a few days after.

J. W. Conant, the recently appointed postmaster at Rayo, was in Mountainair last Saturday with a fine bunch of horses, which he is offering for sale. He has some splendid work teams which can be had reasonably.

Mrs. J. F. Crawford left Tuesday for her home in Humble, Texas, after two month's visit with her sister, Mrs. W. F. Martin. The Martins accompanied her as far as Albuquerque.

Cafeteria Lunch

The Mountainair Ladies Aid Society will serve a Cafeteria Lunch at the church, 6 p. m. on Friday, December 8th. We shall make an effort to have this the very best yet. Get us on your list now.—Ad.
