Personal and Local

Ernest Green and Lincoln Chavez were over from Estancia last Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Dee Lee returned last Saturday from Thurber, Texas, where she has been visiting her father. She brought home some pecans which she gathered while there.

A. L. Fales, State Missionary of the American Sunday School Union, of Roswell, N. M. was a Mountainair visitor last Saturday. He noted great improvements in our little village since his last visit here.

Dr. C. J. Amble has gone to Kansas City to interview Santa Claus, about making headquarters at Amble's Pharmacy, prior to Christmas time, where a nice lot of gifts and holiday goods generally will be exhibited.

W. A. Williams disposed of practically all of his carload of apples on Monday of this week, and left for Willard, where he had part of a car. He left a few apples which he had unsold with Mr. Hale, who will look after the sale of them for him.

For a while our books will be closed on and after Monday, November 19th. It is the cash that talks. If you have the money we have the goods more reasonable than the market demands. We appreciate your business, "Pal." Piñon Hardware & Furniture Co.

Mr. Mosier came in last week from Ada, Oklahoma, to spy out the land and visit friends here.

R. T. McGuire, section foreman in charge of the gang here has been transferred to Vaughn, and will move his family there the first of next week.

Don Juan C. Jaramillo of Torreon was in Mountainair Monday looking for a business house, desiring to move his business to this point, if he can secure a suitable building.

M. J. Green left Tuesday night for Warren, Arkansas, where he goes to close up some business affairs. He will spend Christmas with home folks and expects to be back in the "Land of Sunshine" about New Years.

R. E. Cleveland, of Roscoe, Texas, who made application to file on land southwest of Scholle, came in Tuesday afternoon, to take up his residence here. He shipped a bunch of cattle through, which he will graze on his land adjoining the Grant.

FOR SALE—Several good relinquishments. A section, well improved in one body. See me at once. T. E. Rodgers, Surveyor, Mountainair, N. M.

Cash! CASH!! CASH!!!—Cash is the only lever which can move any goods out of our house from Monday, November 19th, until we give further notice. Piñon Hardware & Furniture Co.
