A Silent Partner.
"I never thought that Tom would have become a silent partner in any kind of business."
"Neither would I."
"Well, he has."
"What's he into now?"
"He's got married."—Dallas News.

Merit's Loud Voice.
Do not waste a minute, not a second, in trying to demonstrate to others the merit of your own performance. If your work does not vindicate itself, you cannot vindicate it.—Thomas Wentworth Higginson.

Bare Tracks.
Bing—The railroad companies are brazen robbers! Bung—Quite so. They don't even take the trouble to cover their tracks.—Cleveland Leader.

Didn't Know Hymen.
Nurdy—Lots of people are getting married nowadays. Butts—Yes. Hymen is doing a flourishing business. Nurdy—What's he sell? Carpets and house furnishings?—Louisville Courier Journal.

Trouble With the Napery.
"Linen kings" can make trouble easily for the housewife with their three jointed microscopes for determining the number of threads to the inch in any article of table linen. One visited a friend the other night and after dinner exhibited a handkerchief worth at wholesale $1.50 apiece. It was very beautiful under the microscope. The hostess then looked upon a napkin and afterward upon a tablecloth. Now, she thought up to that moment her napery was the finest in the block, and the revelation of the wide meshes caused the most bitter disappointment. Ever since her misery has been complete. When "linen kings" go out socially they had better leave their microscopes at home.—New York Press.
