

Lovely Valley
[Correspondence]
Will give you a few items from this beautiful valley.

The farmers have been busy plowing.

There was a little sprinkle of snow Sunday.

We would like to see a good rain.

Jack Smith sold his place to Frank Shenold. Frank is lookign for his folks from Oklahoma this week. He is well satisfied with New Mexico.

Kilgore and George Evans made a business trip to Tucumcari, Saturday; also Mrs. Fears and son were in Tucumcari, Saturday.

Bro. Baker is improving after a severe illness. He has been unable to fill his appointment at Liberty for some time.

D. Evans has his well dug about 30 feet and hopes to strike water soon.

This valley is getting pretty well settled and still more coming.

Some sickness is reported in Ogle Flat.

Mr. Fowler lost a good horse one day last week while on his way to Tucumcari.

Mr. Justice and family, G. W. Evans and family and Rev. Baker took dinner with Daniel Evans and family, Tuesday

Always Keeps Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in His House.

"We would not be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is kept on hand continually in our home," says W. W. Kearney, editor of the Independent, Lowry City, Mo. That is just what every family should do. When kept at hand ready for instant use, a cold may be checked at the outset and cured in much less time than after it has become settled in the system. This remedy is also without a peer for croup in children, and will prevent the attack when given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, which can only be done when the remedy is kept at hand. For sale by all Druggists.
