A Citizens Mass Meeting.

Is called to assemble at the Rink Sunday night December 10, at 7:30 P. M., to hear discussed ways and means to solve the problem of the "Homeless and Delinquent Child." Dr. Charles E. Lukens, the Territorial Superintendent of the Children's Home Society, (of which Governor Curry, the Supreme Court, and many of the best citizens of the Territory are officers and the churches are sponsors) will speak on the problem of The Children. The subject will be discussed from the standpoint of our local interests as well as of the Territory. The introduction of the Juvenile Court is one of the objects of this work. I invite the citizens and all church congregations to participate in this meeting.

A statement of the First National Bank to the Comptroller of the Currency this week shows that institution to be in excellent condition. Cash and sight exchange, $126,850.64; capital and surplus, $68,000, and deposits $350,000.03, an increase in cash of about $19,000 over the amount in former statement of some weeks ago. This should be a source of great satisfaction to its patronage as well as to the bankers.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas, an All-wise Providence has called from the walks of life to his last resting place our esteem and worthy brother F. C. Matteson and whereas this Lodge has lost a faithful member and the community a worthy citizen; the legal profession an honest advocate, and his family an affectionate brother and son; therefore be it

Resolved that Tucumcari Lodge No. 29, Knights of Pythias extend to the bereaved family its sympathies, that Castle Hall be appropriately draped, that a copy of these resolutions be delivered to the family of the deceased, published in the Tucumcari News and spread upon the records of the Lodge.

Dr. Robt. S. Coulter went to Nara Visa Wednesday to inspect a car of oil. Doc was surprised at the growth of that place. He says he used to know everybody in that town, but that the town has grown so that he felt very much like a stranger.

We take this means of expressing our thanks to the people who patronized the ball given by the ladies of the Catholic Church. We are grateful to them all for the amounts paid us which have been added to the building fund of the church.

W. Jackson, of Cimarron, New Mexico, passed through Tucumcari yesterday, on his way to Louisiana where he will spend the winter. Mr. Jackson has a very large acquaintance up and down the line of the Southwestern. He says Cimarron is still growing, and that he expects to return there in the spring. He was very much surprised at the growth of Tucumcari since his last visit here.
