Wells Fargo Book Store
Next Door North of P. O. Tucumcari, N. Mex.

THERE were those who laughed at us for attempting to handle Holiday Goods in our small quarters. We believed we could, so ordered our stock, and although we have had our special offerings on display only three days it is evident that we have goods which are pleasing and are selling. Our Books have sold so rapidly that we have been obliged to re-order by express. Our Filigree Jewelry is taking wonderfully, but we have plenty left in stock.

Many Navajo Blankets have gone out this week. We have remaining 95, including only 10 heavy blankets, but a number of each size of Pillow Tops, Couch, Stand and Piano Covers.

If you wish CHEAP BARGAIN COUNTER GOODS don't waste your time looking over our display, but if you desire clean, tasty goods to select from, see them.

Don't fail to see our books for children, also those for grown ups. Our air guns, magic lanterns, trumpets and books for boys; our dolls, dishes and books for the girls; our toy banks, paper, linen and cloth books, chimes, mechanical toys and wooly animals for the children; candy, nuts and fruit for all.

Holly covered empty boxes in which to mail your gifts. Xmas seals, tags, folders and post cards. A dainty line of McDonalds chocolates.
