Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Shoup took dinner at the J. A. McCormick home, Sunday.

Work is progressing nicely on the new school house and the Havener people are very proud to have a school house of their own again. School begins Oct. 20th with Mr. C. C. Ford for teacher. He taught at Blacktower several years and is known as a good teacher.

Mr. Wm. Eshleman is enlarging his barn this week.

Viotti Croft, who has been employed during the summer by Attorney Harry Patton as stenographer, left Sunday for Albuquerque where he will enter high school and expects to graduate this term.

Dry in Tennessee.

Miss Francis B. Morgan, of Watrace, Tennessee writes the NEWS regarding conditions in Tennessee.

Watrace, Tenn.
Sept. 4, 1913

NEWS,

Clovis, N. M.

Glad to hear of such splendid rain there. Here the crops are ruined from the dry hot weather. Hogs and cattle are being disposed of at a sacrifice because of crop failure and scarcity of water.

Like Mrs. Benton, by experience, I have learned that the prairies are the nearest ideal place for home.

The sand storms are pleasant amusement compared with the storms of this country.

The NEWS is ever a welcome visitor. It keeps fresh in mind the faces of those we have known in other days.

Many good wishes to the NEWS and its force.

MISS FRANCES B. MORGAN.
