

THE ONLY OPPORTUNITY TO PURCHASE SOME OF THE BEST LOTS IN CLOVIS AT THE LOWEST PRICES

I have just bought the east Forty (40) acres of the Waverly Addition to Clovis, New Mexico. To Clovis people I am offering (30) Thirty of these lots, YOUR CHOICE for the very low price of $60.00 and $65.00 on terms of Ten Dollars cash and Ten Dollars per month, without interest or taxes for the year 1914. A 5 per cent discount will be given for cash.

For years this valuable property has been kept off the market because the patent had not been issued; the PATENT has now been issued and I can assure everybody that the title to this land is perfect. To every purchaser I will give a WARRANTY DEED AND ABSTRACT showing a good and merchantable title. Patent number of this land is 260091 and said patent is signed by Wm. H. Taft, President of U. S. A.

LOCATION:—This property is on Thornton Street just two and one-half blocks north of the Big Santa Fe Shops; seven blocks west of the First National Bank. One of the Clovis City School buildings is on this land. Two blocks northeast of the northeast corner of this land is the Santa Fe Hospital. This property is on the west side of Clovis, away from the smoke and dust of the rest of the City, and is near the Shops, and School and business portion of Clovis.

REMEMBER Positively there will be (30) THIRTY of these lots sold at this price. The first to buy will get first choice and so on until the 30 lots have been sold.

What Some of the Business Men of Clovis Think About the Proposition

CASH RAMEY, Esq.
Clovis, New Mexico,

Dear Sir:

In reply to your inquiry as to our opinion of the value of lots in the Ramey Addition to this City, beg to state that the said Addition is adjoining the Original Townsite on the west and is just seven blocks west of Main street, and two and one-half blocks north of the railroad shops. We believe that the lots are good investments at $60.00 and $65.00.

Yours very truly,

S. A. Jones, Pres. First National Bank
