

MOVING WEEK!

About March first we will move in our new location, first and second doors north of our old stand.

By this change we will be in a better location and will have two rooms instead of one. Our stock will be more properly displayed, and to trade with us you will have the best advantages both in quantity, quality and service that you will find in the city.

Thanking our many customers for their support given us in our old stand, we invite you to our new and up to date store of quality.

Mrs. L. H. Sanders received the $26.50 Cedar Chest.

Mrs. J. A. Harrison received the $18.00 Steamer Trunk.

Mrs. G. B. Doyle received the $12.50 Suit Case.

Kendall Dry Goods Company

Local and Personal

Dr. J. R. Haney returned last week from Denver and other points.

F. A. De Oliveria came up from Fort Sumner Friday.

H. R. Neal, of Texico, was in the city Thursday of last week. High grade gasoline and coal oil.—Barry Hardware Co.

Kit Byers is again back at the old stand in the K. C. Barber shop.

It's better to be safe than satisfied. Texas State Bank of Farwell. The Guaranty Fund

Dr. J. B. Westerfield returned the first of the week from Stroud Oklahoma, where he was called upon the death of a sister.

R. H. Snellings has severed connection with the K. C. Shop and has taken charge of the Union Shop on south Main Street.

The Texas State Bank, of Farwell, is a Guaranty Fund Bank. What's better for the farmer.

Mrs. Phil Duckworth and sister Miss Gertrude Wilson will leave the last of the week for Duncan Oklahoma, where Mrs. Duckworth will visit during the summer.

Mrs. J. T. McClure, wife of District Judge McClure, was up from Roswell to visit the Judge the first of the week.

Operator W. S. Winters is able to be out again after being confined in the hospital for ten days on account of a minor operation.

Mrs. I. B. L. Osborne of the firm of Grisamore and Osborne has been on the sick list several days this week.

Miss Fay Brooks returned from the east Sunday where she purchased new spring and summer millinery for Mrs. Osborne.

J. F. Smithson, the Grady real estate dealer and Curry County booster was in the city Saturday. He says that many homeseekers are coming to the Grady country and that quite a few claims are changing hands.

It's always policy to keep your money where you can get accommodations, we are taking care of our old customers and are in position to take on some new ones.—Texas State Bank of Farwell.

Miss Margaret Jones, the new milliner at Luikart's arrived from St Louis Sunday with a big shipment of new and stylish millinery. She is now engaged in arranging it for a display Saturday. The opening will be announced later.

J. L. Oliver, of Texico, was in the city Tuesday on court business.

Marie Baldy of Roswell was in the city attending district court in the capacity of stenographer.

Miss M. E. Woods, district attorney stenographer, returned to her home in Roswell Sunday.

Jim Anderson, deputy sheriff of Roswell was in the city Tuesday stopping at the Reidoria

Little Marcella Shaw Van is better after a severe spell of pneumonia. Doctors Haney, Westerfield and Miller worked heroically to save her.

George P. Howe, agent for the New York Life Insurance Company is in the city and expects to establish an agency here.

The popular Lyceum theatre continues to be the centre of attraction. The Messrs. Hardwick are experienced theatre men and know how to please the public.

We will give you absolutely free for the postage (25c) three of the leading magazines for a year, out of a list of a hundred, if you will subscribe for the News at $1.00 a year or pay up your back subscription for that amount. Can you beat that proposition? Come in and look over the sample magazines and make your selections

J. H. Savage, state manager of the Praetorians, of Roswell, spent Tuesday in the city.

The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hazelwood Monday and left a big baby boy.

J. H. Moss, of Melrose, was in the city visiting his son Ben Moss, Wednesday. Mr. Moss is one of the few survivors of Quantrell's band.

J. R. Moore, of Hall county, Texas, returned to his claims near Blacktower recently, bringing a bride with him. He says that the people of Hall County are wild to come to eastern New Mexico and that the rush has only begun. Clovis is the objective point.

Miss Mildred Morgan has resigned at the Southwestern Drug Store and left Thursday for El Paso to join her mother who is engaged in business there. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Pearl Gorman who will also reside in El Paso.

For Sale.

10 high grade and pure bred Hereford bulls ranging from 3 to 5 years old for sale. Cash or time. These bulls are in prime breeding condition. Inquire of Clovis Creamery and Produce Co. or Will H. Pattison, 3 miles of Clovis

Father Titius Kopp returned to his home in Roswell, Tuesday.

J. H. Barry went to Santa Rosa in Con Barry's Ford car, Tuesday.

Dr. J. Foster Scott went to his ranch on the lower Yeso, Tuesday. He will return the last of the week.

Charley King, the meat drummer of Marathon fame, was in the city selling Cudahy's products Monday.

Charles Hart, a prominent stockman of Melrose, who has many acquaintances in Clovis, was in the city Tuesday.

W. O. Van Arsdale and son, Harry, of the Arkansas Valley Land and Townsite Company were in the city several days this week. Harry returned to his home in Wichita, Tuesday.

Mrs. Whiting Home.

Mrs. A. J. Whiting returned Tuesday from the eastern markets where she has been purchasing the spring and summer goods for Whiting's Dry Goods store. She bought freely, selecting only the latest and most attractive goods, such as are calculated to be staple and good sellers. Mr. Whiting informs us that he expects to be in shape to move on the first of the month.

Notice of Suit.

No. 837.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF Curry County, New Mexico.

Effie Perkins, Plaintiff vs. Jess Perkins, Defendant.

To the defendant, Jess Perkins, in the above suit:

You will take notice that a suit has been filed against you in the District Court of the Fifth Judicial District, Curry County, New Mexico, in which Effie Perkins is Plaintiff and Jess Perkins is defendant and numbered 837 on the docket of said court.

You are further notified that the general objects of said suit are as follows: To secure a decree of divorce dissolving the marriage relation existing between the plaintiff and defendant.

You are further notified that if you fail to appear or plead in this cause on or before April 10th 1915, judgment will be rendered against you in said cause by default and the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief sought in the complaint herein.

W. A. Havener is attorney for the plaintiff and his post office and business address is Clovis, New Mexico.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said court this 2nd day of February 1915.

W. C. Zerwer,
(Seal) County Clerk.

F5-F26

WE ARE DEPOSITORY FOR THE STATE, COUNTY and A. T. & S. F. R. R. CO.

WE WANT YOUR DEPOSITS

THE CLOVIS NATIONAL BANK

"BETTER THAN THE LAW REQUIRES"

DIRECTORS:

ALEX SHIPLEY, Pres., JNO. T. SHIPLEY, Vice Pres., J. C. NELSON, Cashier, W. O. OLDHAM, A. W. HOCKENHULL, W. H. DUCKWORTH, L. H. SANDERS