LOCAL MENTION

Alex Shipley made a business trip to Amarillo Thursday.

C. W. Harrison made a business trip to Ricardo Thursday.

S. J. Boykin and J. A. Nichols made a business trip to Roswell Thursday.

Wanted—Two girls to attend business school and room in the school. Nice room for lighthousekeeping. Standard Business School, Roswell, New Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Young and guest, Mrs. O. W. Young, of Elk City, Oklahoma, and Mr. A. E. Curren returned Saturday from an auto trip to Santa Fe.

Why stay in the same old rut? When you can prepare yourself in our night school for a good position, and never miss the sleep. Clovis Commercial College, in McFarlin Bldg. 9-1117

Mr. and Mrs. McBride and son, Ollie, have just returned from an automobile trip to points in Oklahoma, and Texas. They report an exceptionally fine trip. Ollie had intended to enter school in some Texas college but has changed his mind and will spend the winter in Clovis.

Mr. S. W. Bethune of Little Rock, Ark., is here for a visit with H. E. and C. C. Baker. Mr. Bethune is a lifelong friend of the Messrs. Baker and has been associated with them in the Arkansas-Texas Oil Co. Mr. Bethune is greatly enthused over New Mexico and thinks we have a great country.

Mrs. E. R. Cassel very delightfully entertained last Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. F. J. Evans of St. Louis, Mo. A dainty two-course luncheon was served to the following guests: Mesdames Andy Moore, Bessie Moore, Collins, Boyd, Luikart, Howard, Reagan, Watson, Grisamore, Bishop, Campbell Story and Evans.

An entertainment was given in the parlors of the Methodist church Monday evening in honor of the new members who recently joined the church. An interesting program was prepared including a piano solo by Miss Pearl Smith, song by Misses Webb and Elsie Maud Garner, piano accompaniment by Miss Williams. After the program the crowd filed out on the lawn and enjoyed a watermelon feast.

J. C. Meredith of Bellview was in town Tuesday. Mr. Meredith has recently sold his farm and crop to Barney Parish, who lives a mile north of Bellview. Mr. Meredith says row crops are good in his part of the county and they have not suffered from rain as they have immediately about Clovis. He says some cane has been cut and many feed crops will commence to be harvested soon.

Aaron Sadler returned home Wednesday from overseas. Mr. Sadler was one of the first to go and the last to come back, enlisting as one of the first volunteers and remaining almost to the last man. Mr. Sadler's many friends are greeting him with hearty hand shakes and glad smiles of welcome. Mr. Sadler served part of the time as truck driver while the battles were raging, bringing ammunition to the front.

OUR SPICE BOX

Anticipated calamities seldom show up.

Poverty is the mother of many efforts.

The other fellow's viewpoint is also reasonable—from his point of view.

Honesty is the excuse lots of men give for being poor.

About the only Midnight Oil burned nowadays is the stuff that is sold from little pumps in front of garages.

Any Princess prefers a youth who says he is willing to die for her to a man who says he is willing to earn her a living.

A pest has no trouble in getting letters of recommendation when he is trying to land a position in a dynamite factory.

If a 200-pound man had sense enough to wear a straight front corset his stomach wouldn't spread all over the neighborhood the way it does.

If a man is cross-eyed, he knows it, and lets it go at that. But if a girl is pretty she has to look into the mirror every 10 minutes to make sure of the fact.

Now that Congress is regulating our home affairs for us, it might be a good idea for Congress to enact a law compelling a man to use a handkerchief when he wants to blow his nose.

MARION DAVIES in "The Dark Star"
Chambers' Thrift Special

A Whirlpool of Adventure in "The Dark Star," adapted from Robert W. Chambers' story which ran in the Cosmopolitan Magazine. All men and women in this story who were born under the Dark Star are lured into a seething vortex of crime, intrigue, mystery and romance. Through New York, through Paris, on the seas, into desperate deeds and strange places, they are lured by a little Chinese idol which is tangled in the fate of rulers and empires. Love and hate and devil-may-care daring! Devotion to country and the plotting of spies! Gay revel and the shadow of war! Then at last, this great Robert W. Chambers tale comes to a terrific climax, and Youth has its way. Don't miss it! This story and a Mack Sennett Comedy will be presented at the Lyceum Theatre, Saturday night, August 13th. See it!

PERSHING'S GREETING UPON HIS ARRIVAL

After the first greetings were over General Pershing made this statement to the Associated Press.

"There isn't anything of consequence to say in circumstances like these. It is overwhelming, overpowering. To say that I am glad to be home is superfluous. I accept this in the name of the brave fellows who came over and served to the best of their ability, making our success possible."

W. B. Cramer made a business trip to Amarillo this week. Mr. Cramer says that property is very active there now and particularly homes which are selling at the highest prices in the history of the town.

OFF TO COLLEGE

Aren't you just anxious to get back to school? Soon you'll be meeting old acquaintances and friends, and making new ones. The new season will start things off with a rush; and the social season will bring the demand for appropriate clothes. It seems unnecessary to say: "You'll find the proper furnishings for all these occasions at W. I. Luikart & Co's." Where else would you expect to find them?

If you are going away to school; or if you are spending the season (which promises to be a lively one socially) at home, then you will need the correct apparel for the many functions that are being planned. Come here for the things you will need.
