SUNDAY, DECEMBER 13.

THE DEDICATION OF THE TEMPLE.

1 Kings 8:1-11, 62, 63.

Motto Text—"I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord."—Ps. 122:1.

The temple was the most beautiful building ever erected by man, and at an expense of labour and money that staggers the imagination. 150,000 men hired from the other nations, and 30,000 Israelites worked for years in its building, quarrying the stones, &c. The skilled workmen who directed were from Tyre. David had gathered one and a half billion in gold, and nearly a billion in silver, which was used in the construction. The iron and brass were beyond computation. The precious stones were in profusion. All that man could be was done to make this temple a worthy foot stool for God.

"Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Israel unto king Solomon in Jerusalem."—The same men whom David had brought together when he proclaimed Solomon the choice of God for the succession to his throne. "That they might bring up the ark of the covenant of the Lord out of the city of David which is Zion."—Mt. Zion was the westward of the two principal hills on which Jerusalem was built. The temple was upon Mt. Moriah, whose top was levelled, a great work in itself. The temple was but an empty shell, till the ark the symbol of God's presence was placed within it. It was to impress their minds on God instead of on the gorgeousness of the temple.

"And all the men of Israel assembled themselves unto king Solomon at the feast in the month Ethanim, which is the seventh month."—Ethanim was the latter part of September and the first part of October. Three times a year all the men of Israel presented themselves before the Lord. And Solomon had placed the dedication at the time of the feast of the tabernacles, one of these occasions. The Israelites might be at war, but when the time of the feast came the men all left their camps and went to Shiloh or Jerusalem, wherever the ark was leaving their families in God's care. For they had His promise that no foe should molest the women and children while they were gone.

"And all the elders of Israel came, and the priests took up the ark."—All the elders went with the priests to Mt. Zion to bring the ark. The priests carried it on their shoulders after the high priest had covered it. The staves of gold by which it was carried were so long there was no danger of the ark touching the priests.

"And they brought up the ark of the Lord, and the tabernacle of the congregation."—This was the tabernacle which Moses had made in the wilderness. It was folded up and carefully preserved in one of the rooms of the temple. "And all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle."—The altar of incense and its dishes, the golden candlestick, the table for the shew bread, &c.

"And king Solomon and all the congregation of Israel that were assembled unto him, were with him before the ark."—Probably in the courts of the temple. When the priests brought the ark up Mt. Moriah they seem to have stood for a while in the court before the great brazen altar while sacrifices were offered. "Sacrificing sheep and oxen that could not be told nor numbered for multitudes."—Referring to the sacrifices which went on during the week of the feast. Part of the sacrifices were burned, and

"And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the Lord unto his place, into the oracle of the house." Called the oracle because in it God's presence was manifested in the Shechmah, the light that shown from the mercy seat. Great cherubims of gold sheltered the ark with their outstretched wings. "Cherubim" is the plural of cherub, and the "s" should not have been added. The cherubim or the knowing ones, are an order of the angels supposed to be of lower rank than the seraphim, the "burning ones." Only once is this veil lifted high enough for us to catch a glimpse of the seraphim, and that was in Isaiah's vision of God's throne.

"And they drew out the staves that the end of the staves were seen out in the holy place before the oracle."—The ark was close to the rear wall in the Holy of Holies, and the staves were very long. Thus they were drawn out on the side till they appeared beyond the curtain in the Holy place where stood the altar of incense, the table of shewbread and the golden candlesticks. But they could not be seen by any one outside the holy place, into which no one but the priests was allowed to go. The sight of the staves would keep the ark and all it meant continually in the minds of the priests who never saw it. No one but the high priest ever went into the Holy of holies, and he only once a year. "And there they are unto this day."—At the time when this book of Chronicles was written,

"There was nothing in the ark but the two tables of stone which Moses put there in Horeb."—The Aaron's rod which had budded and a golden pot filled with manna had been in the ark. Whether God had ordered them to be taken out when the desert march was over, or the Philistines had moved them when the ark was in their power we are not told. The only thing which was kept in the ark was the law of God. The mercy of God is founded on His law, and that law cannot be set aside. Its full penalty must be met by every sinner or by the great Substitute.

"And it came to pass when the priests were come out of the holy place."—The high priest alone could go into this place when the ark was at rest and uncovered it. But when it was to be moved, he covered it, and then the priests came in and carried it out. They carried it unto the place and put it down, and when they had gone out the high priest took off the covering and followed them. In every way God taught His people reverence in His worship. It is a lesson which is sorely needed at this day.

"And it came to pass when the priests were come out of the holy place that the cloud filled the house of the Lord."—This was the token of God's presence, of His acceptance of the temple and His blessing upon it. The glory of the Lord was the fire, the Shechmah, within the cloud and veiled by it. As this light had filled the tabernacle when it was dedicated, so that Moses and Aaron could not remain in it, now in the temple the priests had to leave the help place, outside the veil which shut off the Holy of holies, and God alone occupied His temple.

The teachers must be careful not to let the children get the idea that our houses of worship correspond to the temple. Our churches correspond to the synagogues. God's temples are the hearts of His regenerated ones. These are to be adorned with the gold of fine character, and the graces of the virtues are the gems.

The Phelps Hall Bible Training School.

Connected with the Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute at Tuskegee, Ala., offers exceptional opportunities to young men wishing to prepare for the christian ministry. The chief aim of the instruction is to afford young men and women a comprehensive knowledge of the English Bible and to implant in their hearts an ambition to dedicate their lives to the elevation and Christianization of their race. Sturged to do missionary work in the various churches and Sunday-schools near the institution and report on same each week.

The teaching in the Bible school is wholly undenominational, the intention being not to oppose or antagonize any theological work now being done, but rather to assist all denominations.

Phelps Hall is three stories high. It contains a chapel, library, reading room, office and three recitation rooms besides forty rooms for dormitory purposes. Rev. Edgar J. Penny is in charge of the work, and is assisted by Rev. B. H. Peterson and Rev. J. H. Gadsden. A special course of lectures is given each year in the Bible school by Dr. C. O. Boote, of Selma, Ala., Rt. Rev. George W. Clinton, of N. C., and Dr. H. T. Johnson, of Philadelphia. Other notable lecturers come from time to time.

The teaching is free. The cost of board, including furnished room, light, fuel and laundry is eight dollars per month. Students are afforded an opportunity to work two or three dollars of this amount each month. In some cases arrangements can be made to work out the entire sum. Lack of means need be no bar. Further information if desired can be secured by addressing

World's Fair March 1904.

Mr. John C. Weber, director of Weber's Military Band, Cincinnati known as the "Prize Band of America," has composed the St. Louis World's Fair March 1904—and dedicated it to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. It will be distributed through the passenger department of the B. & O. S. W. R. R., World's Fair Route, at 10 cents per copy.

The music is in sheet form, arranged for the piano, being very handsomely gotten up, with highly illuminated title cover. Mr. John C. Weber is not only a great Musical Director, but he has written some very catchy and popular marches. The St. Louis World's Fair March is the latest success, and will add for her to his fame.

Mr. Weber and his great organization of artists has twice defeated all comers in the national contests at Wilkes' Reunions. The latest triumph was at Baltimore, Md., on the 21st of last July when a notable contest, composed of the leading bands of America won the first prize of $1,000.00. It is confidently expected that Mr. Weber's World's Fair March will become a popular air during the next year, and every household should have a copy of this music.

Send 10 cents in silver to the undersigned and a copy of the World's Fair March will be mailed to your address.

A Mammoth Holiday Issue.

The December Delineator (Christmas number) has a first edition of more than a million copies and contains 240 pages. Among the notable contributors are: Richard Le Gallienne, with a delicate romance. A Wedding Ring in the Garden; W. A. Frazier, with an Indian tale, the Net of Leo; Albert Bigelow Paine, with a delightful sketch founded on the follies of the collector; Harriet Prescott Spofford, with a love story of usual interest; Andrew Lang, with a clever travesty on the unusual fairy tale; and Gustav Robbe, with an interesting paper describing the life of Mme. Emma Homes, in her Italian home, with her portrait in colors. There is also the third installment of the Evolution of a Club. Women and a remarkable photographic article by J. C. Hammett. There are many beautiful art features, among them four gages in colors representing Babyhood, Childhood, Girlhood, and Motherhood, by Bernard J. Rosenmeyer. For the children there are entertaining games and stories, and for the housewife many practical suggestions in cookery and other departments of the home, for the Christmas season.
