

INTERMOUNTAIN CATHOLIC
ROOM 421, ATLAS BLOCK.
TELEPHONE 567.

SALT LAKE
CITY AND NEIGHBORHOOD.

The Utah educational exhibit arrived at St. Louis June 6 and is now in place.

M. H. Walker donated twenty acres of land to the growing list of prizes to be given away on Real Estate Men's Day at Salt Lake, June 29.

Beginning with last Wednesday the music stores of Salt Lake will close each Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock until Sept. 1.

The ornamental glass for the skylight over the sitting apartments in the M. H. Walker mansion is the most elaborate and costly stained glass ever received in this city.

Don McGuire of Ogden was in the city on Monday.

James Mullins of Kemmerer is visiting in the city.

Clarence McCadden returned Monday from Boston where he has just completed his second year in the Boston University school.

Frank Fakel is enlarging his pretty home near Liberty park and when completed the residence will be one of the most attractive in that part of the city.

Mrs. A. W. Dowd entertained on Tuesday at a delightful luncheon. The guests present were: Mrs. D. S. Spencer, Mrs. H. L. Miller, Mrs. H. N. Mayo, Mrs. Clarence Warnock, Mrs. E. F. Root, Mrs. J. J. Judson, Mrs. George Cushing, Mrs. Misses, Mrs. Harriette, Mrs. Clinton, Mrs. Will Ellerbe, Mrs. De Wolf of Beaver, Mrs. J. T. Richards, Mrs. George Putnam, Mrs. John Sharp and Mrs. John N. Sharp.

Miss Katherine Farrell spent last week in Park City.

Mrs. J. P. Kelly returned to her home in Park City last Saturday after a pleasant visit in this city.

Edward Murphy was down from Park City on Monday.

M. H. Hennessey of Park City spent a few days here last week.

Dan Martin and wife were in from Eureka last Monday.

Clarence A. Locke, for thirteen years in the local railway mail service, and a pioneer in the local civil service, will take a trip into Sonora, Mexico, shortly, and it is expected that he will locate there, going into mining.

Mrs. Lulu Ryan of Oakland, Cal., arrived in the city Monday night and will be the guest for a month of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McManis at 342 Third East Street.

Invitations were issued Monday by Mrs. Ezra Thompson for a large tea on the afternoon of June 22.

Mrs. M. F. Cunningham and children expect to leave for the east next week, to be away all summer.

Miss Kinney gave an informal luncheon at the Country club on Monday.

Many friends here and in Park City will be interested in learning of the appointment just received by Dr. W. D. Donohoe, formerly of Park City, but who is now studying in London. Dr. Donohoe has been appointed assistant to Dr. Sanford Morton at the Great Northern Central hospital, and was chosen from a class of fifteen, all of whom had been in the hospital longer than he.

Roy Higson, son of C. J. Higson, returned Tuesday from Wisconsin university where he has been studying electrical engineering. Mr. Higson graduated from the Salt Lake High school two years ago.

Among the many Salt Lakeers at the World's fair during the past month were Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Callahan, W. J. Halloran and family, Mrs. S. A. McChrystal, Mrs. Edward Parson, D. Alex. McCrystal, D. L. Nickum, Mrs. J. Visei, Mrs. Otto Visei and A. J. Murphy.

Mrs. J. F. Dunn entertained at cards Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. E. E. Calvin, who will hereafter make her home in Portland, Ore. Thirteen tables were filled with the guests who enjoyed the game of euchre, the prizes being won by Mrs. D. J. Malone of Pocatello, and Miss Driscoll. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

High Mass will be discontinued the last of this month.

Sunday school continues until June 26.

Sister Mary Joseph formerly of St. Mary's academy in this city, arrived last Monday from Woodland, Cal., and remained a few days before proceeding to Notre Dame.

Incredible though it may seem, all the returns for the "Brownie Band" concert given last December are still not made. Over twenty people have never accounted for tickets taken for the concert. Likewise all the returns for the St. Patrick's concert are still not in and ten people have not yet reported for the Smith benefit given in April. Those in charge of the entertainments will appreciate hearing from the delinquents, who are being bound to return either tickets or money.

Social and Personal.

Dan Riley arrived home from Denver last week and will visit his parents for the next six weeks. Many friends are giving him a cordial welcome and he is the same genial Dan of old.

Miss Martha Walters left last night on a trip to San Francisco, to be gone about six weeks.

Mrs. McKay and Master Joseph McKay left Sunday for New York.

Mrs. Theodore M. Baldwin was in the city during the week, en route to Fort Leadville, Mont., and was a guest at the Judge home during her stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kelly, formerly of San Francisco, are now at home at 218 First street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Wineman and daughter have returned home from a visit to St. Louis.

W. J. Halloran and the children left on Sunday for a visit to the World's fair.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Neubauser are the happy parents of a handsome son, born last week.

Miss Lena Fakel is spending a few days in the country.

Miss Rogue and Miss Mary Dornie have gone to Denver for a two weeks' visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Charlton and baby left on Tuesday for a visit to St. Louis and to Mr. Charlton's home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Howard are rejoicing over the birth of a baby daughter. Mrs. Howard was formerly Mary Hunter, a popular pupil of St. Mary's academy in this city, and the old St. Mary's girls will be interested in the little stranger.

Mrs. Mary Bonner of Eureka was a visitor at the Intermountain Catholic church during the past week. Mrs. Bonner is spending a few weeks in Park City.

Don McGuire of Ogden was in the city on Monday.

J. J. Burke spent last week in Bingham.

Mrs. Fred Peiper and Miss Katherine McDonald will spend the greater part of the summer in California.

F. W. Quinn and family of Eureka were in the city on Monday.

James Mullins of Kemmerer is visiting in the city.

Clarence McCadden returned Monday from Boston where he has just completed his second year in the Boston University school.

Frank Fakel is enlarging his pretty home near Liberty park and when completed the residence will be one of the most attractive in that part of the city.

Mrs. A. W. Dowd entertained on Tuesday at a delightful luncheon. The guests present were: Mrs. D. S. Spencer, Mrs. H. L. Miller, Mrs. H. N. Mayo, Mrs. Clarence Warnock, Mrs. E. F. Root, Mrs. J. J. Judson, Mrs. George Cushing, Mrs. Misses, Mrs. Harriette, Mrs. Clinton, Mrs. Will Ellerbe, Mrs. De Wolf of Beaver, Mrs. J. T. Richards, Mrs. George Putnam, Mrs. John Sharp and Mrs. John N. Sharp.

Miss Katherine Farrell spent last week in Park City.

Mrs. J. P. Kelly returned to her home in Park City last Saturday after a pleasant visit in this city.

Edward Murphy was down from Park City on Monday.

M. H. Hennessey of Park City spent a few days here last week.

Dan Martin and wife were in from Eureka last Monday.

Clarence A. Locke, for thirteen years in the local railway mail service, and a pioneer in the local civil service, will take a trip into Sonora, Mexico, shortly, and it is expected that he will locate there, going into mining.

Mrs. Lulu Ryan of Oakland, Cal., arrived in the city Monday night and will be the guest for a month of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McManis at 342 Third East Street.

Invitations were issued Monday by Mrs. Ezra Thompson for a large tea on the afternoon of June 22.

Mrs. M. F. Cunningham and children expect to leave for the east next week, to be away all summer.

Miss Kinney gave an informal luncheon at the Country club on Monday.

Many friends here and in Park City will be interested in learning of the appointment just received by Dr. W. D. Donohoe, formerly of Park City, but who is now studying in London. Dr. Donohoe has been appointed assistant to Dr. Sanford Morton at the Great Northern Central hospital, and was chosen from a class of fifteen, all of whom had been in the hospital longer than he.

Roy Higson, son of C. J. Higson, returned Tuesday from Wisconsin university where he has been studying electrical engineering. Mr. Higson graduated from the Salt Lake High school two years ago.

Among the many Salt Lakeers at the World's fair during the past month were Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Callahan, W. J. Halloran and family, Mrs. S. A. McChrystal, Mrs. Edward Parson, D. Alex. McCrystal, D. L. Nickum, Mrs. J. Visei, Mrs. Otto Visei and A. J. Murphy.

Mrs. J. F. Dunn entertained at cards Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. E. E. Calvin, who will hereafter make her home in Portland, Ore. Thirteen tables were filled with the guests who enjoyed the game of euchre, the prizes being won by Mrs. D. J. Malone of Pocatello, and Miss Driscoll. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

High Mass will be discontinued the last of this month.

Sunday school continues until June 26.

Sister Mary Joseph formerly of St. Mary's academy in this city, arrived last Monday from Woodland, Cal., and remained a few days before proceeding to Notre Dame.

Incredible though it may seem, all the returns for the "Brownie Band" concert given last December are still not made. Over twenty people have never accounted for tickets taken for the concert. Likewise all the returns for the St. Patrick's concert are still not in and ten people have not yet reported for the Smith benefit given in April. Those in charge of the entertainments will appreciate hearing from the delinquents, who are being bound to return either tickets or money.

Social and Personal.

Dan Riley arrived home from Denver last week and will visit his parents for the next six weeks. Many friends are giving him a cordial welcome and he is the same genial Dan of old.

Miss Martha Walters left last night on a trip to San Francisco, to be gone about six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kelly, formerly of San Francisco, are now at home at 218 First street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Wineman and daughter have returned home from a visit to St. Louis.

W. J. Halloran and the children left on Sunday for a visit to the World's fair.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Neubauser are the happy parents of a handsome son, born last week.

Miss Lena Fakel is spending a few days in the country.

Miss Rogue and Miss Mary Dornie have gone to Denver for a two weeks' visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Charlton and baby left on Tuesday for a visit to St. Louis and to Mr. Charlton's home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Howard are rejoicing over the birth of a baby daughter. Mrs. Howard was formerly Mary Hunter, a popular pupil of St. Mary's academy in this city, and the old St. Mary's girls will be interested in the little stranger.

Mrs. Mary Bonner of Eureka was a visitor at the Intermountain Catholic church during the past week. Mrs. Bonner is spending a few weeks in Park City.

Don McGuire of Ogden was in the city on Monday.

J. J. Burke spent last week in Bingham.

Mrs. Fred Peiper and Miss Katherine McDonald will spend the greater part of the summer in California.

F. W. Quinn and family of Eureka were in the city on Monday.

James Mullins of Kemmerer is visiting in the city.

Clarence McCadden returned Monday from Boston where he has just completed his second year in the Boston University school.

Frank Fakel is enlarging his pretty home near Liberty park and when completed the residence will be one of the most attractive in that part of the city.

Mrs. A. W. Dowd entertained on Tuesday at a delightful luncheon. The guests present were: Mrs. D. S. Spencer, Mrs. H. L. Miller, Mrs. H. N. Mayo, Mrs. Clarence Warnock, Mrs. E. F. Root, Mrs. J. J. Judson, Mrs. George Cushing, Mrs. Misses, Mrs. Harriette, Mrs. Clinton, Mrs. Will Ellerbe, Mrs. De Wolf of Beaver, Mrs. J. T. Richards, Mrs. George Putnam, Mrs. John Sharp and Mrs. John N. Sharp.

Miss Katherine Farrell spent last week in Park City.

Mrs. J. P. Kelly returned to her home in Park City last Saturday after a pleasant visit in this city.

Edward Murphy was down from Park City on Monday.

M. H. Hennessey of Park City spent a few days here last week.

Dan Martin and wife were in from Eureka last Monday.

Clarence A. Locke, for thirteen years in the local railway mail service, and a pioneer in the local civil service, will take a trip into Sonora, Mexico, shortly, and it is expected that he will locate there, going into mining.

Mrs. Lulu Ryan of Oakland, Cal., arrived in the city Monday night and will be the guest for a month of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McManis at 342 Third East Street.

Invitations were issued Monday by Mrs. Ezra Thompson for a large tea on the afternoon of June 22.

Mrs. M. F. Cunningham and children expect to leave for the east next week, to be away all summer.

Miss Kinney gave an informal luncheon at the Country club on Monday.

Many friends here and in Park City will be interested in learning of the appointment just received by Dr. W. D. Donohoe, formerly of Park City, but who is now studying in London. Dr. Donohoe has been appointed assistant to Dr. Sanford Morton at the Great Northern Central hospital, and was chosen from a class of fifteen, all of whom had been in the hospital longer than he.

Roy Higson, son of C. J. Higson, returned Tuesday from Wisconsin university where he has been studying electrical engineering. Mr. Higson graduated from the Salt Lake High school two years ago.

Among the many Salt Lakeers at the World's fair during the past month were Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Callahan, W. J. Halloran and family, Mrs. S. A. McChrystal, Mrs. Edward Parson, D. Alex. McCrystal, D. L. Nickum, Mrs. J. Visei, Mrs. Otto Visei and A. J. Murphy.

Mrs. J. F. Dunn entertained at cards Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. E. E. Calvin, who will hereafter make her home in Portland, Ore. Thirteen tables were filled with the guests who enjoyed the game of euchre, the prizes being won by Mrs. D. J. Malone of Pocatello, and Miss Driscoll. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

High Mass will be discontinued the last of this month.

Sunday school continues until June 26.

Sister Mary Joseph formerly of St. Mary's academy in this city, arrived last Monday from Woodland, Cal., and remained a few days before proceeding to Notre Dame.

Incredible though it may seem, all the returns for the "Brownie Band" concert given last December are still not made. Over twenty people have never accounted for tickets taken for the concert. Likewise all the returns for the St. Patrick's concert are still not in and ten people have not yet reported for the Smith benefit given in April. Those in charge of the entertainments will appreciate hearing from the delinquents, who are being bound to return either tickets or money.

Social and Personal.

Dan Riley arrived home from Denver last week and will visit his parents for the next six weeks. Many friends are giving him a cordial welcome and he is the same genial Dan of old.

Miss Martha Walters left last night on a trip to San Francisco, to be gone about six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kelly, formerly of San Francisco, are now at home at 218 First street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Wineman and daughter have returned home from a visit to St. Louis.

W. J. Halloran and the children left on Sunday for a visit to the World's fair.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Neubauser are the happy parents of a handsome son, born last week.

Miss Lena Fakel is spending a few days in the country.

Miss Rogue and Miss Mary Dornie have gone to Denver for a two weeks' visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Charlton and baby left on Tuesday for a visit to St. Louis and to Mr. Charlton's home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Howard are rejoicing over the birth of a baby daughter. Mrs. Howard was formerly Mary Hunter, a popular pupil of St. Mary's academy in this city, and the old St. Mary's girls will be interested in the little stranger.

Mrs. Mary Bonner of Eureka was a visitor at the Intermountain Catholic church during the past week. Mrs. Bonner is spending a few weeks in Park City.

Don McGuire of Ogden was in the city on Monday.

J. J. Burke spent last week in Bingham.

Mrs. Fred Peiper and Miss Katherine McDonald will spend the greater part of the summer in California.

F. W. Quinn and family of Eureka were in the city on Monday.

James Mullins of Kemmerer is visiting in the city.

Clarence McCadden returned Monday from Boston where he has just completed his second year in the Boston University school.

Frank Fakel is enlarging his pretty home near Liberty park and when completed the residence will be one of the most attractive in that part of the city.

Mrs. A. W. Dowd entertained on Tuesday at a delightful luncheon. The guests present were: Mrs. D. S. Spencer, Mrs. H. L. Miller, Mrs. H. N. Mayo, Mrs. Clarence Warnock, Mrs. E. F. Root, Mrs. J. J. Judson, Mrs. George Cushing, Mrs. Misses, Mrs. Harriette, Mrs. Clinton, Mrs. Will Ellerbe, Mrs. De Wolf of Beaver, Mrs. J. T. Richards, Mrs. George Putnam, Mrs. John Sharp and Mrs. John N. Sharp.

Miss Katherine Farrell spent last week in Park City.

Mrs. J. P. Kelly returned to her home in Park City last Saturday after a pleasant visit in this city.

Edward Murphy was down from Park City on Monday.

M. H. Hennessey of Park City spent a few days here last week.

Dan Martin and wife were in from Eureka last Monday.

Clarence A. Locke, for thirteen years in the local railway mail service, and a pioneer in the local civil service, will take a trip into Sonora, Mexico, shortly, and it is expected that he will locate there, going into mining.

Mrs. Lulu Ryan of Oakland, Cal., arrived in the city Monday night and will be the guest for a month of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McManis at 342 Third East Street.

Invitations were issued Monday by Mrs. Ezra Thompson for a large tea on the afternoon of June 22.

Mrs. M. F. Cunningham and children expect to leave for the east next week, to be away all summer.

Miss Kinney gave an informal luncheon at the Country club on Monday.

Many friends here and in Park City will be interested in learning of the appointment just received by Dr. W. D. Donohoe, formerly of Park City, but who is now studying in London. Dr. Donohoe has been appointed assistant to Dr. Sanford Morton at the Great Northern Central hospital, and was chosen from a class of fifteen, all of whom had been in the hospital longer than he.

Roy Higson, son of C. J. Higson, returned Tuesday from Wisconsin university where he has been studying electrical engineering. Mr. Higson graduated from the Salt Lake High school two years ago.

Among the many Salt Lakeers at the World's fair during the past month were Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Callahan, W. J. Halloran and family, Mrs. S. A. McChrystal, Mrs. Edward Parson, D. Alex. McCrystal, D. L. Nickum, Mrs. J. Visei, Mrs. Otto Visei and A. J. Murphy.

Mrs. J. F. Dunn entertained at cards Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. E. E. Calvin, who will hereafter make her home in Portland, Ore. Thirteen tables were filled with the guests who enjoyed the game of euchre, the prizes being won by Mrs. D. J. Malone of Pocatello, and Miss Driscoll. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

High Mass will be discontinued the last of this month.

Sunday school continues until June 26.

Sister Mary Joseph formerly of St. Mary's academy in this city, arrived last Monday from Woodland, Cal., and remained a few days before proceeding to Notre Dame.

Incredible though it may seem, all the returns for the "Brownie Band" concert given last December are still not made. Over twenty people have never accounted for tickets taken for the concert. Likewise all the returns for the St. Patrick's concert are still not in and ten people have not yet reported for the Smith benefit given in April. Those in charge of the entertainments will appreciate hearing from the delinquents, who are being bound to return either tickets or money.

Social and Personal.

Dan Riley arrived home from Denver last week and will visit his parents for the next six weeks. Many friends are giving him a cordial welcome and he is the same genial Dan of old.

Miss Martha Walters left last night on a trip to San Francisco, to be gone about six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kelly, formerly of San Francisco, are now at home at 218 First street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Wineman and daughter have returned home from a visit to St. Louis.

W. J. Halloran and the children left on Sunday for a visit to the World's fair.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Neubauser are the happy parents of a handsome son, born last week.

Miss Lena Fakel is spending a few days in the country.

Miss Rogue and Miss Mary Dornie have gone to Denver for a two weeks' visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Charlton and baby left on Tuesday for a visit to St. Louis and to Mr. Charlton's home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Howard are rejoicing over the birth of a baby daughter. Mrs. Howard was formerly Mary Hunter, a popular pupil of St. Mary's academy in this city, and the old St. Mary's girls will be interested in the little stranger.

Mrs. Mary Bonner of Eureka was a visitor at the Intermountain Catholic church during the past week. Mrs. Bonner is spending a few weeks in Park City.

Don McGuire of Ogden was in the city on Monday.

J. J. Burke spent last week in Bingham.

Mrs. Fred Peiper and Miss Katherine McDonald will spend the greater part of the summer in California.

F. W. Quinn and family of Eureka were in the city on Monday.

James Mullins of Kemmerer is visiting in the city.

Clarence McCadden returned Monday from Boston where he has just completed his second year in the Boston University school.

Frank Fakel is enlarging his pretty home near Liberty park and when completed the residence will be one of the most attractive in that part of the city.

Mrs. A. W. Dowd entertained on Tuesday at a delightful luncheon. The guests present were: Mrs. D. S. Spencer, Mrs. H. L. Miller, Mrs. H. N. Mayo, Mrs. Clarence Warnock, Mrs. E. F. Root, Mrs. J. J. Judson, Mrs. George Cushing, Mrs. Misses, Mrs. Harriette, Mrs. Clinton, Mrs. Will Ellerbe, Mrs. De Wolf of Beaver, Mrs. J. T. Richards, Mrs. George Putnam, Mrs. John Sharp and Mrs. John N. Sharp.

Miss Katherine Farrell spent last week in Park City.

Mrs. J. P. Kelly returned to her home in Park City last Saturday after a pleasant visit in this city.

Edward Murphy was down from Park City on Monday.

M. H. Hennessey of Park City spent a few days here last week.

Dan Martin and wife were in from Eureka last Monday.

Clarence A. Locke, for thirteen years in the local railway mail service, and a pioneer in the local civil service, will take a trip into Sonora, Mexico, shortly, and it is expected that he will locate there, going into mining.

Mrs. Lulu Ryan of Oakland, Cal., arrived in the city Monday night and will be the guest for a month of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McManis at 342 Third East Street.

Invitations were issued Monday by Mrs. Ezra Thompson for a large tea on the afternoon of June 22.

Mrs. M. F. Cunningham and children expect to leave for the east next week, to be away all summer.

Miss Kinney gave an informal luncheon at the Country club on Monday.

Many friends here and in Park City will be interested in learning of the appointment just received by Dr. W. D. Donohoe, formerly of Park City, but who is now studying in London. Dr. Donohoe has been appointed assistant to Dr. Sanford Morton at the Great Northern Central hospital, and was chosen from a class of fifteen, all of whom had been in the hospital longer than he.

Roy Higson, son of C. J. Higson, returned Tuesday from Wisconsin university where he has been studying electrical engineering. Mr. Higson graduated from the Salt Lake High school two years ago.

Among the many Salt Lakeers at the World's fair during the past month were Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Callahan, W. J. Halloran and family, Mrs. S. A. McChrystal, Mrs. Edward Parson, D. Alex. McCrystal, D. L. Nickum, Mrs. J. Visei, Mrs. Otto Visei and A. J. Murphy.

Mrs. J. F. Dunn entertained at cards Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. E. E. Calvin, who will hereafter make her home in Portland, Ore. Thirteen tables were filled with the guests who enjoyed the game of euchre, the prizes being won by Mrs. D. J. Malone of Pocatello, and Miss Driscoll. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

High Mass will be discontinued the last of this month.

Sunday school continues until June 26.

Sister Mary Joseph formerly of St. Mary's academy in this city, arrived last Monday from Woodland, Cal., and remained a few days before proceeding to Notre Dame.

Incredible though it may seem, all the returns for the "Brownie Band" concert given last December are still not made. Over twenty people have never accounted for tickets taken for the concert. Likewise all the returns for the St. Patrick's concert are still not in and ten people have not yet reported for the Smith benefit given in April. Those in charge of the entertainments will appreciate hearing from the delinquents, who are being bound to return either tickets or money.

Social and Personal.

Dan Riley arrived home from Denver last week and will visit his parents for the next six weeks. Many friends are giving him a cordial welcome and he is the same genial Dan of old.

Miss Martha Walters left last night on a trip to San Francisco, to be gone about six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kelly, formerly of San Francisco, are now at home at 218 First street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Win