SALT LAKE

CITY AND NEIGHBORHOOD.

Senator Frank J. Cannon became a member of the Salt Lake Tribune on Tuesday. Senator Cannon is a newspaper writer of long experience in Utah and elsewhere, and was editor of the Ogden State Journal until a few months ago. It is announced that the edition of Senator Cannon to the paper's staff will not result in a change in the staff or the policy of the paper.

Barney Quinn, Democratic candidate for county assessor, ran a thousand votes ahead of his ticket. A very nice amount of which Mr. Quinn is justly proud.

William Abraham, the Welsh labor agitator, will be in this city Dec. 2 next from California, where he has been attending the sessions of the American Federation of Labor.

Secretary of State Hammond has made a call on the state banks for their annual statements. The reports have been in within five days. Some of them are already "quite plain" and all is the showing made by some of them," says the secretary of state. "One of them has a deposit of nearly six million dollars. That is more than all the banks in the state had a few years ago. All the statements are indicative of great progress in the state. Much more business is being transacted and much more money is circulating."

Manager J. E. Langford of Salt Lake beach has opened negotiations with Frederick Innes, the leader of the Innes school, for the appearance of the organization at the pavilion next season. The deal was one of the attractions of the St. Louis fair and will be at the Lewis and Clark exposition next year.

Mary Cassidy of Chicago was at the Wilson Tuesday. Mr. Cassidy is a member of the firm of Hilliard, Spencer, Barrett & Co., and has been at Tonopah for several weeks in their interests.

"It is a great field, and there is a splendid future ahead of the Goldfield District," he said. "I was astounded when I saw the work that is being done. Of course, the camps are not rich by any means, but they have everything that a city has, and a good many things that Chicago has not. I stayed in Tonopah several days longer than I really should, because of its novelty to me, and I want to go back."

"A stitch in time saves nine." This trite saying applies to every station in life. It is especially applicable in a commercial sense. A dollar saved will, in time, produce nine. The principal invested becomes in time insignificant when compared to the interest. To illustrate this we give a few examples by the following example: Invest for a child $100 a year for twenty-one years. At the age of 21 with a 2 percent annually compounded the child gets $288.65, 1 cent the principal plus $178.27. But if invested at 6 per cent the child gets $399.27, 1 cent, the principal plus $1,899.57. Here is where the "stitch in time" pays for the "stitch in time." Some of our early investors have now almost reached this extraordinary extra saving, and that, too, without worry, as we always give gold-edged security for the full amount invested. Call and examine our way of doing business during the past eight years, or write, and we will satisfy you that "a stitch in time saves nine."

CATHEDRAL NOTES.

Requiem high mass will be celebrated at the cathedral early next week for the repose of the soul of Rev. Father Morrisey. The exact day and time will be announced on Sunday at all the masses.

The children of the junior choir of the cathedral will have their annual entertainment about Dec. 15, at the Grand Theatre. Tickets for admission will be 25 cents. "The Children of Fairyland" will be given with many other numbers by the well known little entertainers of the cathedral. The proceeds will be used as formerly, to purchase new music for the 9 and 11 o'clock choirs, and to add to the fund for the window to be given by the children and young girls of the choir for the cathedral. The window will cost about $250, of which $50 is already in a local bank. The children always are interesting and it is hoped that the attendance will be large.

Rev. Father Denoit requests all former altar boys of the cathedral to meet at the boys' club on Saturday at 2 o'clock. It is hoped that the attendance will be large, so that Father Denoit can begin his address encouraged by the boys and their parents also.

Tuesday, Nov. 23, being the anniversary of the death of the late Dr. P. J. McKenna, mass will be said at 8 o'clock for the repose of his soul. Friends are invited to attend.

Mass was celebrated on Thanksgiving day at 8 o'clock by Rev. Father Kiely, who preached briefly about the day, and also spoke of Rev. Father McKenna's death, requesting the congregation to pray earnestly for the repose of his soul.

Sunday, Nov. 27, (the 1st Sunday of Advent). Miss Corinne Harris as the soloist at St. Mary's last Sunday.

Services were held at the Utah state penitentiary last Sunday.

All the children of the 9 o'clock choir are requested to attend the Saturday rehearsal at 3:15 and 4 o'clock.

LITTLE FOLKS REMEMBERED.

Thanksgiving Day Made Happy at St. Ann's Orphanage. Although Mr. and Mrs. David Keith are absent from the city, they did not forget the little folks at the Keams-St. Ann's orphanage on Thanksgiving day. Nearly 400 pounds of turkey, together with an entire beef, were sent to the orphanage on Wednesday. Henry Simon of this city also sent turkeys and other good things, while five boxes of the finest apples were given by E. G. O'Donnell. If the generous ones could have witnessed the happiness of nearly 200 children on Thursday, they would not have been disappointed. May God bless the kind-hearted people who never forget St. Ann's. It is the prayer of those in charge and of the little inmates who are made very happy.

The most successful guesser in this game was Miss McGonagle, who received a book of beautiful quotations. At the close of this most enjoyable afternoon a delightful supper was served. In place of the formal toasts usually given Wednesday at the McCormick paper and pencil, and requested to

LATE AUTUMN WEDDINGS.

The Alexander home on East Fifth South was the scene of a quiet but beautiful home wedding on Thursday afternoon when Miss Lillian Bain of this city and Frank C. Donovan of Provo took place last Sunday. Mrs. Emma Gallagher and Karl Schmidt were the witnesses. Rev. Father Denoit performed the ceremony. The bride was a popular school teacher in the city schools, and Mr. Donovan has a large circle of friends in this city and Provo. The best wishes of many friends will follow Mr. and Mrs. Donovan in their new life.

DONAVON-STOLZENBERGER. Rev. Father Denoit united in marriage Miss Mary B. Donovan and Edward L. Stolzenberger at St. Mary's cathedral Wednesday evening.

Mrs. G. Hicks and W. G. Pife were the witnesses to the ceremony. The bride is well known in this city, having been a clerk in the county recorder's office for about four years. She just recently returned to this city from San Francisco. She is a charming woman, who counts here friends by the legion.

Mr. Stolzenberger is well known in business circles in Salt Lake, where he has resided for the past seven years. He has always been identified with church affairs, and is a charter member of the Knights of Columbus, having occupied various positions of trust in the order. The best wishes of many friends are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Stolzenberger, who will leave shortly for a tour of old Mexico.

clustering about the Christmas holidays are well high eclipsed by the anxiety felt for the issue of the ordeal just preceding that happy time. The remaining interval, however, offers ample opportunity both to the successful student to make assurance doubly sure, and to any who may have been remiss to retrench their negligence and consequent loss by diligent and thorough reviews.
