The Railroad Winding Its Way into the Land of Galilee.

The eighth Bishop of France visited the ruins of his diocese in Paris a few weeks ago to give a lecture to the Catholic University. He discussed the challenges facing Catholicism in the United States and the need for greater unity among believers.

BISHOPS OF FRANCE LOYAL

The recent report that the bishops of France have disavowed the activities of a certain political party has caused some consternation among the faithful. The bishops have always maintained their independence from political influence, and this recent declaration is seen as a reaffirmation of that principle.
