Rules of Life.

Thomas Jefferson, one of the framers of the Duite States, gave as one of the rules of life which every man, woman, boy and girl should remember and strive to practice, namely, "Never spend money before you have earned it."

This golden rule could be supplemented by another equally important, and that is "Save your surplus earnings in prosperous times." Place it where it will be always growing and where you are always sure of your principal and interest. Your guarantee for this is that you hold in your possession guitt-edge first mortgage. You can secure these at any time at the Salt Lake Security & Trust Co., 32 Main street, Salt Lake City.

OBITUARY.

Brennan.

Maleolim Bradley, who is playing with E. H. Sothern at the Salt Lake theatre this week, is an actor who is known for his versatile, facile art on both sides of the Atlantic. Being with the great star since 1901, he is seen to the best advantage in all the plays presented. Mr. Bradley has many personal friends in this city who are giving him a cordial welcome.

Mrs. H. B. McNair has returned from a few weeks spent in the east. George A. Glore of the fire department, is visiting in this city with his sister. Mrs. Eugene Gaylord, 299 East Third South street. Mr. Glore will remain here indefinitely.

Mrs. Peter Brennan, who died in Butte City, Mont., last Tuesday, was well known and had many friends in Ogden, and the bearing for Los Angeles and the beaches to spend a part of the winter.

Mrs. H. B. McNair has returned from a few weeks spent in the east. George A. Glore of the fire department, is visiting in this city with his sister. Mrs. Eugene Gaylord, 299 East Third South street. Mr. Glore will remain here indefinitely.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Edward Fife and Mrs. Fire's brother, T. A. Cosgriff of Evanaton, left Monday svening for Los Angeles and the beaches to spend a part of the winter.

Miss Margaret Shields went to Park City today to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. He was conditionally in covering place at the mines and smelters. Not only as a faithful servant, but as a personal friend, he stoud high in the estimation of Mr. Miss Eva Hughes of Park City visited stree last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Connelley were in ark City last weeks.

Daly. His word was his bond, and he never falled in the street last weeks.

In his home he was social, generou and the soul of honor. Full of witti cism, he loved to tell stories to enter fornia.

Miss Genevieve Brooks was in from Bingham last Sunday.

Miss Mary Blucher of Bingham spent last Sunday here.

Genime patriotism among St. Mary's students had its enthusiastic interpretation on the occasion of the centennial of the birth of Lincoln, when the members of the first preparatory class appeared before the footlights in a pleasing program illustrative of the life of Lincoln, the stateman, the emancipator the martyr-president. His diplomacy, his executive ability, his statesmanship, his altruism, were reviewed by the Temple and First South streets. An interesting musical program will be given at 8:15, which will be followed by informal card playing. The tiekets will be 30 cents, and tables may be reserved for $2.90. Refreshments, which will be donated by the women of St. Mary's and St. Patrick's parishes, should be sent early on Tuesday morning to the club house. Mrs. F. J. Westcott and Mrs. Ronald Morrison are the ladies on the reception committee to entertain and introduce the strangers. It is expected that every Catholle of the city and non-Catholic friends will attend.
