OBITUARY.

TRIBUTES TO THE GENERAL.

General Lavin.

The death of Stephen Lavin at Holy Cross hospital last week, removes from Salt Lake one of the old landmarks, who was as unique in his character as he was simple and unassuming in his disposition. He served in the civil war, and after his discharge from the regular army he took up his abode in Corinne. In 1875 he came to Salt Lake and for twenty years worked for the Sisters of the Holy Cross in the academy, hospital and orphanage. The uniqueness of his character consisted in his unshaken faith in his supposed military title of "General." He was as real as were those of Grant, Sherman and Sheridan to those brave warriors. His simplicity and gentleness were interwoven with his soldierly did not mar him those whom he trusted. Honest and reliable, he was most faithful in the discharge of any duty which he undertook to perform. Scrupulously truthful, he would incriminate himself rather than tell a lie. He received a regular pension from the United States government a few years ago. This, not because of the money itself, but because it established his active service in the civil war was to him a source of great consolation. He was always happy and cheerful and lived a sincere Christian life. When the shadows of death were approaching, he did not murmur, but prayed that he might soon be released from his sufferings. For him death was stripped of all its terrors, because his life was a continual preparation for the final dissolution. May he rest in peace.

Stephen Lavin, the "General," was buried from St. Mary's cathedral yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. Rev. Bishop Scanlan celebrated solemn pontifical high mass, assisted by Rev. W. K. Ryan, deacon; Rev. Timothy Brennan, sub-deacon; Rev. Michael Curran, Rev. A. J. Ryan, masters of ceremony. The cathedral choir sang the Gregorian requiem mass and the little children of St. Cecilia choir sang several hymns.

The sermon preached by Rev. W. K. Ryan was a tender and eloquent tribute to the gentle, simple old man, whose life was blameless. The pallbearers were W. P. O'Meara, Edward McGurran, J. J. Harvey, A. F. Porter, Michael Cassidy and George G. Doyle.

The casket was draped with handsome American flags, as the "General" was an old soldier. In General Connor's command in the early days of the state. As the casket was taken from the cathedral the little children sang his favorite hymn, "Mother, Mary, O Pray for Me," and he was laid away in Mount Calvary, in the finest lot, in the plot set aside for the clergy of the Utah diocese.

Bishop Scanlan spared no expense in caring for his faithful old friend in his illness and death. To rest in the choice lot of the cemetery was the old man's dream for years, so with all the elaborate ceremonial of the cathedral, Bishop Scanlan personally laid to final rest the kindest and simplest of dear souls, the "General."—Salt Lake Herald, June 6.

"GENERAL" LAVIN IS LAID IN GRAVE
The funeral of Stephen Lavin, whom every one in Salt Lake knew as "General," took place at 9 o'clock yesterday morning from St. Mary's cathedral. Solemn pontifical high mass was celebrated by Rt. Rev. Bishop Scanlan, assisted by Rev. W. K. Ryan, deacon; Rev. Timothy Brennan, sub-deacon; Rev. Michael Curran and Rev. A. J. Ryan, masters of ceremony. The delivered sermon devoted to the "General" was a beautiful tribute to the simple-hearted old gentleman, who had friends by the legion. The music was sung by the cathedral choir, and the pallbearers were W. P. O'Meara, Edward McGurran, J. J. Harvey and G. D. Doyle.

The little children of the choir sang while the casket, draped with handsome American flags, was taken from the cathedral. The "General" was an ardent admirer of Senator Smoot, the senator having interested himself very strongly in getting a pension for the old gentleman, who was General Connor's command in the early days. The pension was due him many years ago, and although the attention of all the Utah senators was called to the matter, Senator Smoot was the first to take action. The interment was in Mount Calvary, in the beautiful plot set aside for the clergy of the Utah diocese.

Tenderly with all the ceremonial of the Catholic church, Bishop Scanlan laid away his faithful and devoted old friend, the "General."—Inter-mountain Republican, June 6.

"GENERAL" LAVIN BURIED WITH CHURCH HONORS
The funeral services over Stephen Lavin, the "General," were held from St. Mary's cathedral Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. Rt. Rev. Bishop Scanlan celebrated solemn pontifical high mass, assisted by Rev. W. K. Ryan, deacon; Rev. Timothy Brennan, sub-deacon; Rev. A. J. Curran and Rev. Michael Curran, masters of ceremony. Hand-some American flags draped the casket. The floral offerings were many and the cathedral choir sang the Gregorian requiem mass. The children of the St. Cecilia choir also sang.

The funeral sermon, preached by Rev. W. K. Ryan, was an eloquent and touching tribute to the kind, gentle, old man, whom every one knew and liked. The pallbearers were W. P. O'Meara, Edward McGurran, J. J. Harvey, Michael Cassidy, George D. Doyle and A. F. Porter. As the casket was carried from the cathedral, the little children sang, and the "General" was laid to rest in the choicest lot in beautiful Mount Calvary. Bishop Scanlan gave his faithful old friend all the honors of the church, and buried him in the circle set aside for the clergy of the diocese, which honor was the wish of the old "General's" heart.—Salt Lake Tribune, June 6.

The sympathy of all at St. Mary's academy goes out to the bereaved family of Thomas St. Joseph's hospital. Life June 2 at St. Joseph's hospital. His devoted wife, he was sojourning in the hope of recovering his health. His demise, following so closely upon the death of his cherished youngest daughter, Eva, has left his devoted family with sorrow and distress. To his bereaved widow and son are offered the assurances of prayerful sympathy, and special condolence is extended to his beloved daughter, our esteemed pupil, Miss Adelaide Sun, of the class of 1910, by her teachers and fellow students.

WEDDING BELLS.

Daily—Lillard.

Wednesday evening Rt. Rev. Bishop Scanlan united in marriage Miss Eudora Chambers Daly and Mark W. Lillard. The service was the first to be solemnized in the new St. Mary's cathedral, and long before the hour for the marriage the sacred edifice was filled to the doors with the friends of the two young people. While they were assembling, Miss Eudora, who was in black, entered the church, the two little ring bearers, Olive Wall and Maurice Daly, walking first, followed immediately by the four ushers, Albert Daly, Jack Lloyd, John E. Clark and Harry Golding, who walked up the aisle in pairs.

Behind them came the maid of honor, Miss Selma Wall, walking alone, and the bridesmaid, Miss Alice Wall, followed shortly by the matron of honor, Mrs. Edward J. Roberts. Behind her again, and immediately preceding the bride, came the two little flower bearing baskets of pink roses.

Then entered the bride, leaving on the arm of her father. As the party reached the chancel steps the music changed to the Godard "Berceuse," and as the groom and his best man, Graham Griswold of Pasadena, stepped forward to meet the bride the solemn service of the church began. When the benediction was pronounced and the bridal party were approaching the altar, the strains of the Mendelssohn "Wedding March" sounded forth, and the bridal party passed from the church to the Daily home nearby.

The guests next hour or so greetings were exchanged, and scores of friends crowded forward to extend hearty good wishes to the two young people before they left on their wedding trip.

The home was a bower of June fragrance, ropes of smilax festooning the stairways and forming portieres between the spacious parlors, and an immense canopy of white roses and white roses holding a suspended bell above the heads of the bridal party as they stood in the drawing room to receive their friends. Through all the throng the bride and groom, dressed for the wedding were to be seen, lavishly decorated with pink roses lending their beauty to the living and dining rooms and library.

The gowns worn by the bridal party were elaborate, that of the bride being an imported gown of rose point and duchesse lace over satin. The gown of the bride was of the Empire style, and a long veil of rose point lace fell the full length of the train. Bride's roses in a shower fastened with lilies of the valley formed the bridal bouquet, and orange blossoms held the bridal veil in place. The bride wore no ornaments save a rare old brooch.

The gown worn by Mrs. Roberts was also of white lace, her own wedding gown. Mrs. Wall wore an imported gown of rose pink chiffon, with a garniture of hand embroidery, and Miss Alice Wall wore a similar gown of soft liberty satin with a square neck and long sleeves.

All the attendants carried long pink bridesmaid roses in great clusters. The three little girls in the bridal procession wore white lingerie gowns with pink trimmings and held pink roses.

At the reception at the home, Mr. and Mrs. Daly received with the wedding party, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wall and Mrs. Karl A. Scheld alternated in pouring coffee and tea. Miss L. L. Savage and Miss Mildred McMillan, while Miss Allen McMillan and Miss Cary Marshall served punch. Mrs. Daly, the mother of the bride, wore a handsome imported gown of white lace with diamonds. Mr. and Mrs. Lillard left on the evening train for Portland for a short trip, and later they will make their home here. Mrs. Lillard wore a going-away gown of navy blue broadcloth, with a gray hat and blue plumes.

The bride is a charming woman, whose friends are legion. The best wishes of many friends will follow Mr. Lillard and his winsome bride.

Coughlin-Janney.
The wedding of Miss Grace Cecilia Coughlin and John H. Janney took place on Tuesday evening. The young couple were attended by Mrs. J. McGuire and John O. Young of Ogden. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. J. Ryan. Mr. Janney is the advertising manager of the Inter-mountain Republican, while his bride is one of Ogden's prettiest and most attractive young girls. They will be at home after July 1 at the Smith apartments.

Flies.
God bless the man who first invented screens, and God pity the man who is too indolent or indifferent to place them between his family and the spreaders of deadly disease. There is absolutely no excuse for the man or woman whose place of habitation swarms with flies and winches with the voices of mosquitoes. They can be kept out, and 25 cents spent in keeping them out is equivalent to keeping out a doctor who would cost $25, or possibly to keeping out a much less welcome visitor.—Galveston News.
