ELIZABETH KELLY, Correspondent. The Inter-mountain and Colorado Catholic is placed on sale at the James Clarke church goods house, 647 California street, Denver, Colo.

K. of C. Mingrel Show.

Even more successful than previous attempts at minstrelsy have been the show given by Denver council 539, Knights of Columbus, at the auditorium Monday evening, June 14. The entertainment was under the direction of Joseph Newman, one of the popular Knights, and many but members of the organization participated.

Charles A. Nast, as interlocutor, was well received, and the songs of Thomas Collins, George Kerwin, Thomas Grogan, David Evans, Joseph Coughlin, Joseph Newman and Jack Walsh were simply delightful. The second half of the program introduced the dancing novelties, "Tell Me, Husky Miner," "The Merry Widow" and "The Twin Carmenists" were the numbers which most pleased.

The minstrel committee consisted of M. C. Harrington, James Clarke, Charles Nast, Dr. J. J. O'Neil, J. J. O'Neil, Samuel J. Young and Joseph Newman. In the cast were: H. Black, J. J. Brown, George J. Bucher, James Clarke, George J. Cuddy, Thomas P. Collins, John E. Connelly, Joseph Coughlin, Charles W. Cummings, Walter Davoren, William Dolan, William Dugan, David Evans, Herbert Fairall, William Finney, Dr. J. J. O'Neil, George Freeman, William A. Fox, Thomas E. Gehegan, Frank Gibbons, P. T. Gilmartin, M. C. Harrington, Al A. Hauk, John J. Harding, H. T. Hatton, Andrew P. Hennessy, J. J. O'Neil, Edward Kammer, George W. Kerwin, Walter Kerwin, George Lotof, Raymond McAndrews, Joseph McAndrews, Harry McCabe, Arthur J. McGowan, T. F. O'Neil, Robert O'Neil, George O'Neil, Arthur Prior, George P. Pope, P. Harry Reilly, David Ross, John Ryan, Joseph Savage, William Sayer, Henry F. Schramm, Dr. J. J. Simpson, Arthur Sullivan, Robert Sullivan, John Thumman, Frank Towers, Frank Wagner, Jack Walsh, Michael E. Walsh, William A. Walsh, J. M. Wourms, Samuel J. Young, T. Raymond Young.

Commencement Season. This is the season of commencement and the Catholics of Denver feel justly proud of the display of talent made by their schools, both private and parochial. Several interesting events have crowned the year at Immaculate Conception school. Last week the music pupils entertained their parents and friends at a social, which, for brilliancy and skill, has never been excelled by any school in the city. Saturday afternoon, June 12, the very excellent program prepared for class day was given for the entertainment of members of all the religious communities in the city. The affair was greatly enjoyed. Monday evening, June 14, the class day program was presented for the parents and friends of the school, and on Wednesday evening, June 16, the commencement exercises occurred in Logan Avenue chapel with all the religious solemnity which has characterized the closing of Immaculate Conception high school for several years past.

Church Notes.

St. Francis de Sales parochial school closed with simple exercises on Wednesday, June 16. All week the work of the pupils has been on exhibition in the class rooms and has elicited much commendation. Sacred Heart college will graduate a class on Thursday evening. An elaborate musical program has been prepared for the occasion. Exercises are to be at St. Elizabeth's hall, in West Denver.

On Tuesday, June 15, the Alumnae association of St. Mary's academy gave a breakfast at the Savoy hotel in compliment to the six young women who made up the class of '09. At the conclusion the entire party went in a trolley to Loretto Heights to witness the graduating exercises. Despite the inclement weather, the attendance was large.

The primary grade of Sacred Heart school gave an interesting program at Adelphi hall Wednesday evening, June 9, and graduating exercises were held at the same place Tuesday evening, June 15.

A report is current to the effect that a change will be made in the management of two of the local orphanages within a short time. St. Vincent's, the oldest orphanage in the state, is to care in future exclusively for boys, while the girls will be sent to St. St. Clara's, which is in charge of the Franciscan sisters and has heretofore been considered a German institution and supported mainly by the contributions of wealthy German men and women. The news caused great sorrow among the poor little orphans, for the sisters are commensurate with the love and care bestowed upon them by the sisters, in some cases the only friends the little ones have ever known. In the case of brothers and sisters, it will mean the severing of stronger ties.

On Saturday afternoon, June 12, the boys and girls of St. Vincent's carried out a most excellent program of vocal and instrumental music, recitations and drills for the entertainment of parents and friends. The program contained many of the features of the one given earlier in the month for the members of the aid societies which took after the little ones of St. Vincent's.

Rev. Father Van Soble of California, who was stationed at the old Stout street cathedral over twenty years ago, passed through Denver this week en route to New York, whence he sails for Holland. He was a guest for a few days at St. Anthony's hospital.

Rev. Father Bernard G. F. M., pastor of St. Elizabeth's church, sailed last week for Bremen. Father Bernard will visit Rome while abroad and have an audience with the pope.

Rev. J. J. Donnelly, pastor of St. Francis de Sales church, went to Canon City during the week to deliver the address at the commencement exercises at Mount St. Vincent.

The Queen of Heaven Aid society held a regular monthly meeting Tuesday afternoon, June 15, at the home of Mrs. William A. Granger, 2120 Downing avenue. Plans were discussed for the annual picnic in aid of the orphans of Regina Coeli Villa.

Great interest is manifested in the picnic for the House of the Good Shepherd, which will be given at the "White City" on Saturday, July 10. This is the first Catholic picnic ever scheduled for that popular resort, and naturally the result will be watched with interest. Judging by the advance sale of tickets, there is every reason to predict an exceptional degree of success. Mrs. Charles Strub, president of the Good Shepherd Aid association, is devoting all her time to the work, in which she finds no lack of ready and willing assistants.

A special meeting of all interested in the success of the picnic for St. Vincent's orphanage was held Sunday afternoon, June 13, in Logan avenue school house. Tickets were distributed and all present betrayed a willingness to aid in the selling. The picnic will be at Elliker's Gardens on Saturday, June 21. A number of attractions have been added to this delightful place since last season, and the splendid stock company in the theatre is in itself a drawing card. Admission tickets to the picnic will be held to a chance in the drawing, the first prize in which will be $50, the second a gold watch presented by Mrs. C. A. Williams, a life member in St. Vincent's Aid society, under whose auspices the picnic will be given.

Conway of 1419 Thirty-eighth avenue, passed away on Sunday, June 13. Funeral occurred on Wednesday with requiem mass at Annunciation church, burial was in Mount Calvary cemetery.

Lucile, the 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Koenig, died at the family home, 3776 Meade street, on Thursday, June 10. Burial was in Mount Olivet cemetery Saturday afternoon.

Despite the steady downpour of rain, a large and appreciative audience gathered Monday evening at St. Vincent's academy to attend the concert exercises at Salt Lake City and Ogden, Utah. Rev. Father Gueymard celebrated mass in his new church at Three Forks, Mont., for the first time on June 5. About thirty members of the Knights of Columbus went to Livingston last Sunday to assist in degree work.

Henry Monforton left last Friday for Rochester, Minn., to receive medical treatment or if the case requires it, to undergo an operation. Mrs. H. J. Nelson and Miss Mary Sheridan of Big Timber, Mont., spent last week visiting Mrs. Nelson's mother, Mrs. O'Connell, at Bozeman, Mont., June 12, 1909.

Patrick O'Neil, for the past twenty years a well known resident of Butte, died Saturday at his home, 294 Missoula street, of stomach trouble. Besides his wife he is survived by seven children, Josephine, James, Martin, Mary, Patrick, John and Francis. His mother, three sisters and as many brothers also survive him. The sisters are Mrs. McCormick, Mrs. Ellen Burke and Mrs. Johanna O'Neil. The brothers are John and Will of Calumet, Mich., and Martin O'Neil of Butte. The funeral and burial were held at St. Patrick's church Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock, proceeding to St. Lawrence's church, where a mass of requiem was celebrated at 10 o'clock.

Michael J. Egan, a well known miner of Butte, died Sunday night at his late residence, 465 West Virginia street, after an illness of several months. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Mary Egan, two brothers, James of Butte and Dan of Salt Lake, and three sisters, Mrs. Anna Quill of Butte, Mrs. Mary Davis of Fairbanks, Alaska, and Mrs. P. E. Egan of Virginia City, Nev. Mr. Egan was 49 years of age and was born at Louisville, Ky. He resided for a number of years at Virginia City, Nev., and came to Butte about seventeen years ago, engaging in mining soon after his arrival here. In this business he had a wide acquaintance and was held in high esteem. He was a member of the Fraternal Brotherhood, Royal Order of Sunbeams, A. O. U. W., and recording secretary for the fifth consecutive term. A smoker in St. Peter's court, 114, the same evening concluded the convention of the delegates, representing the eleven counties of the order in Montana, were present at the convention.

The Catholic Order of Foresters, at their state convention held in Butte June 5, selected Great Falls as the new place of meeting, the second Tuesday in June, a year hence. The following officers were elected: State chief ranger, James Murphy; chief ranger, J. U. Dinford of Livingston; recording secretary, George Robbin of Great Falls; treasurer, Frank Sunday of Hamilton; editor, Anacosta, James O'Connell of Butte; George Robbin of Great Falls was elected delegate to the national Foresters convention at Montreal during the first week of August. Mr. Robbin was elected recording secretary for the fifth consecutive term. A smoker in St. Peter's court, 114, the same evening concluded the convention of the delegates, representing the eleven counties of the order in Montana, were present at the convention.

Wedding Bells. A pretty wedding took place at Sacred Heart church Wednesday evening, June 9, when Miss Nellie Collins of Chicago became the bride of Edward Cummings. Miss Margaret Turner was the only attendant and the best man was Robert Dunn. Mr. and Mrs. Cummings have commenced housekeeping at 3123 Stout street, and have as their guest for a few days Mrs. Ann Girard, who chaperoned Mrs. Cummings on her journey from Chicago to meet her future husband. Mrs. Cummings is a well known and accomplished pianist, and musical circles will find quite an acquisition in her.

Several very attractive parties were given during the week for Miss Margaret Keefe, whose marriage to Leo C. Hartford will be one of the big church affairs of June. On Monday afternoon Mrs. J. H. Carpenter was hostess at a linen shower for Miss Keefe, and the attractive young woman was literally deluged with a mass of snowy whiteness, the loving offerings of about forty of her girl friends. An ardent shower was the delightful form taken by the entertainment Miss Mabel Cass devised to do honor to Miss Keefe.

Personal. Miss Marguerite Beam entertained a number of her schoolmates Saturday afternoon at her home, 1230 Humboldt street. This was Miss Beam's farewell to her young friends, as she leaves this week with her mother, Mrs. T. Walter Beam, to spend the summer in Seattle and Portland.

Mrs. James Laughlin has gone to her summer home in Platte canyon. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew H. Smith and daughter, Miss Alice Smith, have returned from an extended visit to California. John A. Flynn was in Trinidad last week.

Miss Norine Goodwin of the cathedral parish was one of the class that was graduated last week from the Miss Walcott school, the most fashionable and exclusive school for young women in Denver. Miss Goodwin's popularity was attested by the thirty-five bouquets presented her on the occasion.

Miss Mary Hickman will leave during the week for a visit to the Seattle exposition. Miss Ruth Nicholson entertained a number of her school friends at luncheon Wednesday afternoon at her home, 1539 Logan avenue.

John E. O'Hearne spent part of last week at Bailey's, the popular resort of fishermen in the Platte canyon. Charles Dawson, the baby son of Mrs. Helen Garland Dawson, is ill with diphtheria.

Miss Helen Hanson of 1620 Emerson street left on Sunday for California, where she will spend a month. Mr. and Mrs. T. P. McAndrews have rented a summer home at Buffalo park and will open the season's festivities there by a home party this week for some of the school friends of their daughter, Miss Veda McAndrews.

A decided improvement is noted in the condition of Miss Nora O'Brien, who has been quite ill for several months at her home, 184 Pennsylvania avenue. Mr. and Mrs. William Hagus and son of Colorado Springs were called to Denver last week by the serious illness of Mr. Hagus' father, George Hagus of Annunciation parish. Mr. Hagus is an old-time resident of Colorado, and a brother of John J. Hagus of the cathedral parish.

J. Kempter of Willowdale, Kan., spent a few days in Denver on his way to Del Norte, Colo., to visit his daughter, Sister Mary Carmel, at the Benedictine convent.

Obituary. John J. McNulty, who was buried on Monday from Logan avenue chapel, was an old-time resident of the cathedral parish, where he was born over forty years ago. He was a son of Patrick J. McNulty, the contractor, whose death occurred in December, 1907. John McNulty died at St. Joseph's hospital of locomotor ataxia. His only surviving relatives are two sisters residing at Colorado Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Baby of 472 Lafayette street have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in the death of their little daughter, Wilma, which occurred on Friday, June 11. The little one was buried Sunday afternoon in Mount Olivet cemetery. Mrs. Minnie E. Conway, wife of John

ESTABLISHED 1864. Auerbach & Co. ONE PRICE TO ALL NEVER UNDERSOLD.

We Have Arranged For A Big Sale OF Tailored Wash Suits at $10.95. Being the end of the manufacturing season, a prominent maker, anxious to close out his stock of wash suits, made us a low offer, and we purchased his entire stock of 180 suits at such a big price concession we are able to retail these suits at half and less than half what they would ordinarily sell for.

$22.50 Wash Suits Are Offered Monday at Auerbach's for $10.95. This is Much Less Than the Original Cost of Production and Less Than Half the Regular Retail Price. The colors: champagne, blue, steel gray, old rose, and white. The materials are Merceries, Repp Cloth and Poplins. The styles are the new seven-eighths length coats and gored skirts. This was a fortunate happening—fortunate for us and fortunate for you. Our saving is your saving, and Monday you'll buy $22.50 Wash Suits for $10.95.

LAGOON "Prettier Than Ever" Many New Attractions THE POPULAR FAMILY RESORT "Meet Ogden Friends at Lagoon" EUREKA, NEV. Rev. Father Matthew Collins returned Wednesday from a three weeks' visit to his parishioners in Elko county. Harry Suggs, a relative of H. C. McTorney, who is attending the Stanford university in California, arrived here last week to spend his vacation, and has started to work in the Richmond-Eureka mines for the purpose of acquiring some practical knowledge of mining.

ELY, NEV. Yesterday morning at 4:45 death claimed another of the pioneers of White Pine county, in the person of Mrs. Teresa Manguson, who died from cancer of the stomach after many months of patient suffering. A few weeks ago the deceased went to California to consult a specialist, but receiving no encouragement, returned to her home immediately, reconciled to her fate. Since her return she has been gradually growing worse, and yesterday morning, with the members of her family at her bedside, she peacefully passed away.
