The death has taken place at Keady of Mrs. Bridget Corrigan, at the ripe old age of 108 years. She was able, till about three weeks before her demise, to assist at light work about the farmhouse, and was able to read, knit and sew without the aid of glasses. She attributed her long life to the liberal use of potatoes, vegetables, porridge and new milk.

A fierce southwesterly gale raged over the north of Ireland during the night of November 13-14. At Belfast a man named Dugan was blown through a shop window, his head being terribly gashed. He lies in a hospital in a precarious state.

A gold mace, the generous gift of a citizen of Belfast, was presented to the Queen's university on November 13. It is described as "a beautiful ornament, and we read that 'the ancient art of Ireland is sympathetically represented in the design, the head having a resemblance to the High Cross of Monasterboice.' The general style of the ornamentation is Irish.

Considerable interest was manifested in a rumor to the effect that Mr. W. H. Brown, B. L., son of Rev. N. M. Brown, D. D., recently, the veteran supporter of tenacity in earlier years, will oppose the return of Mr. Hugh A. Barrie, the present member, in the representation of North Derry.

The death took place recently at Ballymahon, of Charles Magree, probably the oldest jarvey in Ireland, at the age of ninety-one. Last summer he drove the car to the local Spa. In his youth he drove the mail coach from Ballymahon to Belfast, before the days of the railway.

Very Rev. Canon McCarran, R.P., Donaghmore, delivered a rattling good speech at a meeting of the Nationalists of the district on Sunday, November 14. The patriotic canon, whose discourse was so well knit that condensation would do it injustice, dealt with his subject in a lucid and masterly fashion, and drove home his points with telling force, giving the impression that no little thought had been expended in order to obtain a thorough grasp of the subject. He made a strong case for the necessity of unity and solidarity in the ranks of the U. L. and the Irish party in the present crisis.

Munster.

Mr. Coffey of Crow Hill, Newmarket-on-Fergus, scored a success in Clare grown apples at the Belfast show held on November 16. At this exhibition he secured six first prizes, three second prizes, and one third in various grades. Mr. Coffey's apples gained a greater number of first prizes than seconds, and seconds than thirds, a fact which speaks well for the Crow Hill farm.

Dr. C. C. Hickey, son of Dr. P. C. Hickey, of Kilkree, has just been awarded the Fellowship of the Royal College of Surgeons, England, a rare distinction for a young graduate.

Married—on November 7, at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, St. Finbar's West, by the Rev. Father O'Leary, C. C., Thomas Ryan to Catherine (Katie) Donnelly, both of Cork. A laborer named Daniel Sheen recently met with a very serious accident at Waterville. He was working near the base of a cutting behind the houses in High street, when a large lump of clay, in which there were some stones, fell upon him, knocking him down and almost covering him. Assistance was near, however, and he was quickly extricated, when it was found that he had received a bad fracture of the skull bone, besides minor injuries. A wire was sent for the Union ambulance to Cahirciveen and it arrived as soon as possible. The poor man was conveyed to the Union hospital.

M. J. Nolan, Listowel, put up for sale on November 17, Mr. Hayes' farm at Tarbert, which contained nineteen statute acres, at a rent of £5 13s 10d a year. After some spirited bidding the farm was sold for £250 and auctioneer's fees.

Messrs. Sheehan and Curran, auctioneers, Cahirciveen, put up for sale by public auction at the Cahirciveen court house on November 16 a farm adjacent to the town, belonging to John Mannix, J. E., and on the estate of Trinity college. After spirited bidding the farm was knocked down to Denis Sheedy, West New street, Cahirciveen, at £315 and auctioneer's fees.

Leinster.

At the Manchester Martyrs' celebration in Kilkenny on November 28, the principal address was made by Mayor John McBride, who fought for the Boers in the Boer war.

Married—November 10, at Grange-mockler church, by Rev. P. Sheehy, C. C. (cousin of the bridegroom), Jeremiah, son of the late David Slattery of Clogheen, County Tipperary, to Annie, daughter of Patrick Rowe of Windgap, County Kilkenny.

The bleach land on the Massereene estate at Colton has been divided amongst twenty-three of the villagers, each receiving from two to five-acre plots. The work of sub-division was begun on November 11 by an inspector of the estates commissioners, and has given much satisfaction amongst the laboring classes, who have been specially provided for.

In the list of prize winners at the last intermediate examinations we observe the name of Edward A. Joyce, a pupil of the Christian Brothers' schools, Thurles, who secured a prize value £2 in the modern literary course division, Junior grade. He also obtained honours in the greater number of subjects in which he was examined. Master Joyce is the son of James Joyce, master of Uringford workhouse.

Married—November 3, at St. Patrick's cathedral, Dundalk, by the Rev. Father Lyons, C. C., John, second son of the late David Evans, Coochill, to Josephine, youngest daughter of the late George Carragher, Dundalk.

Married, November 10, at the Pro-cathedral, Marlboro' street, Dublin, by the Rev. J. B. Moran, C. M. (brother of the bridegroom), assisted by the Rev. John G. O'Reilly, C. C., Pro-Cathedral, Patrick J. Moran, solicitor, 58 Rutland square, Dublin, second son of Peter Moran, J. P., Blackwater, Ratonah, County Meath, to Elizabeth (Lizzie) McCormack, 4 Great Denmark street, Dublin, youngest daughter of the late Patrick McCormack, of Ballinlea, Timahoe, Strathally.

Miss Margaret Moran, daughter of the late Dominick Moran, of Annah, Ballyhaunis, was received into the Order of the Sisters of Mercy at Swinford on Thursday, taking in religion the name Sister Jariath.

At a meeting of the Mayo agricultural committee, the Very Rev. Canon Daly, D. D., in the chair, Miss Margaret Vaughan, a native of County Limerick, but presently working in England, was appointed in the combined position of poultry and dairy instructor at a salary of £120 a year.

Thomas A. Armstrong has been appointed from traffic manager to be general manager of the Sligo, Leitrim & Northern Counties railway. Died—November 5, Hugh Bonnar, Tullaghan.—November 1, J. A. McGuire, merchant, Blacklion, November 2, Thomas Hazan, Anghall, Orange, aged eighty-two years.—November 2, Miss Annie E. Byrne, Jail street, Sligo. The Committee of the Royal Humane Society, at its meeting in London on November 13, awarded a bronze medal to Dr. Alfred Sheridan, Castlebar, for his gallantry in saving John J. O'Neill, a Dublin visitor, who sank while bathing at Rosmina, Westport, on August 24, last.

Died—November 16, W. E. Kelly, St. Helens, Westport.—Recently, James Tighe, Kilmore.—November 10, Mrs. Tynan, Leenane.

The post office department intends to supplant the present mail car service from Ballina to Belmullet by a motor service.

"Praise from Sir Richard."

The New York Freeman's Journal, when commenting last week on the growth and the church work of the mission, pays a graceful compliment to our venerable prelate. The distinguished editor, Father Lambert, writes: "The Rt. Rev. Laurence Scanlan, D. D., Bishop of Salt Lake City, Utah, who has built one of the most magnificent cathedrals in America, at Salt Lake City, is a native of County Tipperary, Ireland, where he was born a little more than 60 years ago. He was educated for the priesthood, in All Hallows' college, Dublin, and was ordained there on June 24, 1868. When Father Scanlan came into his life's work in Utah in 1872, he found a congregation which had never exceeded a dozen communicants. Today he is the bishop of a diocese. For 20 years he worked for his cause in the old Church of St. Mary, established six other parishes, procured the endowment of five charitable and educational institutions, and saw his great cathedral dedicated. His work represents the acquisition for the uses of the church in the northern valley of Utah alone of over $1,000,000.

From Arctic to Tropics in Ten Minutes

No oil heater has a higher efficiency or greater heating power than the

PERFECTION Oil Heater

(Equipped with Smokeless Device).

With it you can go from the cold of the Arctic to the warmth of the Tropics in 10 minutes.

The new

prevents smoking. There is no possible question about it. This means greater heat-power, a more rapid diffusion of heat and a sure conversion of all the heat-energy in the oil. In a cold room, light the heater and in 10 minutes you'll have a glowing heat that carries full content.

Turn the wick up as high as it will go—no smoke—no odor. In everything that appeals to the provident and the fastidious, the Perfection Oil Heater, with its new automatic smokeless device, decisively leads. Finished in Nickel or Japan in various styles.

assault upon Christian virtue, an aspersion of your honor as a servant of Christ without at once sending a letter, or, at least, a post card to the publisher, insisting that he has wronged you and humanity and God. This is a small price to pay for your indulgence in the pleasure of reading. If you will not pay it, perhaps you will later have to pay the price of losing your faith and your soul. But if you do protest, if only all the Catholics in America protested, doubtless this would purchase the redemption of our age. The press is our master, our liberator, our despot, our enjoyment, our punishment. It is very likely to prove our ruin. But through the persevering expression of righteous wrath on the part of enlightened Catholics it can become our salvation.—The Missionary.
