LOCAL NEWS.

The chimneys on Brewster's block have been repaired this week and fitted with patent cast-iron caps.

Mr. E. R. Clay continues quite seriously ill. He is considered in worse condition than when first down with the fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Wicks and child of Tarrytown, N. Y., are guests at Mr. E. E. Bond's. Mrs. Wicks is a sister of Mrs. Bond.

Miss A. F. Hammond will start in a few days on an extended trip to the West. She will be accompanied by Miss Dora Moore.

Mrs. Charles LaVake and son, who have spent the summer at Miss Callender's, returned to their home in New York city on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Neville are spending a week with friends in town. Mr. Neville is clerk of the Cumberland House, Plattsburgh, and is on his vacation.

Prof. and Mrs. Austin are soon to leave town. They will go first to Bennington, to visit friends, and thence to Winter Park, Fla., where their home is.

Prof. P. F. Burke of Cobleskill, N. Y., formerly of this town, has been appointed superintendent of the government industrial schools at Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Ellis started for Washington on Tuesday, after having spent several weeks in town. Miss Lottie, daughter of J. H. T. Langworthy, accompanied them.

Farmers complain of serious drouth. No rain of any consequence has fallen for several weeks, pastures are rapidly drying up, and, altogether, the situation is far from pleasant.

Quite extensive repairs on the college presidential house are in progress. Mr. O. A. Bicknell and his men do the work under the direction of Mr. Eldredge, treasurer of the corporation.

Butter was worth about one cent more a pound in this market on Monday than on the previous market day. Selections brought seventeen and a half cents. A large amount was brought in.

Mrs. Rufus Wainwright and daughter went, Monday, to Andover, Mass., where the latter will enter Abbott academy. Mrs. Wainwright will visit friends at Claremont, N. H., before returning home.

Mr. B. F. Churchill will return to New York on Monday next to resume his medical studies, which he will complete next March. Mrs. Churchill will remain in town and continue her present employment.

Prof. and Mrs. C. B. Wright arrived in town Tuesday evening. They spent their vacation in Ohio. Prof. Scott, who has been at his home in Watertown, Mass., through the summer, arrived Wednesday evening.

The Minneapolis (Minn.) Evening Journal of Saturday last says: "Mrs. J. Davenport, mother of E. J. Davenport, fell last night at her home on Vine st., and sustained a fracture of the left leg near the hip."

One of the blood-hounds attached to the show that appears at the town hall tonight espied a goat during the street parade at Rutland, Wednesday, and chewed it up considerably. The company paid $10 to settle.

Miss Aggie Wainwright, oldest daughter of Mr. G. S. Wainwright, goes next week to Northampton, Mass., to attend school. Miss Bessie, daughter of Cashier Pinney, will go to Sutton, P. Q., to enter the school there, in which Miss Belle Eells is also a pupil.

Intelligence has been received here of the death at West Constable, N. Y., on Monday last, of Dr. John E. Weeks. The deceased was a native of Salisbury, a graduate of the college in the class of 1853 and a brother of Rev. George A. Weeks of Paris, Ky.

Mr. Cartmell of the Green Mountain Pulp Co. sailed from New York for Liverpool the 1st inst., and will be away six or eight weeks. President Fisher of Bellows Falls is up here looking after the company's concerns in the meantime. The repairs on the upper dam have been completed.

The Young People's society of Christian Endeavor of the Congregational church will meet in the lecture-room on Sunday evening at half past six; and at the evening service of the church, after a service of song, the pastor will give a report of the fifth annual conference of these societies at Saratoga July 6 to 8.

The Boyd grave vault is a new thing in this section and one exhibited at Brewster & Co.'s attracts much attention. It is designed for use instead of the usual outside coffin, is made of boiler iron and can be sealed air and water tight. It will take the place of the marble vaults that have been constructed to a considerable extent in the cemeteries hereabouts.

Mr. Spence will speak, and the Wednesday evening meeting will be held as usual. Mr. Parsons will go to Bridport next Sunday. He is preaching there this month for Rev. Mr. Olmsted, who is away on his vacation.

The fall term of the college opened yesterday. The faculty of last year is continued with the exception of Prof. Webber. It is understood that arrangements are substantially completed for the occupancy of the chair of mental and moral science by a gentleman in every way admirably qualified for the place. Mr. Thomas E. Boyce, son of Dea. Boyce of this town, and a graduate of the college in the class of 1876 has been added to the faculty. He will teach mathematics, chiefly. Since graduation he has been engaged in teaching at the West. The freshman class numbers 22, including two ladies, Miss Lillian Gregory of Addison and Miss Harriett Bolton of Middlebury. Two more gentlemen will join the incoming class in a few days. The sophomore class loses two members, Mr. Noy going to Wesleyan university and Mr. Rich to Amherst college. Mr. Knapp has resumed his studies and joins the junior class. Two young men are expected to come from other colleges and enter the upper classes here. The college seems to have fairly entered on a new era of prosperity.

The outlook for the State Fair to be held at Howard Park next week, beginning Monday and continuing through Friday, grows continually more promising, says the Free Press. In the line of fruits and vegetables in mechanics hall, this year's display promises to exceed in variety and excellence that of any former year. The show of poultry will be a large one and cannot fail to attract general attention. The exhibit in cattle will be especially fine and a larger one than usual. The entries in all departments are much larger than for years. Everything indicates the most successful fair, ever held.

A large number of seats in the grand stand have been reserved and upholstered. The buildings have been repaired so that they were never in better condition, and the track is just as fine as ever.

THE HORSE-BREEDERS' MEETING. The second annual exhibition of the Vermont association of Road and Trotting Horse-Breeders opened at Rutland Wednesday and closes to-day. There is a very large showing of the stock. Two races were trotted Wednesday, of which these are the summaries:

BOUND UP FOR TRIAL. The autopsy in the case of Charles H. Hinckley, who died at Salisbury on Friday morning of last week from the results of wounds inflicted, as is charged, by Frank E. Morseman, during a fight between the two on the evening of Tuesday, August 31, was held at Salisbury on Friday afternoon, Drs. Sutton, Porter and Eddy of Middlebury and Dr. Martin of Salisbury being present.

The preliminary examination of Morseman took place at the town room in this village on Saturday before Justice J. E. Stapleton. State's Attorney Wilds appeared for the State and Messrs. James M. Slade and W. H. Bliss for the respondent. Morseman was held to await the action of the grand jury. Bail was fixed at $5000, which has not yet been procured, and he still remains in jail. He is likely to stay there till wanted for trial.

The material witnesses were the physicians and Messrs. John F. and Will Dyer. Dr. Porter, who was the first witness called, said he was summoned to see Hinckley on Wednesday evening and went in company with Dr. Sutton. Dr. Porter described Hinckley's condition then. At the autopsy, he said, it was found that the instrument which made the wound in the left side passed through between the sixth and seventh ribs, went through the lower part of the pleural cavity, wounding the pleura; thence through the diaphragm into the cavity of the abdomen, wounding the peritoneum and making a cut in the spleen. It appeared from Dr. Porter's testimony and also from that of Drs. Sutton and Eddy that the cut above described was the only serious wound Hinckley received. It was the opinion of all the doctors that this wound caused his death. Dr. Eddy did not see Hinckley till late Thursday night, when he was sent for, and on his arrival Hinckley was dying.

The Messrs. Dyer testified that they returned from the Dyer creamery to their home on the night of the affray; that the two men were down with Hinckley on top, and that they pulled him off; also that the two had had words the day before. Hinckley said he had been stabbed, and they took care of him. A large number of witnesses were examined by the State, but this is the gist of the story. The defense put in no testimony.

Morseman is about 40 years of age. He is not credited with being above a low average of intelligence. Hinckley, who was 32 years old, came originally from across the lake, but had worked for one or two seasons in Addison and Vergennes. His funeral took place at Salisbury on Saturday, Rev. Mr. Heath of the Methodist church officiating.

CARD OF THANKS. We wish to thank many kind friends for their exertions and helpfulness during the sickness and after the death of our mother, and also for the flowers so generously provided at the funeral.
