LOCAL NEWS.

Mr. J. A. Wright arrived home on Thursday evening last. He had been out to Colorado with a shipment of Merinos.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Smith came to town on Saturday evening, after a tour of a week and a half and extending to Washington.

Butter sold in this market, Monday, at the same prices that ruled the week before—18 to 22 cents for fair to good and 23 cents for selections.

The parlor meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held with Mrs. M. A. Monroe next Wednesday afternoon and evening; gentlemen invited to tea at six o'clock.

Mr. George Hammond went to Montpelier Wednesday morning to stay several days. C. M. Wilds, Esq., went up Monday and came back Wednesday night.

Letters addressed to Mrs. Theresa Fredette, Joseph Lepp, Mrs. Tilley Rivers, Francis St. Jock and Mrs. Alice Weber have remained at the postoffice one month uncalled-for.

Mr. Darwin Rider's mare Clara M., having finished her season's work on the track, has been brought home and is now in the stable of her owner, enjoying a well-earned rest.

The mock court which was to have been held at the college chapel last Saturday night was postponed to tomorrow evening on account of the storm that prevailed at the time set.

Deputy Sheriff Rider went up to Rippon, Monday night, and arrested Albert Bowen of that town, who is now in jail. The charge against him is adultery. The hearing will come off in a few days.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Mr. Perry R. Fletcher, formerly of Middlebury, and Miss Mabel A. daughter of B. J. Douglass, Esq., of Pittsford. It takes place at the home of the bride on the 24th inst.

The State Senate of 1882 held a reunion at Montpelier, last week Thursday evening, which was attended by both the Addison county members of that body—Col. Fletcher of Middlebury and Hon. C. W. Read of Addison.

There were recently shipped from this station to Ellsworth, Kan., 112 Merino rams which O. A. Burton of Burlington and S. G. Holyoke of St. Albans had purchased and were sending to their ranch near Ellsworth.

Rev. S. E. Calhoun of Orwell was in town the early part of the week delivering to subscribers their copies of the work he has lately published. It is entitled "Fifteen Years in the Church of Rome," and is a record of personal experience.

When people awoke on Sunday, morning they were surprised to find that six or eight inches of snow had fallen during the night. It staid till yesterday, and remnants of it are yet to be seen. A few of our citizens had their sleighs out on Monday.

Col. Thad. M. Chapman has purchased the Dea. Porter place near his residence. Mr. Porter, of whose illness in a New York hospital mention has been made, is recovering. His older daughter, Miss Cora, is with friends in Montpelier, and the younger with her aunt in Pittsford.

The pulp logs that had been lodged along the banks of the creek all summer were placed in the stream last week, and on Friday and Saturday a gang of men were employed in getting them over the falls and out of the eddy here. Almost all of them have been carried down by the late high water.

Rev. Joseph Cook has kindly offered to come to Middlebury and deliver one of his lectures, free of expense to the society, the proceeds to go toward the liquidation of the debt of the Congregational society. It is improbable that his other engagements will permit Mr. Cook to be here before Christmas.

Mr. J. L. Buttolph on Saturday bought, at the administrator's sale by auction, the farm in Shoreham belonging to the estate of the late A. B. Treadway of that town. It contains 372 acres and has upon it a house that cost, a few years ago, $7000. It is understood that Mr. Buttolph wanted it for his son J. E., and that the latter will go there to live. The price paid was $19,200 an acre.

Mr. Henry Hammond's son, John, was hitching his horse to the railing across the street from Kidder's shop, Wednesday morning, when the animal was frightened in some unaccountable way and jumped over the rail. The harness broke and the wagon did not go over. The horse ran home. The boy received a few cuts on the head, but nothing serious. One of the shafts of the wagon was broken and the harness pretty well wrecked.

Last Friday evening was the first anniversary of the organization of Camp Tracy Sons of Veterans, and was duly celebrated at their hall. There were present six members of the order from Brandon, two from Burlington and at the banquet at Colby's five members of the local Grand Army post. An elaborate feast of good things was enjoyed by about 45 persons, and speeches were heard from Col. Tracy, in whose honor the post is named, and others.

Intelligence was received here on Friday last of the death at Napa City, Cal., of Walter Goodnough, formerly Dr. Sheldon's partner. The news came in a round-about way, but was confirmed by a dispatch sent to Dr. Sheldon in answer to one from him to the family. Mr. Goodnough's health was bad for the last year or two of his stay in Middlebury. This fact led him to dispose of his interest in the business of Sheldon & Co. about a year and a half since, and in company with an older brother, Oscar, to go to California. There they bought a vineyard and were prospering finely. About six weeks ago Mr. Goodnough was attacked by fever and died from the disease on the 29th of October. He had many friends in this community who will hear of his death with deep regret.

The following legislative note of local interest appears in this week's Argus: "Governor Stewart appeared before the railroad committee last Thursday night, in regard to the highway bridge which crosses the cut through which the railroad lies in Middlebury village. The present law requires the top of bridges to be a certain height above the track, in order to avoid danger to the employees of the road, and the bridge at Middlebury, the height of which already makes a steep grade in the main street, would have to be raised about 27 inches more, causing a good deal of damage to the town and to the adjacent property-holders. Probably those two bridges at Middlebury will be excepted, as they are not properly railroad bridges, but highway bridges. An injunction was served by the town on the railroad company when they attempted to raise the bridges some time ago. The company only desires to protect itself."

The "Basket Tea" and sociable, mentioned last week, will be held at the lecture-room of the Congregational church this evening at 7:30. At 8 o'clock the celebrated "Peak Family" will be present to sing some of their famous songs. These seven sisters have been prevailed upon to give up other engagements that they may lend an additional attraction for the evening. The supper will be furnished in an unique way. Ladies will send baskets, each containing supper enough for two persons; these baskets will be sold at auction by an eminent gentleman. Each purchaser will be expected to find the lady whose basket he has procured and to eat the contents with her. Should the demand for baskets be greater than the supply, refreshments may be secured by those not provided in this way. The college quartet have kindly promised to sing during the evening. The public are cordially invited to attend. There will be a charge of 10 cents for admission.

DROWNED IN A WATER BARREL.

Mrs. John Baxter, a widow about 70 years of age, living just off Court street, was found Monday morning, head down in a water barrel, dead. She lived with the family of Michael Hogan, who is employed by Chapman & Co., and had some time since deeded the place and her other small possessions to Mr. Hogan on condition that she should be cared for so long as she lived. The cask in which she was found was set in the ground in a slanting position, about six inches of it projecting above the surface on the side where she was. It had snowed the day before and the ground was covered with ice. On either side of her, as if they had fallen from her hands when she went down, were two dishes. The theory is that she went out for water and slipped as she stooped to dip it up. She was a large, heavy woman. An inquest was held under the direction of Selectman W. W. Chapman, with Mr. Albert Chapman as justice of the peace. The evidence contained nothing to suggest that it was anything but an accident.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

At the regular monthly business meeting, Wednesday evening, 12 new members were received.

Rev. Mr. Noe addressed the meeting at the hall, last Sunday afternoon, on the topic, "The Holy Spirit."

Next Sunday afternoon Rev. C. S. Sargent, pastor of the New Haven Congregational church, will speak at the hall.

The coming week is the week of prayer for young men. It will be observed by a union meeting of the village and college associations at the hall of the former, at 7:30 on Wednesday evening.

The Y. M. C. A. has succeeded in securing the services of a young man, Mr. Arthur T. Stratton, for general secretary. The executive committee has received very strong recommendations of Mr. Stratton from various sources. He is a man of thorough education and has entered upon the Y. M. C. A. work as his life work. Having been accepted by the International committee, and until Dec. 1, when he is expected to enter upon his duties here, he is to be at the school for Christian workers in Springfield, Mass.
