When the Leaves Begin to Fall

It's pretty poor policy as will be easily seen.
When peddling your squashes to sell some that's green.

It's much better to ask a reasonable price
Then give them ripe squashes that cook mealy and nice.

But if you are not particular
And want something cheap don't you see

Just buy of the other fellow
And don't come to me.

Midd. Seconds 14, T. C. A. 13.

The first game of the Middlebury college second team schedule was played at Poultney, October 19, when Troy Conference academy was defeated by the close score of 14-13. The game was exciting throughout, both teams showing a good deal of fight. The game started with T. C. A. kicking to Midd, and by a series of line bucks and end runs carried the ball to T. C. A.'s 20 yard line, but lost it on a fumble. In the next few minutes of play T. C. A. scored a touchdown and Brown kicked the goal. Things looked bad for Midd, but before the quarter closed they scored a touchdown. MacMurtry kicked the goal. No more scoring was done till the 8th quarter. Midd. kicked to T. C. A., who brought the ball into the center of the field, but lost on downs. Robinson passed to Lamere for a good gain and MacMurtry went around right end for 20 yards and a touchdown, also kicking the goal. T. C. A. also scored a touchdown in this quarter, but failed to kick the goal. No more scoring was done. In the last quarter several points were exchanged and the game ended with the ball in the possession of the College boys on T. C. A.'s 25 yard line. Shea and MacMurtry gained the most ground for Midd, and Brown did most of the running for T. C. A.

St. Mary's Annual Fair.

The annual fair began Tuesday evening at the town hall and will continue up and including Saturday evening. The fair started out auspiciously with a minstrel overture for entertainment, which received much compliment, and it was repeated on Thursday evening of the fair. The Middlebury orchestra of five pieces appears each evening. Unfavorable weather conditions made a perceptible difference in the attendance, though all indications point to a successful fair, the proceeds of which are to lower the church debt of St. Mary's parish.

PANTON.

The ladies of the Baptist society will hold their annual chicken pie supper at the church Friday evening, to which all are cordially invited.

Miss Grace Fisher spent the week end with Mrs. Friend Adams.

Mrs. John Spaulding and daughter, Irene, are spending the week in Montpelier with Representative John Spaulding.

The Home Circle will meet with Mrs. Sam Gaines on Thursday.

Everybody invited to attend the Progressive County rally at Middlebury, Wednesday afternoon and evening, October 30.

Montreal Excursion.

The Rutland railroad will run its annual fall excursion to Montreal on Saturday, October 26th, from all stations between Rutland and Sabrevois, P. Q. inclusive, tickets to be good going on regular trains of October 26th, good returning to leave Montreal until Tuesday, October 29th, inclusive. Fare for the round trip from Burlington $2.25; Vergennes $2.50; Middlebury $2.50; Brandon $2.50; Rutland $2.50. adv.

WEST CORNWALL.

Heavy fall of rain on Wednesday.

Mrs. P. R. Bingham closes her house this week and leaves for New York, where she expects to remain most of the winter with her son, Dr. A. W. Bingham, and family.

Miss Katharine Griswold was at Clayton Jones' in Sudbury early in the week.

Mrs. F. E. Foote went to Montpelier on Monday with her husband, where she will enjoy the social life of "Ladies Week."

Miss Fannie Monroe of Tewksbury, Mass., has been a recent guest of her friend, Mrs. H. A. Moody.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Drolette attended the funeral of Mrs. Barclay Douglas at Middlebury on Monday morning.

Miss Mayzel Doolin of L. C. Drolette's store is in Weybridge this week with her parents and old friends.

Lands of apples are going past every day to be shipped to different markets.

Everybody invited to attend the Progressive County rally at Middlebury, Wednesday afternoon and evening, October 30.

CORNWALL.

A miscellaneous shower party was given Miss Arabella Foote in honor of her approaching marriage, at the home of Miss Gladys Hamblin, on Saturday afternoon, October 19.

Mrs. F. E. Foote is spending the week in Montpelier with Mr. Foote and her son, Winfield, who is a page in the House of Representatives.

The corn exhibit held in the town hall October 22 by the local Grange was a success and much credit is due the committee who had it in charge. A corn show will no doubt be an annual affair in the future. Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Cady of Middlebury, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nichols of Bridport, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Osborne of Shoreham acted as judges, the gentlemen for the corn show and the ladies in the cooking contest.

SALISBURY.

The Daughters of Ruth are to give a Halloween social October 31 at Mr. George Severy's in Leicester. A good time is anticipated.

Mr. and Mrs. Oren Nelson have returned home from a ten days' visit with his son, Allen Nelson, in Englewood, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Gideon Cloyes started for Kansas and Oklahoma for a visit.

Remember that the "Ladies" have a vacuum cleaner they will be glad to rent.

The children are to meet at the parsonage on Saturday afternoon.

Rev. Peter Heller will lead the Epworth League devotional service Sunday evening, "The Temperance Rally Day" in the League.

A heavy rain from the southeast visited the vicinity on Wednesday.

Farmers have had nice weather for apple picking and gathering in the farm produce.

HANCOCK.

Mrs. Edmund Wilson died September 30 of Bright's disease, after an illness of several months, at the age of 74. She leaves a husband, two daughters and four sons.

Azro Martin celebrated his 87th birthday last week.

John C. Wright from Cochituate, Mass., visited his aunt, Mrs. G. R. Church, several days last week. He was called home Friday by the death of his brother Herbert's wife, who has been an invalid for some time with a nervous trouble.

Agnes, wife of J. H. Church, died October 13 of Bright's disease. She had been ill over a year. The funeral was held the 16th, the Rev. George Boorn officiating. Interment was at Hancock village cemetery. She leaves a husband, one daughter, Mrs. S. E. Fessenden, and three sons, George, William and Charles.

William Church has returned to his work in Putnamville, being called here by the illness and death of his mother.

Mrs. Charles Tucker of Reading, Mass., came to attend the funeral of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Church.

SHOREHAM.

Mrs. A. G. Eggleston, who is in the Mary Fletcher hospital, remains about the same.

Mrs. E. A. Gale, who has had an attack of bronchitis, is gaining. Miss Ruth Eggleston has returned to her school.

Miss Eggleston, visited in Burlington Friday.

OBITUARY.

HIRAM N. MORSE.

Hiram Newall Morse died at his home in Leicester on October 8 in his seventy-ninth year. He was born in Leicester on July 9, 1834, the son of Isaac Morse and Polly Reynolds, his wife. Mr. Morse was twice married. On January 19, 1855, he married Harriet Newall Bryant, who passed to the higher life on October 19, 1885. On September 15, 1890, he married Lenora Spore, who was his ministering angel to the last, laboring long, arduously, and so cheerily in the many diverse ways. She survives him, also a son and daughter, Harry and Excelsior, who did all that loving children could for a parent. In the death of Mr. Morse Vermont loses one of its representative citizens and Leicester one who has contributed to the upbuilding of the town, materially, socially and otherwise. One who has stood ready to aid in every good cause and whose voice was always on the side of right and justice. Mr. Morse came to the house where he died when only two years old and had practically always made that place his home. He was a farmer and conducted his business with marked ability and won an enviable reputation for fairness and integrity in all his dealings. In politics Mr. Morse was a staunch Republican and advocated broad and liberal measures. He represented his town in the Legislature in 1906 and held all the town offices. The funeral was held from his late home on October 10 at one o'clock. The bearers were Walter Thomas, Herbert Fletcher, George C. Lennett, L. O. Hathaway, Frank C. Ayer and James Wilbur. Rev. R. H. Washburne, pastor of the Methodist church in Brandon officiated. A choir of mixed voices from the Brandon church sang:

Sleep, beloved husband, father sleep,
Take thy well-earned rest,
We love thee fondly,
But Jesus loves thee best.
