COLLEGE CONCERT.

Professor Edward Royce, head of the new department of music in connection with the college, will open the work of his department with a concert Saturday evening. The concert will be held in the new building of the department, the former church on Weybridge street, which has been fitted up for the purpose. The hour is eight o'clock, and the public as well as the students of the college are invited. There will be no admission charge.

Mr. Henry L. Mason of the Mason, Hamlin Piano company, whose instruments will be used at this concert and by the department, has said of Mr. Royce: "His playing is marked by intellectuality, rather than by emotional qualities, which is quite the reverse with many pianists, and he possesses seriousness, intensity of purpose, ambition, and adequate technique to enable him successfully to carry out his ideas as a teacher, and also honesty of interpretation in approaching his task, which is refreshing and elevating."

The program Saturday evening will be as follows:

Beethoven—Moonlight Sonata.
 Brahms—Intermezzo A Major; Intermezzo B flat Minor; Intermezzo E flat Major; Intermezzo E flat Minor; Rhapsody E flat Major.

Royce—Epilogue to a Fairy Tale.
 Rachmaninoff—Prelude C sharp Minor
 Chopin—Prelude G Major; Prelude G Minor; Waltz, C sharp Minor; Revolutionary Study, C Minor.

Agricultural Contests.

At the meeting of the agricultural committee, which consists of Willis N. Cady of Middlebury, Edward Peet of Cornwall, C. H. Willey of Bristol and L. A. Morhouse of Middlebury, it was agreed to hold the contest on October 28th and 29th. The committee were delighted to find that they had over forty useful and valuable prizes to offer and also in order that every one may know about the prizes and contest they decided to put a quarter page advertisement in the weekly papers in the county.

The contest will be for excellence in corn, potatoes and pumpkins and baking, sewing and canning open to men, women, boys and girls.

Escapes Serious Injury

Philip Calhoun, son of Allan Calhoun, while driving his father's delivering team home Thursday evening met with a narrow escape from serious injury. The shaft on one side of the shaft broke, letting the shaft drop to the ground. The horse took fright and started on a run colliding with a hydrant and throwing young Calhoun to the ground. He was considerably bruised about the body but no bones were broken. The only damage done to the wagon was the breaking of the shafts.

College Opens.

Middlebury college opened Thursday morning with an address by President John M. Thomas in the Congregational church. The freshman class is the largest in the history of the college. Several additions have been made to the faculty and a department of music has been established.

GEORGE E. SELLECK.

Old-Time Master Printer Dies in Brattleboro.

George Eaton Selleck, 79 years old, a highly esteemed citizen of Brattleboro, died at 4:30 a. m. Tuesday at his home at No. 41 High street after a brief illness. He was born in Middlebury June 24, 1834, and was the son of Myron and Sarah (Blinn) Selleck. He learned the printer's trade in this village, being connected with the Middlebury Register.

He went to Brattleboro in 1855 and established a job printing office in 1857 which he conducted until 1881 when E. L. Davis became associated with him. He sold this to his partner in 1898 and retired from active business.

He married, September 3, 1857, Miss Elizabeth H. Hadley of Brattleboro, who, with one daughter, Miss Kate Selleck of Brattleboro, survive him. He also leaves nieces and nephews in this village.

He enlisted in the 8th Vermont regiment in October, 1861, and continued in service until February, 1865, when he was honorably discharged with rank of first lieutenant, having been promoted three times. He was in command of company I of his regiment in the Shenandoah Valley under Sheridan, was present at the capture of Port Huron and saw hard service in the Red River Valley. He was a member of Sedgwick post, G. A. R., and the Center Congregational church. The funeral was held Thursday afternoon in the Congregational chapel in Brattleboro.

Camp Fire Girls Enjoy Ride.

The Middlebury Camp Fire Girls, sixteen in number, enjoyed a ride to Lake Dunmore last Saturday. A council fire and ceremonial meeting were held and two new members were received into the Camp Fire. The party was taken out and back in a rig specially fitted up by Mr. Billings who contributed his services. The next meeting will be held Saturday, 3 p. m., at the Congregational parsonage.

Roche, Mrs. Anna Spaulding, Miss Mary Sceney, Miss Jennie Wood, Miss Lillian Yount, J. I. Baker, Abraham Bell, Rufus Nartill, Robert C. Hart, Silas Moore, Chas. Morgan (2), Master J. C. Pearson, Reuben Taylor.

WEYBRIDGE.

A reception was tendered the Rev. and Mrs. Hagadorn at the parsonage last Friday evening. Over a hundred people from this and surrounding towns were present. An orchestra consisting of Miss Emma S. Baker pianist, J. T. Greene flute, C. M. Baker violin and C. W. Shaw cornet, played several selections in an excellent manner, which were highly appreciated by all present. C. M. Baker sang a solo in his usual faultless way, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Emma, after which several gathered around the piano and sang many old familiar songs. A sum of money was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Hagadorn in a novel manner, being entirely concealed in a piece of cake, the money not being discovered until Mr. Hagadorn attempted to cut the cake. Rev. Mr. Cornell of Monkton made the presentation in a felicitous and taking manner. Ice cream and cake were served in generous measure to all present.

G. H. Sturtevant returned Saturday night from a business trip and will remain at home for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. G. Downing of Burlington came here in their automobile last week Wednesday and took Mrs. Abbie Farr and Mrs. Martha Parkill home with them for a few days' visit.

At the M. E. church, F. M. Hagadorn, pastor, the theme for the discourse Sunday morning, September 21st, will be "The Scarlet Thread." For evening service "Where is Heaven."

Miss Mina R. Sampson is quite ill with a severe attack of the grip. Dr. M. H. Eddy is attending her.

Mrs. Martha Parkill and Mrs. Abbie Farr returned home last Sunday from a few days' visit in Burlington.

Rev. and Mrs. G. C. Cornell of Monkton were guests of Rev. and Mrs. Hagadorn Friday and Saturday, coming here to attend the reception given Mr. and Mrs. Hagadorn.

Mrs. T. F. Dewey and Marion were in Burlington a few days the first of the week.

Rev. and Mrs. Parker of North Ferrisburg were callers at the M. E. parsonage Friday.

S. P. Hoyt and Mrs. Mott of Cornwall were in town Sunday to attend church.

Mrs. Julia Clay, a former resident of Middlebury is visiting her niece, Mrs. Nellie Moody.

There is a real epidemic of colds in town. The families of H. A. Clark, J. S. Shaw, C. M. Baker, Mrs. A. Hamilton and C. R. Britton are nearly all sick.

James Green's father is visiting him.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Thompson and Miss Lydia Hanks are visiting at B. M. Hayward's in Montpelier.

G. E. Child is painting his house.

Mrs. Willard and daughter, Helen, of Westley, R. I., are guests of Mrs. Mary Smith. Mrs. Willard is a sister of the late Carlton Smith.
