The perfectly proportioned fire-box of your bright new Stewart, with its strong but well-controlled draft and the famous oven heated on every side, will do more than save its cost. Its well-cooked food will also improve the health of your family.

The Stewart's glass oven-door, permanently polished top and dust-proof ash-chute to the basement are some of the Stewart "cooking-made-easy" specialties that you really must see.

Ask Any Sickie Smoker Why

he sticks to Sickie plug and slices off each pipeful as he needs it, when he could get tobacco already cut up, in packages. He'll tell you, "because the Sickie way is the only way to get fresh tobacco, that smokes cool and sweet, and doesn't bite the tongue." He knows.

Tobacco that is cut up at the factory gets dried up on its way to you. Result—it burns fast and hot, and "bites." When you cut your own tobacco off the Sickie plug, you are well repaid for a minute's work by fresh tobacco—because all the flavor and moisture are pressed into the plug and held in by the natural leaf wrapper.

Get a plug of Sickie at your dealer's today. Notice how much more tobacco you get, when you don't have to pay for a package.

Counterfeit half dollars have made their appearance in Barre and the hasty spender, who carelessly pockets his change without exercising the recurrent privilege is very likely to get a feather-weight coin unless he redoubles his vigilance. MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nichols were Slain by Erving Wrisley Their Farm Hand.

Brattleboro, Oct. 13.—The West Guilford tragedy which came to notice last Friday with the discovery of the body of Walter Nichols with crushed in skull has developed into a double murder and suicide. Saturday the body of Mrs. Nichols was discovered with part of the head shot off, and not far away was the corpse of Erving Wrisley dead by his own hand. The solution of the mystery is that Wrisley was insanely infatuated with Mrs. Nichols, who rejected his advances, and Wrisley, being of the cold blooded unimaginative temperament, killed the husband, then the wife and finally himself. Just what happened previous to the tragedy will never be known. It is pretty well established that Nichols and Wrisley had a quarrel just before the former's skull was crushed in. Mr. and Mrs. Willard Fisher, neighbors, saw one man chasing another Thursday afternoon on the Nichols farm and saw the pursuer knock the pursued down. Later they saw a man go into the house and then go back into the woods. Two shots were heard followed by a third.

Nichols' body was discovered Friday afternoon, his skull crushed in with a hammer. The location was about 100 rods from the house. Investigation proved that nothing whatsoever in the house had been disturbed. It led to the discovery also, that Nichols's young wife and Erving Wrisley, the hired man, had disappeared.

Early Saturday morning a party of neighbors accompanied Deputy George P. Miller in a search, for the sentiment seemed to be that Mrs. Nichols had been foully dealt with. The sentiment proved to be a correct theory. In a small orchard not 300 rods from the house, the unfortunate young woman was found with one side of her head blown off by a charge from a shotgun. The body had evidently been dragged about seven rods from the spot where she was shot where there was a large amount of blood and parts of her skull. Three side combs were found near the spot where the blood was discovered.

The party then started a search in the adjoining pasture for Wrisley. They had not gone more than 75 rods from the orchard, where Mrs. Nichols' body lay when S. J. Merrifield of Guilford discovered a double barrel shotgun tied to a small maple tree standing near a large rock. Then Wrisley's body was found lying in a hollow near the tree with indications that he had tied the trigger of the gun to the tree and then pulled the barrel of the gun toward him, so as to discharge it. The charge entered near the heart and came out through his back.

Wrisley, the author of the triple killing, was nearly 30 years of age. Nichols was 27 and his wife 20. The Nichols couple were highly respected in the community. They were members of the Baptist church, and Nichols was sexton. They had been married two years, the wife having been a Virginia woman. Wrisley has been known as a farm hand in the vicinity for more than ten years. He had been divorced from his wife for some time. Wrisley has been with the Nichols family since sugaring time.

$1,000 NET PER ACRE.

A Missouri farmer, a member of the Ozark Fruit Growers' association, last year set out to see how large a crop of strawberries he could grow on one acre. This was put in the best of 11th and given a generous application of bonemeal and well rotted manure. He set the most vigorous plants he could get and gave thorough cultivation as well as spraying for fungous and insect pests. When he checked up on this acre he found he had picked 800 crates, which brought him an average of $1.75 per crate. This gave a gross return of $1,400 per acre. Deducting expenses of $400 leaves $1,000 net as his return from this one acre.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.
