

30 Years and Never a Skip The ... FAIR HAVEN FAIR

Aug. 25, 26, 27 and 28, '14 Free Special Attractions

Webber Family, Society Acrobats, Six People The best finished, fastest working, most beautiful troupe in America.

King Kelly--Aeronaut In Daily Balloon Ascensions with Triple Parachute drops.

FUN ON THE MIDWAY!!

The Races--$3100.00 In Purses

Table with race details: Class 1-2:25 Pace (closed), Purse $400, Class 2-2:30 Pace, Purse 300, Class 3-2:17 Pace (closed), Purse 300, Class 4-2:14 Pace (closed), Purse 300.

Grand Grange Field Day and Basket Picnic

Watch For The Wednesday, August 26 Sporting Events

SEE THE BIG EXHIBIT BY THE CANADIAN GOVERNMENT IN FLORAL HALL

Admission to All Only 35c. Write for Premium List.

I. A. WOOD, President. DR. JOHN F. WILSON, Sec'y.

Alfred D. Barter, Glasses Properly Fitted. Eleven Years in Middlebury, Vermont.

Walter Calhoun & Co ELECTRICAL CONTRACTORS MIDDLEBURY, VERMONT. Estimates Furnished on Wiring, Fixtures and Electrical Work of Any Description.

FOR SALE

On account of ill health, I will sell my farm, one of the best in town of 40 acres. A beautiful orchard, nearly every tree loaded.

Hartwell Danyeau, Middlebury, Vermont.

NEW CIRCULAR

announcing the opening of our thirty-seventh year, is ready for distribution. Send for copies for yourself and friends.

NOTICE!

Having purchased the stock and fixtures of the Fay C. Warren electrical store, I am prepared to do all kinds of electrical work.

W. C. DUNCAN Main Street MIDDLEBURY, VERMONT

Advertisement for Bifocal Lenses, Old Style, Gilbert Rist Optical Co, 53 Church St., Burlington, Vt.

AUCTION

I will sell at public auction at 8 South Street on Monday, Aug. 17 at 10 o'clock a. m.

The following property: Household Goods, Carpenter Tools, Garden Tools and many other articles too numerous to mention here.

Mrs. M. S. GOODING M. K. Moore, Auctioneer

PREMIUM HOSIERY

For the whole family, Premium coupons given with every sale. 10 Main Street Up Stairs.

WEBSTER BARTER

WEST CORNWALL.

Some rain came early in the week which was very welcome. We had hoped for more.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Guley of Middlebury were guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Drolette early in the week.

Miss Minnie Williams came from Canada for a visit with Mrs. Etta Hurd at L. C. Drolette's last week going from there to Rutland on Monday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bean of Leominster, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bean of Northfield visited their cousins, Anna and Katherine Young, at F. S. Haskell's recently.

Mrs. Nelson Mayhew has recently visited her parents in Middlebury.

Lizzie Moran and Arthur Mayhew are with friends in Middlebury.

Carroll S. and Proctor Page of Hyde Park and Miss Frances Hamilton are guests of Miss Norma Maynard this week.

Stanley Drolette took Dr. A. W. Bingham and family to Lake Lunmore last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Townner of Bridport and Mr. and Mrs. John DeWitt and son of Shoreham were recent visitors at L. DeWitt's.

M. O. Field has returned from a trip to Boston, Mass., and vicinity.

Lucius J. White of South Burlington recently visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. White.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Kendall of Shoreham were at M. C. Field's on Sunday last.

Mrs. Gustavus Baldwin and daughter, Elsie, who spent several days with her sister, Mrs. Field, have returned to Shoreham.

Rev. E. L. Sunderland of Cleveland, Ohio, and brother, Edwin, of New York City, are enjoying their vacation together at W. H. Bingham's.

Mr. and Mrs. L. DeWitt visited relatives in Bridport early in the week.

GRANVILLE.

Mrs. D. N. Rice received the sad news of her brother's death, Martin E. Briggs, last week Tuesday at Pasadena, Cal. He was a native of this town, a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Briggs, former residents, but now of Randolph. He was 29 years old this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burke visited their uncles, Charles and Glenn Wilson, in Rochester Sunday, returning home Monday.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jennett last week.

A. B. Brown is in Randolph.

Mrs. H. P. Stoddard of Waitsfield and Mrs. Ella Hamblin of Warren were at Mrs. A. C. Lamb's last Saturday.

Mrs. Frank Wilber and son were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thad Matham over Sunday.

A. A. Briggs has been having a severe attack of appendicitis, but is better at this writing.

Mrs. Oscar Parker is more comfortable.

Zion Copeland of West Hartford visited Mrs. A. C. Lamb and family from Thursday till Sunday.

An extreme hot wave in this section the past few days, no showers near here, but all around.

Shoreham Improvement Society.

Under the auspices of the Shoreham Improvement society, a Festival day was held in Shoreham on Wednesday, August 5th.

At 10.30 a. m. the village wore a holiday appearance with flags flying and an expectant crowd waiting along the main street. The first attraction was a splendid procession, made up of elaborately trimmed automobiles, floats and bicycles, of mules, ponies and other interesting and amusing features.

Great interest in the Shoreham Improvement society was shown during the day by the large number of people present and many names were added to the list of members.

MARY M. PLATT, Secretary.

"The Little Gray Lady."

Miss Jane Gray, the summer Broadway star, will be seen at the opera house in this village Thursday, August 20, in the famous Players film production, "The Little Gray Lady."

NEW HAVEN.

Dr. Frank Sanborn, who was sometime in New York city for rest and treatment, has returned to Middlebury and resumed practice.

The Ladies' union met at their parlors last Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Ardelle Jacobs is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. S. E. Langdon.

Mrs. Annie Brown Swan of Providence, R. I., was a recent visitor in the family of S. D. Doud.

The well drillers boring for water on the E. A. Doud place were unsuccessful in their first attempt, going down 120 feet, and have been obliged to make another opening. They have been working six weeks.

The Young People's assembly gathered on the Camp ground received quite a wetting down from the heavy shower last Tuesday. Next Sunday afternoon Dr. Benton, president of the University of Vermont, will give an address.

In the evening Dr. Coleman, district superintendent of the Burlington district of Troy, N. Y., will speak.

Misses Addie Wright and Marion Jackson of Burlington are guests this week at A. G. Wright's.

The Register mentions was made of the sixtieth anniversary of the marriage of Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Hallbert, on August 28, next. Dr. Hallbert was a former president of Middlebury College.

We noticed in the late issue of the Register mention was made of the sixtieth anniversary of the marriage of Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Hallbert, on August 28, next. Dr. Hallbert was a former president of Middlebury College.

He was pastor for many years of the Congregational church in this town, very much beloved by his people, many of whom remembered him on their golden anniversary. They now reside at Bowling Green, Ohio, both octogenarians, and seemingly passing a happy old age. We extend congratulations.

LEICESTER.

Harry Morse is visiting in Burlington this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Farnk Ayre have for their guests for ten days the Rev. and Mrs. M. Raymond Plumb of Windham, Conn.

Only a few days until school opens—September 8. Boys and girls make the best of your vacation and be ready to enter upon the work with a spirit of determination to accomplish the best results possible.

Mrs. Jurlson Stephens and Mrs. Frank Parker, who have been visiting their aunt, Miss Louise Hall, for several days, returned to their homes in Cornwall last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Noble H. H. Jennings and Masters Hugh and George W. returned to their home Tuesday, after an absence of two weeks.

Mrs. Emma Cooley of Bristol is spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Johnson, and her sister, Mrs. Frank Gambell.

Mrs. Lovina Barber, who has been here for several weeks visiting relatives and friends, has returned to her home in Eau Claire, Wis.

Don't suffer longer with RHEUMATISM

No matter how chronic or how helpless you think your case may be, you can get quick and permanent relief by taking nature's remedy, "SEVEN BARKS."

Get at the root of the disease, and drive the uric acid and all other poisons out of your system for good. "SEVEN BARKS" has been doing this successfully for the past 43 years. Price 50 cents per bottle at all druggists or from the proprietor, LYMAN BROWN, 68 Murray St., New York, N. Y.

We Do All Kinds of JOB PRINTING

MIDDLEBURY LOCALS.

The Middlebury public library will be closed Monday, August 17.

William W. Turner has returned from Lake Champlain.

Col. James M. Tracy of the Benedict store has returned from Boston, Mass.

S. E. Crossman has gone to Cuttingville.

G. C. Bowman has returned from Westport, Conn.

Miss Arden, who has been here in the interests of the New York Tribune fresh air children, has completed her duties.

L. W. Newell, who has been in town for the past two months, has returned to Tarrytown, N. Y.

Mrs. George Darrow has returned from Chester.

Mrs. J. E. Allen, who spent the past week with friends in town, has returned to Westford.

Mrs. Fred McIntire returned Saturday after a few days' visit in Burlington.

Mrs. Sarah J. McIntire, who has spent the past month here, has returned to Rochester.

William Ray has gone to Castleton.

Arthur Lamb of the Henry Joy store left Monday for ten days' vacation.

Warden Wells has returned from Lake Placid, N. Y.

Page Potter, jr., who has been here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Potter, has returned to his home in Hartford, Conn.

Dr. and Mrs. Howard Morgan, son, Howard, and daughter, Lucile, of New Haven, Conn., are visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Lawrence of Rutland, who have been visiting friends here, have returned.

Dr. and Mrs. M. H. Eddy have returned from Londonderry where they participated in the celebration of old home week.

Miss Ina Shorkey of New York city, a former resident of Middlebury, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Cyril Brunelle in Rutland.

Miss Anna Hayes, who has been visiting relatives in town and Starksboro, has returned to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Provost of West Rutland, who have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Charles R. Cheney, for several weeks, have returned. They were accompanied by Mrs. Cheney and her young daughter, who will make a brief visit.

Miss Alice Casey of Bristol, graduate of Middlebury in the class of 1911, who has been visiting friends here, has returned to her home.

Carl A. Mead of New York city is the guest of Mrs. C. N. Mead, who is staying at the Addison for the summer.

Miss Caroline Beach of Vergennes is the guest of friends in this village.

The Battell Hose company will hold its annual dance in the town hall on September 2.

Mrs. Samuel Brown of Collinsville, Ct., who has been visiting friends here, left on Sunday night for Montreal.

C. H. Wells and family of Lowell, Mass., are visiting friends in this village for a few days.

R. E. Watson and daughter of Burlington, who have been guests of friends here, have returned to their home.

E. S. Bendell of Albany, N. Y., who has been visiting in town, has returned.

Judge Zed S. Stanton of Roxbury, presiding judge of the Addison County court, has called a special session for August 19.

Owing to a change made by the last legislature there is some misunderstanding among local fishermen, who are not entirely familiar with the statutes, as to when the trout season ends in Vermont, it being the opinion of many that it is legal to take trout until August 15 only. The fish and game laws provide that the fish may be caught in both streams and ponds until September 1.

Middlebury was overcast with smoke Saturday afternoon and evening. Returning tourists also report that the smoke clouded the sun in New Hampshire. The smoke is believed to be due to heavy forest fires in northern New York and Canada. It almost obscured the sun in places.

Postmaster Allan T. Calhoun has recently received notice from the post-office department at Washington, D. C., relative to the acceptance of perishable parcel post matter. The notice states that all parcels containing perishable matter should contain special delivery stamps to insure the delivery of such matter expeditiously.

District Deputy D. Lewis Selleck of the encampment branch of the I. O. O. F. is making arrangements to hold the meeting of district No. 3 with Addison encampment, No. 27, of this village in October.

J. Wolcott Stewart, who has been visiting his grandfather, ex-Gov. John W. Stewart, for the past few weeks, has returned to his home in Colorado Springs, Colo.

Dr. J. M. Solomon, cancer and tumor specialist, will visit Middlebury on Monday, August 24. See next issue of Register for full particulars.—adv.

Advertisement for George A. Hall, Chamber Suits, 212-214 College Street, Burlington, Vt.

Advertisement for "Ready Jell," The new desert. Dainty, delicious, ever ready "Ready Jell" quickly and easily prepared, just the best kind of dessert this hot season of the year.

Advertisement for August Clearance Sale, R. S. Benedict Groceries Exclusively, Women's Suits and Coats, Waist Prices Cut, Outing Shirts at Half Price, One Lot of Waists, Children's Dresses, White Lawn Dresses, Ladies' Wash Dresses, One Piece White Voile Dresses, Parasols.