Senator Carroll S. Page of Hyde park is at home from Washington for the present, called by the illness of his son, R. S. Page, who is still confined to the house by a mild attack of fever.

Edward J. Hall of Bennington and Clarence Daley of Schenectady, N. Y., were convicted in municipal court Saturday of having short trout in their possession and were fined with costs $15.14 each.

Warm maple syrup, served upon real snow Tuesday afternoon in the Akeley Memorial building by the Old Home Week association, was a unique feature of Old Home week. Fully 100 persons enjoyed the delicacy. The snow was furnished by H. E. Jenney and was obtained in the cave on Mount Mansfield.

Kendall Benson, the 14-year-old son of Earl Benson of Manchester, who was visiting an uncle in Bondville, was drowned Saturday afternoon in the Livermore mill pond. Younger boys, who were with him, summoned help and the body was recovered. Dr. A. W. Thomas of Jamaica was soon on the scene but his efforts to restore life were unavailing. The victim leaves his parents, two sisters and one brother.

Frederick Nason of St. Albans, fireman on the night switching locomotive in the freight yard at New London, Conn., was decapitated and his body horribly mutilated about 8 o'clock Saturday evening when he was caught in a sideswipe collision just north of Union passenger station. Nason evidently intended to jump, but he was literally jammed to death as he fell between a locomotive and car and his body crushed and scalded. Mr. Nason leaves a wife in New London.

Adelbert Chayer committed suicide by taking carbolic acid Saturday night in a field in Waterbury where a merry-go-round was playing, because, it is said, his sweetheart with whom he had quarreled refused to accept tickets to ride on carousel. He lived only 10 minutes after being found. He was 21 years old and was a cook for a Central Vermont railroad construction crew. His home is in White River Junction, where the body was taken by his parents.

The Central block on the north side of the business square in Northfield was visited by fire Saturday morning and a loss of $10,000 was sustained. The principal store losses were by C. S. Richmond and F. S. Dyke, and the chief damage to the building was in the basement and first floor of the Old Fellows' hall of the block. The cause of the fire is a mystery. The flames probably originated near the basement partition separating the Richmond and Dyke stores.

There was another cave-in Saturday at the Mullin quarry in West Rutland, belonging to the Vermont Marble company, where several weeks ago thousands of tons of rock slid into the pit, causing considerable damage but no loss of life. In Saturday's slide one large scale tumbled to the bottom of the quarry, smashing the trestle of the incline railroad which was in course of repairs. It did no other damage.

Leroy Duell, 27 years old, was the victim of a serious accident recently at the plant of the Rutland Fire Clay company, in Rutland, when his right leg and the index finger on his right hand were seriously bruised by the wheels of a car loaded with about 1000 pounds of clay, which passed over him. Mr. Duell started to run around the load of clay and slipped, falling in front of the moving car. The front wheel rolled over him, the car being stopped as the rear wheel reached his body. He was taken to his home and Dr. F. H. Gebhardt was called and dressed his wound.

The old Italian marble quarry situated on the Mott D. Warner farm north of Brandon will be opened immediately. The property which is owned by the Shuttleworth corporation of New York city, has been idle for some years. About 25 hands will be employed. The reason for opening the abandoned quarry is said to be the shortage of the corporation receipts from Italy due to the war in Europe and danger of transportation.

During an electrical storm which occurred in the vicinity of Burlington about 7:30 o'clock Saturday evening a high northwest wind lashed the lake into what is thought to have been the roughest weather this season. The storm, as is often the case on the lake, came with almost no warning and the high rollers were very "choppy," making the worst kind of weather for small craft, which scurried to the shore from all directions. One row boat was smashed to kindling at Red Rocks. It is thought to have been a tender from some power boat.

The Rev. Charles Elmer Beas, A. M., B. D., pastor of the Brandon Congregational church, has tendered his resignation as pastor to take effect October 1. He has been pastor of the church two years, succeeding the Rev. William V. Berg, now of Philadelphia. Mr. Beas is a graduate at Dartmouth college and Bangor Theological seminary and has served churches at Randolph, Northport, Me., and Brandon. He formerly taught in Bangor Theological seminary, and will probably again enter the educational field. His pastorate in Brandon has been most prosperous and his departure will be regretted.

The Grange Tuesday evening was "Children's Night," and a large number were present, notwithstanding the storm. Much credit is due the committee who had the matter in charge, and the children gave a very fine entertainment, consisting of piano and vocal solos, duets, recitations, a pantomime, station scenes and a farce. Ice cream and cake were served.

The terrific thunder shower Monday afternoon killed a cow belonging to Melzar Walker, struck a barn of R. N. Wooster, but did not burn. The station agent, H. W. Denton, was badly shocked but has now recovered from it.

IF WOMEN ONLY KNEW

What a Heap of Happiness it Would Bring to Middlebury Homes.

Hard to do housework with an aching back. Brings you hours of misery at leisure or at work.

If women only knew the cause—that Backache pains often comes from weak kidneys.

"Would save much needless woe. Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys.

Read what a Middlebury citizen says: Mrs. John Signor, Seymour St., Middlebury, says: "I suffered intensely from kidney complaint and at that time I got splendid relief from Doan's Kidney Pills, in fact, they rid me of the attack. A short time ago I again had symptoms of kidney trouble and getting a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills at Sheldon's Drug Store, I used them. They quickly brought relief from the pains in my back and strengthened my kidneys."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Signor had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props. Buffalo, N. Y.
