

FARMS

We have about 75 choice farm bargains to offer and now is the time for you to pick yours out when you can see the land and crops.

HOUSES

We have a number of good trades in houses in Middlebury Village. Call at our office and we will show them to you.

N. S. FOOTE CO.

Real Estate. Phone 30-2. Battell Block, Middlebury, Vt

MORGAN HORSES FOR SALE

Any kind you need from a fancy driver and fast one to the general purpose horse. Have two teams, one just right for farm work. Come in and see them. These Horses are all of fine breeding and have been taken in exchange where automobiles have been sold, and are for sale by the agent.

N. A. JOHNS

At Fair Ground Barns Middlebury, Vermont

FRANK BENTLEY In Charge.

COUNTY NEWS

ADDISON.

Catherine Carr, 13-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Carr, died Friday of cholera infantum. Phoebe Graham underwent a successful operation at the Mary Fletcher hospital in Burlington Saturday for a tumor. A. P. Neadra is erecting a silo on the Gregory place. John Dana is building a silo. L. P. Tracy & Bros. have their tractor ploughs at work on their creek lot.

RIPTON.

J. E. Hodges and Col. J. S. Chandler were in Leicester on the 8th, enjoying the scenery about beautiful Fern Lake and caught a few fish. W. C. Kirby has an apple tree that is carrying ripe apples and blossoms. Ninety degrees of heat at three o'clock on the afternoons of the 9th and 14th in shade, and 104 where the sun shone on the instrument. J. E. Hodges and wife have gone to Leicester on a visiting trip of a few days' duration. C. H. Beane of Decatur, Ill., is here stopping with relatives. When at home he has the position of secretary and treasurer of the combination Fountain Co. He is a graduate of Middlebury college. Mrs. Rogers and small boy of Lowell, Mass., are the guests of her sister, Miss Hazel Dairymple.

WATER TAX

October 1 to 15, 1915

The following resolution is the vote of the village of Middlebury:

During the months of March and September the collector shall publish in the Middlebury Register and post in the postoffice a notice stating when and where he will receive the water tax. Fifteen days shall be allowed for the payment of said tax; at the expiration of that time the commissioners shall shut off the water from the premises of all persons whose tax is unpaid.

All such taxes that are not paid when time limit expires the above resolution will be enforced.

In compliance with the above vote I will be at the store of Taber & Duncan every week day from October 1 to 15 to receive said taxes. Office hours 9 a. m. to 12 and 2 to 6 p. m.

J. D. WOODS,

Collector for Water Commissioners. 3843 Middlebury, Vt., Sept. 14, 1915.

STARKSBORO.

Arthur Stokes has taken possession of a part of Mrs. Swift's house. Leslie Hill, who has been sick for a long time, is now well. David Bostwick is in very poor health. Leslie Hill received a shower of post cards on his 58th birthday. Mrs. Swift is improving the interior of her house by repapering and repainting. Arthur Stokes is helping Jesse Carpenter in his farm work. Mrs. Elsie Hurlbert has gone to the Mary Fletcher hospital for treatment. Miss Mae Hallock is attending High school at Bristol. Ovet Hallock is visiting his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Cora Hullock, and family. A special town meeting has been called to be held the 18th, to see if the town will vote to build a school house in place of the one which burned at Little Boston.

BRANDON.

Mrs. Emogene Buck of Randolph, vice-president of State Rebekah society, made Unity Rebekah lodge an official visit Monday evening. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served. Mrs. Buck was the guest of Mrs. C. A. June of Grove street during her stay in town. Mrs. Cora F. Preston, who has been visiting at the home of George H. Young, returned Wednesday to her home in Syracuse, N. Y. H. M. McFarland of Hyde Park spent Sunday in town with his daughter, Mrs. Bennett C. Douglass. Miss Mae Germond, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Smith Germond, for two weeks, has returned to Worcester, Mass. Margaret Burns, 12-year-old daughter of Eugene Burns, fell Sunday and broke her left arm between the wrist and elbow.

Eugene Ellis, who has spent the past year in the West, has returned home. Neshobe Grange, No. 340, observed Sunday as the Memorial day of the order, and attended the Baptist church in the evening when the pastor, Rev. A. H. Mills, preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion. John Landon of Pittsford was in police court last Saturday for breaking the automobile speed law. Justice M. L. Gibbs fined him $5 and costs, which he paid. Grand Juror W. A. Atwell prosecuted.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerry W. Scott of Pearl street left Tuesday on a three weeks' western trip. They will visit relatives in Chicago and in Peterson, Ia. Miss Maude Mencham, who has been spending a vacation here and in Orwell, has returned to Springfield, Mass. Malcom Grimes of Ticonderoga, N. Y., visited friends here Tuesday. E. H. Button has returned from a business trip to Boston. Mrs. Marion Vail, who has been spending a few days here with Mrs. C. H. Ross of Park street, has returned to her home in Orwell. Horatio Baker is visiting at the home of his father, Dr. O. C. Baker. State Treasurer Walter F. Scott is in Montpelier this week. A petition is being circulated asking that the Western Union telegraph office be moved up town from the railroad station.

Many Complaints Heard

This summer seems to have produced an unusual amount of sickness. Many complaints of headaches, lame backs, rheumatism, biliousness and of being "always tired." Aches, pains and ills caused by the kidneys failing to do their work and throw the poisonous waste from the system yield quickly to Foley Kidney Pills. They help elimination, give sound sleep and make you feel well and strong. They are tonic in action. Frost's Pharmacy.—adv.

WEST CORNWALL.

Very warm and dry at this writing and rain is much needed. Henry Thomas is at home again from an extended visit at his old home in Pennsylvania. He is at Summers Spaulding's for the present. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wagerman returned on Wednesday to New York after visiting at L. C. Drolette's and other friends. Mrs. Joseph Drolette, Mr. and Mrs. F. Wagerman and L. C. Drolette were guests on Monday of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Watt in Orwell. Schools are all in session. Maurice Bingham has gone to Cleveland, O., where he will attend school. He will be with his brother, Rev. L. E. Sunderland, and family. Arthur W. Bingham, jr., went to New York on Tuesday. Mrs. Joseph White is visiting relatives in the east part of the town. Mrs. H. E. Taylor is again at her home after a six weeks' stay with her sister, Mrs. E. F. Gulley of St. Albans. Miss Annis Young has gone to Charlotte for an indefinite stay. Potatoes are decaying badly in many fields. Fred Doner and family are moving to W. H. Bingham's tenant house. Hazel Otis is attending school in Middlebury. E. Ladd Miner of Bridport was in town on Sunday. Mrs. M. A. Hamilton and daughter, Mrs. R. B. Huntley of Orwell were guests of Mrs. P. R. Bingham on Monday. Miss Eva Hawley of Floral Park, N. Y., has been visiting her friend, Mrs. Anna J. Wooster. Miss Eliza White is staying at Joseph Curriers.

ORWELL.

The warm weather of the past week has done great good to the corn crop. Silos are being filled this week. Leon Cilly went last week to Mount Hermon, Mass., to attend Moody school for boys. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Charlton have returned from their wedding trip and are at the Charlton farm. Mason Warren has returned to school at Brandon. J. D. Corbury and family have returned to New York city after spending some weeks at their summer home here. County Agent J. E. Carrigan was in town Tuesday and made arrangements with D. J. Leonard to prepare a piece of land to demonstrate the value of lime on the soil. Miss Verna Hall of East Corinth is attending school here and living with her uncle, H. A. Prescott. Gen. Rodney Smith and family have been at Eagle Inn for a few days. Hands Cove Chapter, D. A. R., will hold a gentlemen's night with Mrs. Charles Cunningham of Larrabee's Point as hostess, Friday, September 24. Miss Florence Johnson of Mechanicsville, N. Y., who has been a guest of Miss Jennie Ray, left for her home Tuesday. Mrs. Leah Desjard of Orwell and Alexander Walsh of East Hubbardton were married September 9, in St. Paul's church in Orwell. The bride wore a traveling suit of blue and a picture hat of white satin. The bridesmaid, Miss Emma Desjard, a sister of the bride, wore a suit of blue and black velvet hat. Albert Walsh, a brother of the bridegroom, was best man. A wedding breakfast was served to the bridal party and near relatives at the home of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Walsh have gone on a wedding trip in New York state.

EAST MIDDLEBURY.

Mr. and Mrs. Adin Bryant and daughter, Elizabeth, of Montreal and Mr. Blandine of Keene, N. H., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bryant on Sunday. The ladies of St. Barnabas' Guild will hold their next meeting with Mrs. F. J. Sumner on Thursday afternoon, September 23. A cordial invitation is extended to all. Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Kendrick of Rutland were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Ross on Sunday. Mrs. H. W. Dewey was reminded on Tuesday that she is still having birthdays. It was a genuine surprise. The friends who gathered enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon. Refreshments were served. The tokens which she received will be cherished by Mrs. Dewey as well as the sincere expressions for many happy returns of the day. The wedding that was reported to have taken place on Monday, did not materialize. Kent Kirby, his team and mowing machine were mixed up in quite an exciting event on Monday. The team, being alone for a few moments, decided that they would go to the barn. On their way up they became mixed up with a barbed wire fence. One of the horses managed to free itself from the machine and fence and proceeded to the barn, where it was secured by Mrs. Kirby. It required the assistance of several neighbors to extricate the other animal. The horses were cut up quite severely. George Hodges' horticultural display at the Rutland fair netted him $40.00. Harry Ross of New Haven, Conn., is visiting his people here. The selectmen have a gang of men putting in guard rails on the Mountain road, a much needed improvement. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan Newton is again quarantined for diphtheria, the young son, Robert, now being afflicted. George Sheldon holds the record for picking blueberries, it being nothing unusual for him to pick a bushel during the forenoon on Ludington hill. We have seen various articles in regard to the large oat yields per acre. We think that East Middlebury holds the record thus far, Charles Maranville having raised 85 bushels from a single acre. Mr. and Mrs. John Curran visited friends here during the week. Levi Leno has discontinued his jitney route to Middlebury, but will continue in the automobile livery as before. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Russell of Rutland visited his mother in this village on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Ross and family were with friends at Rutland during the past week. Robert Hunt has closed his barber shop which has operated at the Jerry Brassaw place for some time.

GRANVILLE.

Mrs. Gertrude Briggs and son, Fay, have gone to New Jersey where they will spend the coming winter. The ice cream social at the church was well attended. All had a good time. James French of Hancock is putting in the new dam for Rice & Son. Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Bagley attended Northfield fair last week. Mrs. Lucy Chatfield is away on a two weeks' vacation. A. B. Brown is at George Sargent's. Nattie Blair is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Freeman. Mrs. Lucy Wilber of North Fayston and Benonia Boyce and Mason Boyce of Corinth, and David Boyce of Cana Grade, Arizona, are visiting at Erwin Bagley's. They are Mrs. Bagley's brothers. A. A. Briggs began Monday to repair the strip of State road between Will Stone's and the Gay brothers' farm, a much needed improvement.

WEST BRIDPORT.

Stephen Cook and family mortored to Elizabethtown and returned Sunday. Rollin H. Holcomb of Addison was a visitor in town recently. Mr. Hawkins of Vergennes was in town with his automobile Sunday and went to Ticonderoga, where he is operating a portable saw mill. Mrs. Edward Webster of Hudson Falls, N. Y., is expected to arrive in town next week for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Ashley A. P. Dukett. King Trimble and C. A. Trimble of Crown Point and guest were in town Sunday. John S. Dukett and wife, Elsie, went to Rutland in their auto Tuesday and thence to Bellows Falls, where they are to be guests of J. G. Petty and wife. They will also visit at White River Junction, where they will attend the Vermont State Fair. James Carr, who recently brought his daughter, Lizzie Carr, from Crown Point to this town, have gone to Addison to make their home with Mr. Carr's brother, Michael Carr.

BRISTOL.

Mrs. Jerome Coleman of Shelburne spent the week-end at the home of her son, Clayton Bronson. Miss Blanche Jacobs, who has been quite ill, is improving. The body of Mortimer Sherman was brought here from Ferrisburg for burial Sunday afternoon. Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hewitt spent Sunday at Bread Loaf Inn. Ira Bosack and family of Charlotte were over Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Bosack. Ralph Brown, who is spending his vacation in Burlington, was in town Saturday. Miss Anita Todd is spending her vacation at her home in South Bristol. Miss Dora Palmer of Proctor spent Sunday at her home here. Howard Guinan returned Sunday from a week spent in Hartford, Conn. Miss Julia Bushey and Arthur Eseltine were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bushey, on the Notch road Saturday evening by the Rev. G. C. Chappell. Among those from out of town to attend the wedding were Clinton and Alva Eseltine of Malone, N. Y.

NEW HAVEN.

Mrs. Katherine Parker Chapin Pratt, who has been visiting in New Haven the last few weeks, died at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Parth Saturday morning, November 11, 1893, the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. N. C. Parker. She was married in 1873 to Lorenzo Chapin and they resided on the Chapin homestead farm north of the village for 34 years. Mr. Chapin died in 1882 and in 1896 his widow married D. M. Pratt of Buskirk Bridge, N. Y. Mr. Pratt died at that place in 1914. Mrs. Pratt is survived by one brother, Edward Parker of Burlington, two sisters, Mrs. Elmer Bissell of Rutland and Mrs. John Goodrich of Antwerp, N. Y., and three daughters, Mrs. W. W. Folger of Granville, N. Y., Mrs. Clayton Parth of Roxbury, this State, and Mrs. Myron Center of Eagle Bridge, N. Y., also six grandchildren. Mrs. Pratt has been in poor health for several years but up to the time of her last illness she was about as usual and took much pleasure in visiting the scattered members of her family. She was a woman who had many friends who loved her companionship for her many genial qualities of mind and her unvarying cheerful and kindly disposition. The funeral was held Monday at the church and the interment was in the family lot in the New Haven cemetery.

LEICESTER.

Miss Lillian Capron is attending the Brandon High school. Miss Agnes Tulley of Rutland, who is teaching the Ferrisville school for the year, is boarding with Mrs. Lenora Morse. Mr. and Mrs. Truman Townsend and daughter, Sarepta, left on Sunday morning for a carriage drive to Pittsfield, where they will remain for several days visiting relatives. While Master Curtis Ferson was returning from school last Wednesday afternoon he was hit by an automobile and thrown into a ditch. Fortunately he was only slightly hurt, but much frightened. Moses Ferson was a visitor in Middlebury last Saturday. Miss Flora Delano of Shoreham was a week-end and over-Sunday guest at Woodland. Mrs. Samuel Capron has returned from the Silver Lake house, where she has spent the summer. She has gone to Rutland, where she has a position in one of the hotels. Mr. and Mrs. Cortez Brownson, their youngest son and their daughters, Miss Tamar Brownson and Mrs. Grace Greene, made up a party who came from Rochester to spend ten days in camp at Sandy Point. Many neighbors took the opportunity of visiting them while here. They were former residents of this town. Invitations have been received for the wedding of Miss Fanny Fiske, only child of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Fiske of Worcester, Mass., and Chester Inman of that city at the bride's home on Wednesday evening, at eight o'clock, September 15. Mr. Fiske was a native of Leicester till he went to Worcester about twenty-five

CORNWALL.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Douglas are attending the State fair in White River Junction. Mrs. W. D. McCaskey and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shorkey went to Ticonderoga for the day, Sunday. Mrs. McCaskey remained for a visit in Ticonderoga and Lake George. Albert Shorkey is in Red Hook, N. Y., packing apples. Rev. and Mrs. Paul D. Thatcher went to Jerusalem last Sunday afternoon, where they conducted open-air service on the school grounds. There was a large and enthusiastic audience. Mrs. Benjamin Faler, a former resident, but now of Salisbury, was taken to the Mary Fletcher hospital on Wednesday. Mrs. Faler is suffering with a very serious stomach difficulty. Her physician, Dr. Dean, and her husband accompanied her. Harley Fletcher returned on Tuesday to Jersey City, N. J., after spending two weeks with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Fletcher, Mrs. Fletcher's sister, Mrs. Partlow, who has been her guest for several weeks, has returned to her home in Jersey City. Tuesday night Joseph Ayer was quite badly, though not seriously, bitten by his Shepherd dog. Young Ayer was jumping from the silo when, in the darkness, his dog not recognizing him, bit his hand. Dr. Reed of Forestdale was called and dressed the wound which is not thought to be serious.

His Rest was Broken

O. D. Wright, Rosemont, Neb., writes: "For about six months I was bothered with shooting and continual pains in the region of my kidneys. My rest was broken nearly every night by frequent action of my kidneys. I was advised by my doctor to try Foley Kidney Pills and one 50 cent bottle made a well man of me. I can always recommend Foley Kidney Pills for I know they are good." This splendid remedy for backache, rheumatism, sore muscles and swollen joints contains no habit forming drugs. Frost's Pharmacy.—adv.

Stomach Catarrh Is Very Prevalent

In this climate catarrh is a prevalent disease. Catarrh affects the stomach as often as any other organ. Perhaps every third person is more or less troubled with stomach catarrh. Peruna is extensively used in these cases.

PERUNA THE RELIABLE FAMILY REMEDY

THE BUSINESS MAN WANTS YOU

If you can do his work. And, he is never likely to call for you here because he expects to get the right help of us. You will be wise to get him now.

We Do All Kinds of JOB PRINTING

NEW FALL STYLES

Hart Schaffner & Marx Suits For Men in Great Variety of Patterns

For you Men of Addison County we are now showing a generous assortment of the New Fall Styles in Suits from Hart Schaffner & Marx. These goods are Standard in quality and style wherever you see them—in New York, or Boston, or Middlebury. We've got them here for you Men of Addison County—the latest Fall Styles—because we can appreciate that our home people want good things to wear the same as folks in other parts of the country. These clothes are great values—simply by reason of their quality and style and the service they give. See the new models at - $20 00, $22 50 and $25 00

We recognize that some of our home folks have to economize on clothes and we have provided for their wants. Other models of stylish serviceable Men's Suits at $12 50 and up.

THE KNOX HAT

Also standard in quality and style. The new Fall styles in both soft and stiff models. Colors are Black, Gray, Green, Brown and Blue.

Come in and let us show you the New Knox Hats.

HANKS & CHILSON

An Addison County Store For Addison County Men and Boys

Middlebury, Vermont.