Honored Daytona Schools.

Daytona high school has received an honor which comes to few high schools, namely, a call from Miss Susan B. Anthony and Mrs. Shaw, two of the strongest representatives of the woman's suffrage and other educational movements of the United States. Miss Anthony has given nearly all of the eighty-five years of her life to educational and philanthropic movements and yet she mounted our steep flight of stairs and spoke with as much animation as a young woman.

Mrs. Shaw, the president of the Woman's Suffrage Organization of America, encouraged the students, whether boys or girls, to get all the education possible, for the sake of companionship and enjoyment of this life, if for nothing else.

We are so proud to have had them talk in our school room. We shall think of their visit many times.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Steck entertained at luncheon at the Automobile club house yesterday. Dr. and Mrs. Ingalls and Mr. Gordon, of Hartford, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Moore, Dr. and Mrs. Seelye and Mrs. Robt. Ford, of Philadelphia.

Intemperate Tea Drinking.

In this age of mental tension, high pressure and overstrain tea is felt to be doing much to overstrain our lunatic asylums. There can be little doubt that tea drinking is a form of intemperance in these days, a national and female intoxication second only to that of strong drink and in some respects perhaps even more injurious. Family Doctor.

Cancelled.

Lyles. Did you ever come across a more cancelled fellow than Bulger? They say he is an atheist, and I believe he is. Bunter—I wouldn't like to go so far as that, but I know that he doesn't recognize the existence of a superior being.—Town and Country.

A Mean Suggestion.

"You know," said Miss Kreech after her solo, "I intend to go abroad to finish my musical education."
"Why not finish it right now," suggested Miss Cadley, "and save the expense?"—Philadelphia Ledger.

For Instance.

"Lucy," asked the teacher, "what is the meaning of 'suetinet'?"
"It means short, ma'am."
"A rabbit has a suetinet tail."—Chicago Tribune.

No road is too long to the man who advances deliberately and without undue haste.—Bruyere.

A Narcotic.

Teacher—Give me a familiar instance of a narcotic. (Pupil hesitates.) Teacher—What does your father smoke in his pipe? Pupil—Mother says it smells like hayseed, but I guess it's leather.
