THE GRUBER-MORRIS HARDWARE COMPANY INC.

Great Numbers of Mosquitoes.
Mr. Pickert, the manager and owner of the Pickert Company, in speaking to a few people last evening at the Troy House, said that he had bargained for a piece of property in Miami about a year ago, and had even gone so far as to have the deeds drawn up. The property was in the hands of two real estate agents. The fellow who did not steer the contemplated transaction threatened to take a lien against the property in the event that it was purchased. Mr. Pickert concluded his story by saying that it was well that he did not buy, owing to the great number of mosquitoes in that section. Otherwise, he is of the opinion that Miami is a growing town, and that property purchased there now is a good investment. He spoke of Daytona in forcible terms, and said that the town had made some great improvements since his last visit.

The Earliest Mummies.
Mummification is derived from the Danish mummy, a mask, disguise, and took its origin from the ancient Roman Saturnalia. In early English times it was the custom to indulge in burlesque sports after dinner on Christmas day, when masked performers, called mummies, would appear before the assembled guests. This custom is still kept up in some parts of England, especially in Northamptonshire, where the villagers go about during the Christmas holidays from house to house, personating several ridiculous characters in their mock play.

HOTEL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Corcoran, are stopping at The Austin.

W. J. Brand, Jr., of Jacksonville, registered at The Cleveland yesterday.

E. H. Howell, of New York City, registered at the City Hotel yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Johnson, of Port Orange, are in the city, guests of The Despland.

The management of the Ivy Lodge has changed the name of that hostelry to Ivy Inn.

Edward Stilling, of Detroit, is here for a portion of the season. He is a guest of the City Hotel.

W. McKay Robertson, of Jacksonville, is in the city on business. He is a guest of The Cleveland.

The Hotel Magnolia, under the management of Palmer & McDowell, opened at St. Augustine today.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Scheiner, of Erie, Pa., are in the city. They are being entertained at The Austin.

F. A. O'Callaghan and J. H. Teller, of New York City, were among the arrivals at The Despland yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cummings arrived in the city yesterday from the North. Mr. Cummings is chief clerk at the Ridgewood.

Mrs. H. L. Sexton, of Cincinnati, a regular winter visitor, arrived yesterday. She is a guest of the Daytona House.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Rockler and Mrs. C. Fozzard, of Port Orange, spent Sunday in Daytona. They registered at The Despland.

C. C. Royce, of Espanola, Mich., returned to the city yesterday for the winter. Mr. Royce is again located at The Austin.

Mrs. M. Menzies, and son Captain Jack Menzies, are here for another season. They are pleasantly quartered at The Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. Asa Paine and two daughters, were the guests at dinner yesterday, of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Blodgett, at The Austin.

Proprietor Waite of the Despland is already enjoying a good patronage. The number of arrivals at his hotel during the past few days were the largest in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Reed, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Jarvis, of Pittsburg and Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Brown, of North Carolina, are prominent recent arrivals at The Despland.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Wooten, prominent residents of Columbia, Tenn., are enjoying a stay in the city. They are located at the Despland.

Fred H. Miller, who is here the guest of The Austin, returned to the city Saturday, from a three days fishing and hunting expedition in the vicinity of Ponce Park. In the party were Messrs. Oliver, Reynolds and T. B. Miller, a brother of Mr. Miller. Reports are to the effect that they killed an abundance of duck, and brought back some good catches of bass and trout.

Hon. C. A. Carson, through the influence of Florida's delegation in Congress, has succeeded in getting an appropriation of five thousand dollars to fight the water hyacinth pest in the Kissimmee river. The dredge boat Kissimmee, Capt. J. P. Sharp, will have charge of the work, and operations will be begun in a few weeks. This will be welcome news to the steamboat men, as the water hyacinths are getting to be a serious impediment to navigation down the river.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Rutherford with their two sons and daughter, of Toledo, O., are enjoying their stay at The Austin. Mr. Rutherford is today celebrating his 74th birthday and his friends are congratulating him on his hale and hearty appearance. He is proprietor and general manager of the Middle Bass Club, at Middle Bass Island Lake, Ohio, and is an enthusiastic sportsman. This morning Mr. Rutherford showed a Daily News representative several scenes taken at his club house, among them being a picture in which were Ex-President Cleveland, Ex-Governor Foster, of Ohio, and Rear Admiral "Bobby" Evans, and Mr. Rutherford himself. These distinguished men spend several weeks each spring at this famous resort.

The Christmas Spirit.

The gift generously given is twice given.

Don't give the "man of the house" a set of lace curtains. He won't appreciate them.

Don't give "mother" a parlor couch or an upright piano, if she seldom sits in the parlor. Study her tastes and her needs, then select her gift.

A man offers a protest against the silver match case Christmas gift. Why this protest, the men may understand.

There is a multiplicity of baskets in the shops, the prices range from ten cents to as many dollars. A basket, home-trimmed, with a view to pleasing the particular person that is to use it, makes a simple, though inexpensive present.

An ostrich plume would delight the heart of the young woman, should Santa Claus favor her with one.

Boxes made especially for Christmas gifts are sold in the shops. Some of them are in burnt wood, but the commonest ones are those of leather, prettily adorned with a holly design.

Holly ribbon, which may be bought very reasonably, is another detail that gives distinction to one's Christmas gift.
