The Modern
 Seven Wonders

Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach.
 One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls fit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Picnic, Pelucid Halifax River.
 Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy ver-andas looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pican por-h a fat mullet, and that fish hawk straggling upward with his floundering lawd he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.
 Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live-oaks extend their giant arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.

Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or eve callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.
 For every visitor with a spare "goober" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.
 Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. You are reminded of Goldsmith's couplet where Smiling spring its earliest visit paid And summer's lingering blossoms are delayed.

In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate, another household has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane. Variety is the spice of life and here is where you find it.

The birds fit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.
 As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes, which for beauty, prolificity and all desirable qualities would truly astonish.

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.
 The seventh world wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missouri or from Maine, from Kalamazoo or from Timbuktoo and you will be "shown." Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring season.
 Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells.
 It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene.

Everything goes, from a 2-horsepower up to a 200-horsepower, and all degrees of speed from a canter to a two-mile-a-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for coin for the auto and bed and board.
 This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

 sythe, of Albany, N. Y., arrived at The Pringe George yesterday.

 Home of New York will give an entertainment at the Despland Thursday evening. No admission will be charged but a collection will be made.

The Stillman.
 Late arrivals at The Stillman are: J.
 L. Angell and wife, Fargo, N. D.; J.
 McEldowney and wife, J. H. McEldowney and daughter, Chicago Heights; Mrs. R. H. Burd, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa;
 Jos. J. Stanley, Los Angeles, Cal.

The Ridgewood.
 Among the arrivals at The Ridgewood Wednesday were: A. G. Munn, Mrs.
 Samuel Castleman and son Mrs. M. J.
 Demaree, Louisville, Ky.; R. M. Lambert, Jr., Mrs. Lambert, Jr., Miss Bookstaver, New York; E. C. Howand wife, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Hart, Columbus, Ga.; A. D. Brokon and family, W. J.
 Blackwell, Mrs. W. J. Blackwell, Omaha; R. C. Harnett, New York, R. J. Main,
 New York.
 Bathing parties to the ocean beach are getting to be quite the thing at the Ridgewood and almost every morning a party of bathers make the trip to Daytona beach. Among the party yesterday was Dr. Selik, of New York, and E.
 Marrener, of Chicago.

Schmidt's Hotel.
 Among the arrivals yesterday at the Schmidt Hotel were: H. P. Dunlap Watertown, N. Y.; Dr. T. N. Rafferty and son, G. A. Rafferty, Robinson, Ill.; C.
 P. Landis, DeLand; Mrs. M. G. Cowie,
 New York.
 Manager Henry Schmidt, of Schmidt's Hotel, was so unfortunate on Wednesday as to turn his ankle, painfully spraining the same. However, Mr.
 Schmidt is able to be around today with the aid of a cane.

The hunting party that went out from the Schmidt Hotel several days ago has returned and a nice bag of game was brought back. Besides an unusual amount of quail and rabbits one fine deer was shot. However, this deer will not fit that shirtwaist bagged several days ago and the party is still on the lookout for the real deer. Those in the party were Ernest Kreitzburg, William Rensburg and Guide Bennett.

Hotel Palm Beach.
 The Hotel Palm Beach, the large handsome hotel so prettily located by the sea and Lake Worth, is filling up with its former patrons and tourists who never miss this beautiful resort.
 It is only a short distance south of Daytona and many find it well worth their time to see the wonderful floral growth here and take in the many rides of interest such as the jungle ride, the most famous in the State. This is like a trip through Africa. Why need "Teddy" Roosevelt, our president, go to Africa when Palm Beach has such a jungle ride. One must ride quickly to escape trouble on this famous ride for many a wild cat has been seen in this thick growth.
 Among those now at this resort who are expecting to return to Daytona shortly are: J. E. Glass, Misses Mart and Josephine Glass.

Gave It Up.
 A friend of the writer recently made application for a public appointment in a small Scottish town, and, thinking that his chances of success would be greater by a little jollicious canvassing, he resolved to call upon a few of the town councilors, in whose hands the appointment lay. Of the civic dignitaries' position in private life he knew nothing. Journeying to the town in question he hired a cab at the railway station and requested the Jehu to take him to Councilor Bisset's, the treasurer. The councilor was found in his blacksmith's shop shoeing a horse.
 "I'll see somebody of more importance than this, anyhow," said the candidate to himself, and, turning to the driver, he said, "Drive me to Councilor Matland's office."
 The cabman thereupon drove him to the local joiner's shop. This was worse even than the smithy, and in despair he ejaculated:
 "Drive me to Councilor Gray's."
 "I am Councilor Gray, sir," replied the cabman.
 The answer staggered the candidate.
 He quietly paid his fare and disappeared, resolved to leave his fate in their hands without prejudging them in any way in his favor.—London Standard.
