According to the returns the total population of France is now only 38, 228,969, showing an increase of but 138,819 since the census of 1891, or an average of 27,764 per year. At the beginning of the present century the population of the country was double that of Great Britain. Now it is actually

An American contributes to a London paper a letter in which he savagely attacks the wheel and virtually charges it with all our present difficulties - economic, political, commercial, social and spiritual. He says that "millions and sillions of dollars are being withdrawn from the normal course of trade and diverted into this one branch, and other people find it extremely difficult to get money to live on.'

GEORGE T. HILL, of Chicago, is a man who is puzzling the doctors. The pecultarity of Hill's disease is that he sees everything upside down. Hill thinks that the inordinate use of the parallel bar and trapeze is responsible for his affliction. Frequently he would hang by his heels in this way for minutes at a time. The disease developed slowly. At first things only appeared "out of the straight" to him, but after awhile the whole universe became entirely reversed.

THE announcement that some time next fall Father Kneipp, originator of the famous wet grass cure, will visit this country and start his cure, has set all the rich and fashionable of this country agog with anticipation. Father Kneipp's visit to America is said to be due to the efforts of a New Yorker, who several years ago took the Kneipp cure at Woerishofen, Austria. The apostle of the water cure will deliver a series of lectures on the system in New York, and will superintend its workings at various places while in this

THE cause of sunstroke has been definitely discovered, according to the claims of officers of the state pathological institute of New York. They have made investigations which show that, instead of the sun's rays being the direct cause of sunstroke, as has all along been believed by the medical profession, the internal chemistry of the body and its secretions are so modified by atmospheric conditions of excessive hot weather that these secretions become abnormal, either quality or quantity, and are absorbed the blood and act as virulent pol-

A FEW days ago there was completed on the St. George vine nursery in Fresno, Cal., a barrel which can hold 79,000 gallons. The barrel stands 30 feet high in the center of a meadow and its circumference is 91 feet. Two carloads of steel were required for the hoops and 30 earloads of wine can be stored in the interior. An idea of the ponderous dimensions of this barrel may be inferred from the fact that 18,748 ten dollar bills would be required to cover the sides of the barrel, exclusive of the top and bottom. Standing upon the bottom of the cask 7,238 men can link elbows at one time.

THE Review of Reviews says that there is an open-air movement, almost revolutionary in its degree. People are bicycling, yachting, playing baseball, tennis and golf to an extent which is new in this generation. Nor is any considerable fraction of these people of the class whose wealth makes some such diversion inevitable; they are the workers in stores and offices of the great cities-in short, "the people." If it be true that Americans are a nation of dyspeptics because they work too hard and take too little phy sical exercise, the signs of 1896 are very promising of better things.

THE war department is seriously contemplating the training of dogs for use in the army. Dogs properly selected and educated, make the best sort of scouts and the most capable carriers of orders in the field No regiment ought to be without a dog squad. Several breeds of dogs are found highly suitable for military purposes-notably poodles, shepherd dogs and bird dogs. No mongrel makes a good war dog. All points considered bird dogs make the best war dogs. They unite the good qualities of the poodle and shepherd dog, and are distinguished by a lively sense of duty.

WITHIN a few weeks the Hamburg-American Packet line will launch their ocean steamship Pennsylvania, which will be the largest freight-carrying vessel in the world, and with one exception-that of the Great Easternthe largest ever built. Its dead weight carrying capacity is estimated at be tween 13,000 and 14,000 tons, nearly double that of the present largest liners in service. In addition to its large freight-carrying capacity, the eraft will carry 228 cabin passengers and 1,500 persons in the steerage. It will be equipped with five decks and have plenty of room for promenades.

Good Citizenship,

Canton, O., Aug. 29-- A committee of afteen from the National Republican league reached her at 12:30 this afteroon from Milwaukee. They took din her with Private Secretary Boyle and called on Major McKinley at 7:30 this afternoon when Mr. John Goodnoe of Minnesota, made a formal presenta-

The members of the National Republican league committee of Milwaukee that called on Major McKinley included: Colonel Stone, John Goodnoe, Minnesota; O. S. Glick, Wisconsin; L. F. Walker, Wisconsin; T. T. Meyer and W. F. Poucher, New Jersey: George W. Ruch. Pennsylvania; J. F. Higgins New Jersey; M. J. Downing, Missouri; Congressman Howell, New Jersey; Congresman McEwan, New Jersey; M. McElroy,Ohio, and Charles Leach, resident of the Ohlo state Republican ague, were also with the committee Mr. John Goodnoe spoke for President Woodmaneee of the league, who could not be here, as follows.
"Major McKinley:---We come to you as the executive committee of the national League of Republican clubs, instructed by the Milwaukee convention to assure you that the league clubs in every state in the union are loyal to you and active in their support of the principles for which you stand. To the of the campaign you will find every league man at his post, doing all in his power for the success of the Republican party. I do not need to tell you the details of our organization. We are proud of the fact that you have been one of us and in sympathy with our methods ever since the organization of the league in 1887. You know, sir, that the National league is composed of clubs from every state. Its ac-tive membership at this time is over 2,000,000 voters. It has ever been only for the success of the party and its principles, and has never attempted to interfere with nominations nor appointments. In that sense we are not pointments. In that sense we are not 'practical politicians." The league is formed on the fact that it is the duty of every citizen to study public ques-tions and, having so studied them, it is his privilege to assure in the most eective way at his command the practical success of the policies and principles he deems best for the good of the whole country. Our motto is "Educate and organize." It has been the methods of the clubs to study and discuss public questions between campaigns to present Republicant paigns, to present Republican doctrines to young men about to cast their first vote and to new voters at the time when they have leisure to study dispassionate

Faith built up in this manner and founded on truth cannot be disturbed by the excitements and impulses of a campaign. Republicans so made are Republicans from conviction and not easily led astray. They are stalwarts, fighting Republicans, for they sought for the principles which they earnessly believe are essential to the welfare of the whole people. For the success of these principles, they have organized themselves into campaign clubs. pledged now to work for the success the party and its whole ticket. For the clubs, we bring you greeting. You wear upon your coat, sir, the button of he private who fought not for me nor for glory, but for principle and the integrity of the union. We wear the league button; the button of the privates of the Republican party who are fighting today, not for office, nor for bame, but for principle and the honor of the nation. You will remember how the army looked to eGneral Grant, their leader, in whom they and implicit confidence. We, your troops, look to you as our leader, always the front of the fight, never dismayed by reverses; bold, aggressive and sure to lead us to victory. From the farms of the northwest to the plantations of Louisiana; from the groves of Call-fornia to the mines and factories of West Virginia, we bring to you the word that the ranks of the workers are unwavering and that the plain people believe your success, their success. The farms, the factories and the workshops are for McKinley and Hobart, for protection and reciprocity, for sound mon-ey and the nation's boner. M'KINLEY'S RESPONSE.

Major McKinley responded: "Mr. Goodnoe and Gentlemen:----It gives me great pleasure to greet at my home this large committee, representing the Republican clubs of the United I know something of your worth and work. I know how in former campaigns the splendid services of the young Republicans of ther country have contributed to bring to us most signal triumphs.

" am glad to hear from your spokes-man, fresh from your national convention, that the Republican party and the Republican cause this year are to have your united, aggressive and un-faltering support; and I am sure that support, connected with the support which will come from all classes of our fellow-citizens everywhere, will give the national ficket and to our party triumph, the like of which we have not had for many years. We cannot over-estimate the value of the young men in politics, and I would not have believed it if Mr. Goodnoe had not told me that they were not practical politicians. (Laughter). My experience with them has been that they have been politicians of the most practical sort known in merican politics

AN AMERICAN SYSTEM.

"Gentlemen, you never had a worther cause to strive for than you have The financial honor of the country and the prosperity of all its people are enough to mapire every American heart to the best possible effort. (Applause.) I have seen somewhere an inquiry, 'Cannot the United States establish a financial system of its own; is it is too weak and dependent to do that?' I answer: The United States now has a financial policy which in the main, it has been pursuing since the beginning of the government and which it does not mean to change un-til it can find a better one. Those who make the inquiry are usually against the American policy of finance and they are insisting that we shall adopt the financial policy of China and Mexo. I hope it will not be thought an ridence of lack of national spirit or national independence that we decline to adop well propositions." (Ap-

A delegation of 300 people from the East Ohio United Brethren conference followed closely upon the call of the league committee. Bishop J. S. Mills made the presentation for the party

He spoke in part as follows:
"Governor McKinley: It is our pleasant fortune to be in annual session in your beautiful city. We have called at your home to pay our respects to, and express our good wishes for, our distinguished citizen. We love our country and would have no east, no west, no north, no south, but a land in which all classes dwell together as mutual part-ners—heirs of a common inheritance, co-workers in pursuing a common duty,

We believe in civic righteoueness, jushighest, citizen in the land; obedience law from all alike and good men to sit in authority over us. Some of thes men enlisted with you in the service o your country, in the time of its peril ry now wish to look upon the of their illustrious comrade. all heard of your blameless life, your noble patriotism, your distinguished public service and your exalted nationideas. Therefore, we are delighted to bring you the greeting of our people

To this Governor McKinley replied:

Hishop Mills, ladies and gentlemen if the East Ohio United Brethren con ference: It gives me sincere pleasure to respond to this call of greeting and congratulation. I am duly appreciative of the message of good will which you so kindly bring from the religious body which you represent. It is a good omen when religious teachers are alive to the questions affecting the public welfare. Nothing is more worthy of your study and consideration than these questions which tend to make the coungreat, prosperous and righteous. Civic virtue is a good text for the preacher always, but a better thing for every chizen to guard in his daily life. Good citizenship lies at the foundation of your true greatness as a free governneat. Those who proclaim it are seed Christian teachers and public b efactors. The better the citizen the better a free government and its laws. It is a gratifying fact, as you state that in our form of government, character counts for so much. The lack of it almost amounts to a disqualification for public trust. Whatever men's individual opinions on moral questions are or may be, whether good or bad whatever may be their party affilia-tions, all prefer that public officials shall be of high character and worth. They may be careless in their own live but they insist that those who are t execute the public will shall be men of unquestionable integrity. Public opinion demands this and all political par-ties respect it. I wish for every religious body and every other agency whose measure of success. No nobler cause uld engage your faculties. I that your annual conference will productive of good and that your stay here will bring pleasure to you as I am sure it has brought pleasure to our peple and to our city. I will be glad to meet and greet each one of have honored me today and I thank you over and over again for the courtcompliment of this call. (Great appleuse.)

band's interpretation of "America" displayed their patriotism in every possible way. Indeed, the vast audience arose and sang the national authem with ardor. In the matter of applause the audience was very impartial and liberal, not making any favorites. The main part of the hall was filled early, and every well known arrival, from George Francis Train to the chief guest of the evening, Gen. Harrison, and his escort, John Wanamaker and Cornelius Van Cott, was cheered. This latter reception amounted to an ovation, the audience standing and cheering, waving hats, handkerchiefs and flags for fully five minutes. Mr. Depew and Dr. David Hill, of Rochester, the other orator of the evening, likewise received noisy demonstrations. There was a vocal solo descriptive of the march to the sea of Sherman, and then Dr. Depew stepped to the front of the platform

When the hearty applause had subsided, Dr. Depew, as chairman, began his remarks. Every other sentence filled with sharp shafts of ridicule, which the audience enjoyed heartily. After him came ex-President Harrison whose speech was very lengthy, touching upon the political questions at issue, especially the financial problem.

WILL NOTIFY BRYAN.

Populist National Committee to Mail ormal Letters to Their Nomi WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—The Star yes terdsy afternoon said:

The Star can state positively that Bryan is to be formally and officially notified of the populist nomination made at St Louis. Tom Watson will be notified at the same time. This may sound strange, in view of the statement of Chairman Butler that Weaver and Field were not notified four years ago, with the interence that went with it that, despite the protests of Popullst Bateman and others, Bryan would not be notified. At no time, however, did Chairman Butler say in positive words that there would be no notification. It seems that the pressure for the notification of the popullst nominees had been too heavy for the posed to such a course to resist, and that the managers of the populist campaign have finally come to the conclusion that the notification must be made. Just exactly the time for the notification has not been decided upon, but it is probable that the manner has been decided There will be no big meeting, like that in New York, but Senator Allen, of Nebrusk will write a letter to each of the candidate officially informing them of the nomination.

TO RAISE SILVER FUNDS. Farmers Asked to Give of Their Product

Which Will Be Auctioned WASHINGTON, Aug. 28. - Secretary R. E. Diffenderfer, of the national silver executive committee, proposes that farmers shall give for the silver campaign wheat, corn, sheep or any other products of the farm, to be sent to a central point where the people may gather and then auction off to the highest bidder. The occasion will be a sort of harvest campaign festival, where the people may congregate and where the products may be bought by those wanting them, the general proceeds to be devoted exclusively to the paying of the expenses of the campaign in the particular localities represented.

Gladness Comes With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper ef forts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts— rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual dissickness are not due to any actual dis-ease, but simply to a constipated condi-tion of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, prompt-ly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its bene-ficial effects, to note when you purficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely med and gives most general satisfaction.
