F. H. Kirkbride is now working for H. D. Meese.

J. O. Hodge went down to George Hoddy's ranch last week on business.

Notice in another place the report of the Beaver Union Sunday school.

Miss Flossie Gabbert and Mr. Bert Goodale of Cline were married recently.

Ice on the river was about six inches thick last week.

Frank Begue has quit working for Bob McFarland.

R. M. McFarland moved back to his ranch last week.

County Treasurer Putman moved his household goods to town Saturday.

O. Boyer is carrying the mail on this end of the Meade route.

Ed Hibbs went to Liberal last week with Dr. Mansell.

Frank Laughlin went to Meade last week after coal and lumber.

B. F. McPherson of Garfield was in the county seat Sunday.

Dyke Ballinger went to Liberal last week.

George Houser of Lakewood was in Beaver this week.

L. B. Husted sports a new double seated surrey.

Attorney C. B. Wright is in town this week.

Roy Lewis has been spending a few days in town since last issue.

An earthquake occurred in central Missouri and eastern Kansas the 3d.

Six feet of snow is reported in California.

The Liberal News came out on the ball shell last week.

J. W. McColl and son Roy were attending to business here Tuesday.

Extension! Extension! Nothing but extension.

Grace T. Bayless died on a quarter section of Beaver county land last week.

J. V. Thompson bought a nice pig of James Bare recently.

Will Thomas made a trip to Meade last week.

Lawrence McCabe is suffering from a very sore thumb which resulted from a sand burr sticker.

It is reported that James McQuillan and J. S. Hungate will apply for a license to open a saloon at Optima soon.

Dr. Mansell, who for the past week has been suffering from cramps, went to Liberal last week for medical treatment.

Miss Carrie Tracy went to Meade last Thursday to visit with Mrs. Louis Hoehler for a time.

Claud Blanchard was in Meade last week. While there he took the third degree in Masonry.

Mrs. J. R. Thomas was quite sick last week but at this writing is improving though she has not yet entirely recovered.

The HERALD has sold the room on the north of the main office to H. D.
Meese, who moved it to his residence.
There and constructed a stable of it.

Carrie Tracy has the material on the ground with which to construct an addition to his hardware store. He will commence work on the building soon.

Z. Cline, of shade, our worthy new county commissioner of the third district, is in town this week attending to official duties.

The wind blew hard from the southwest all day Monday and Monday night.
It was cold. There was no damage sustained to buildings or roads.

J. T. Stanley was a business caller in town last week. While here he dropped in this office and made me rich by $2.

Arthur Thomas is digging a well on the claim they recently purchased from Dyke Ballinger. Mr. Clothier is assisting him.

A decided change in the atmosphere took place here Monday night. The wind came from the north bringing sleet and rain.

At a meeting of Christian Endeavor last Friday night it was decided to hold the meetings at the church each Wednesday evening, the meetings to open at 7:30 o'clock.

A pleasant surprise was given at the home of Dyke Ballinger and wife Friday night the event being the eighth anniversary of their wedding. Only the relatives of the family were present.

The county officials have been busy the past week getting their business in shape, some to turn over to their successors and some to commence new terms.

Captain Mott and wife, of Cline were pleasant visitors to town this week. It has been some time since the Captain has been up to Beaver but he is always welcomed by his many friends here.

Galia Brown of Gila was caught in town in the cold spell this week. While here he renewed his and his son's subscription to the news medium of Beaver county.

Some moldiesome person for want of something better to do, has been engaged in cutting wire fences west of town recently. Those fellows who are guilty had better be a little careful in the future.

John R. Crothers died at his home six miles northwest of Liberal on Saturday, December 29th, 1900, of heart failure caused by coronary rheumatism.
Mr. Crothers was an old soldier and is well known by comrades in this section.

H. D. Meese is putting a partition in the banding just south of the HERALD office and is making other necessary improvements preparatory to opening a harness shop. The harness business ought to be paying out here and we think Mr. Meese will make it such.

The HERALD is in receipt of beautiful calendars from the Meade and Liberal State Banks and the First National Bank of Hutchinson, Kansas. These banks are all represented in the columns of this paper and are doing a good business.

The seventh annual convention of the Oklahoma Live Stock Association will be held at Woodward on February 12, 13 and 14. A good program has been prepared and a general good time is anticipated. One fare for the round trip is given on all roads.

The board of county commissioners met Monday. At this session there is considerable work for the board to do, but they are getting along nicely, notwithstanding that two of the board, Moses, Rusley and Cain, are new members, having just qualified Monday for their office. The board elected Mr.
Dulay chairman.

The Valentine Lunch.

For those who wish to entertain their friends in a dainty and original manner A Valentine Luncheon, illustrated and described in the February number of THE DULAY, will be very welcome. There is not only a beautiful arrangement of the table as a whole but each dish is also separately illustrated and delightfully grouped with cupids, hearts and those other things sacred to St. Valentine.

True Economy

The difference of cost between a good and a poor baking powder would not amount for a family's supply to one dollar a year.
The poor powder would cost many times this in doctors' bills.

Royal Baking Powder may cost a little more per can, but it insures perfect, wholesome food. In fact, it is more economical in the end, because it goes further in leavening and never spoils the food.

Royal Baking Powder used always in making the biscuit and cake saves both health and money.

You cannot, if you value good health, afford to use cheap, low-grade, alum baking powders. They are apt to spoil the food; they do endanger the health. All physicians will tell you that alum in food is poisonous

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 100 WILLIAM ST., NEW YORK.

MARRIED.

On January, 31, 1901, at 11:30 a.m., John Irvin, of Optima, and Miss Carrie Parries, of Liberal, Kansas, were joined in the sacred bonds of matrimony. The wedding took place at Wm. Irvin's, the father of the groom. The occasion was a very quiet one but attended with notably pleasant surroundings.

John and Carrie passed the ordeal bravely and we bespeak for them a pleasant matrimonial union. Mr. and Mrs. Irvin, the parents of the groom, receive Carrie with open arms and hearts.

Rev. E. F. REED, Officiating Minister.

Perry Hibbs was arrested Monday on the charge of having stolen some cattle belonging to N. A. Peckham and Sons.

Sheriff Weir and Ed Hibbs went after him and were bringing him to town early Tuesday morning, he riding on buckboard at the side of their buggy.

As they crossed the draw near Mr.

Peckham's residence, Perry gave them the slip and fled up the ravine.

A posse of men soon set out after him but so far have been unsuccessful. The cattle were stolen some two or three weeks ago.

Ed Hibbs captured Perry Hibbs on

Cow creek and brought him to town

Tuesday morning.

Young Women

The entry into womanhood is a critical time in a girl's life. Little miseries and disorders start at that time, soon grow into fatal complications. That female troubles are killing graveyards proves this. Wine of Cardus establishes a painless and natural menstrual flow. When once this important function is started right, a girl's life will usually follow. Many women, young and old, owe their lives to Wine of Cardus. There is nothing like it to give women freedom from pain and to fit young women for every duty of life.

$1.00 bottles for druggists.

Many of the blemishes, pimples and affections of the skin are caused by the failure of the liver and kidneys to ex-crete impurities, while in most of the systems of the body.
