Dr. J. J. Barber has been in Garfield county the past week on business. A. V. Fuller and George Rauh have been digging a well for Dr. Barber. Quite a number of the people in this and adjacent neighborhoods attended the Sunday school convention at Spring Creek school house in Woodward county, on the 29th. Noel Brazelton has been circulating a petition for a rural route. He obtained the requisite number of peti-

Some of the people realize the need of moving their houses and wells to higher ground and of making fences across canons, automatically detachable under high pressure.

Daniel Breon has the finest looking field of corn in this part of the county. Mr. Breon is a thorough going farmer and gives the best of cultivation, but he says the secret of it is fall plowing. A few farmers are using 5 tooth cultivators in the corn fields after the eorn is too tall for two-horse cultivators. Two points are thus gained. The moisture is retained, and the soil is in condition for wheat sowing

A heavy rain fell here the 14th and 75th. About three inches of rain fell. Frank Gadberrie called on J. L. Still Friday .

W. O. Still, of Coffeyville, Kansas filed on a fine 160 acre farm in Seward county, Kansas, near Beaver county line and will be on it in a short time and take possession.

Tom Gadberrie and wife, who are in Kansas harvesting are expected back home soon

Mr. Pryor one of our most enterprising farmers, has his stubble land all glowed ready for fall sowing

We understand that Jessie Sanders will build an addition on his house soon.

Finchers will commence threshing next week.

So much wet weather is rather hard on grain in stack.

Claude Pryor received a letter from Mr. Tooley in Kansas, wanting him to engage threshing bands for him. If he can get enough work he will ship in a first-class rig and do the threshing on the Missouri Flats.

The thresherman that burns his own coal will get the work on the Flats. Born-To Mr. and Mrs. Frank Me-

Some say such heavy rains were never known in Beaver couffty before, Corn is rapidly maturing so are peoples ideas of Beaver county and they are both maturing right too.

Broom corn pulling has commenced and the corn is promising an immense yield. Putiers are in demand and wages are high.

Those who have plenty of vines are being rewarded by a fine yield of cucumbers. Roasting ears are also the "prime excellent"

Ira Schawyer and wife returned last Tuesday from a weeks visit with Mrs. Schrawyers parents near Shattuck.

Miss Imogene Chockley has returned to her sister's home, Mrs. Brown. She has been visiting at Viola, Kansas.

Mrs. Maude Gigoux has returned to her home in Enid after a months visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. C.

The Sunday school at F. A. Groves' is progressing finely under Mrs. Groves' able management.

LOGAN.

This section has at last been visited by a fine rain the first soaker since the first of May.

The Ivanhoe people had a Farmer's picule the 3rd and 4th. The rain spoiled the picnic on the last day.

C. C. Curtis and family are visiting friends in Clark county, Kansas.

Tom Smith went to Shattuck last week Ora will now put on style in a new buggy. Miss Gertrude Canton is visiting her mother and old friends in this neigh. borhood. Broom corn pulling will be in full blast next week. A number began a week ago.

Mrs. Hughes went to Shattuck last week to file a contest on the quarter ection that the Sand Creek school ouse is located on.

Francis Evans went to the railroad to meet his father and mother, but on account of sickness of one of their relatives, they failed to come

The telephone at the post-office burned out in the recent storm.
