The HERALD wants the news from every section of the county. There are some neighborhoods not now represented in our correspondence. Who'll send in the items for us? We'll gladly supply the material and a copy of the HERALD to anyone who will send in the news. If you'd like to represent the HERALD in your locality let us hear from you. Remember, we want all the news, all the time.

FROM THE TROPICS TO HEAL US.

In Central America many natives are gathering the seeds of this plant, Cedron Seed, a rare medicine that has valuable curative powers. But few drug stores carry this seed, owing to the high cost of the article. This country is a large consumer of this costly seed because it enters into the famous catarrh remedy, Peruna, sold the world over.

Beaver to Have Ladies' Band

Not to be out done by the surrounding towns the ladies of Beaver met Monday evening of this week and organized a Ladies' Band. Complete arrangements have been made and instruments ordered. As soon as they arrive there will be "music in the air." This organization together with the excellent gentlemen's band which is already doing such splendid work ought to give Beaver a big boost and they'll do it too.

Mrs. Pearl Heycus will instruct the new organization. The instrumentation is as follows:

- Mrs. Pearl Heycus, clarinet.
- Miss Viola Ives, clarinet.
- Mrs. W. G. Fields, cornet.
- Mrs. W. T. Quinn, cornet.
- Miss Bertha Turner, cornet.
- Mrs. O. D. Smith, cornet.
- Mrs. E. P. Russell, cornet.
- Miss Nellie Judy, tuba.
- Mrs. Ben Bogoe, baritone.
- Miss Edna Humphrey, tenor.
- Miss Florence Strong, tenor.
- Mrs. W. H. Robertson, alto.
- Mrs. Jas. H. Crabtree, alto.
- Miss Erma Crabtree, solo alto.
- Miss Maude Thomas, bass drum.
- Mrs. W. H. Thomas, tenor drum.

A Dreadful Sight

to H. J. Barnum, of Freeville, N. Y., was the fever-sore that had plagued his life for years in spite of many remedies he tried. At last he used Bucklen's Arnica Salve and wrote: "It has entirely healed with scarcely a scar left." Heals Burns, Boils, Eczema, Cuts, Bruises, Swellings, Corns and Piles like magic. Only 25c at Fred C. Tracy's.

The Divorce Mill.

The time of the District Court last week was principally occupied in an attempt to untangle a few misunderstandings that have arisen in and around Gate.

The first was a suit for divorce filed by Mrs. Winona Jones against William I. Jones, wherein Jones was alleged to have scattered broadcast certain foul, slanderous and false reports about his wife and daughter. His defense denied everything and prayed the court to divest Mrs. Jones of the title to a quarter section of land worth some $5,000 and vest it in him. But the court thought differently, not only granted Mrs. Jones a full divorce but decreed the title in fee simple to the quarter to Mrs. Jones, and also ordered Jones to pay $75 toward her attorneys fees and all the costs of suit. Messrs Dickson Rush & Dickson represented Mrs. Jones and Messrs Hoover, Swindal and Culwell represented Mr. Jones. The case was appealed.

Another case was that of Cora Hubbard vs Clem M. Hubbard in which she accused Clem of staying out too late at night, and she wanted the court to decree her one-half of a $12,000 farm, and to order Clem to pay her $1,000 in cash beside $300 alimony and $300 as attorneys fees. On the hearing however the court did not take so wide a view as the plaintiff and awarded her $50 to cover her expenses to date and $20 per month until further orders. Messrs Hoover, Swindal and Culwell represented Mrs. Hubbard, while Mr. Hubbard was defended by Messrs Dickson Rush & Dickson.

Off to See Big Bill.

Dr. L. L. Long, County Attorney Spohn, John W. Savage and County Superintendent Swain went to Hutchinson, Kansas, this week to take in the State fair and to hear and see President Win. Taft, who spoke there Tuesday, the 26th.

Lockhart-Overton.

Miss Maude Overton and Pearl Lockhart, both of Elmwood, were married at the M. E. parsonage in Beaver, Saturday September 23d. Rev. W. J. Groat performed the ceremony which united the lives and destinies of the young people. The bride is a daughter of W. A. Overton, one of the most prosperous and well-to-do residents of the Clear Creek neighborhood. She was reared from a small child at her father's home in that vicinity and is a young lady possessed of all the qualifications of a true and noble woman. A host of friends who have known her almost from infancy and watched her develop into an accomplished and Christian young woman, always doing her duty as she saw it, can best attest as to her real worth and all hold her in highest esteem.

The groom is a worthy young man just taking up the responsibilities of life yet possessed with a courage and will which knows no failure.

The young people will make their home on Clear Creek. The HERALD joins their many friends in best wishes for a long and happy wedded life.
