WALTER C. FRAZER.

We welcome items from South Flats this week. Would be glad to receive them regularly. We ought to secure a good budget of news from that section.

The Ground Hog saw his shadow Friday. Now for six weeks more winter. The Winter King commenced early and gave the pestiferous little critter a run for shelter Saturday.

Leander Niles is "hopping counters" at DeGraw & Company's at present, during the absence of Mr. DeGraw, who is on the farm, and will try his luck at "clod-hopping" for a time this spring.

E. W. Groves was in from Hatten Monday. Gene don't get to town often anymore but he promises; if we land the railroad to east his lot with us again. He used to be one of Beaver's "live wires."

The first auto to brave the rough roads and mud since the storm came down from Liberal Wednesday. The roads are fast getting in shape now and regular travel by that favorite mode of "get along" may soon be resumed full blast.

A contest case before U. S. Commissioner Braidwood brought a large delegation of Lorena people to the county seat this week. Peter Ratzlaff was contesting Clara May Hill-Lackey. The case was being bitterly fought on both sides.

Mrs. Myrtle Bogue was called to Coldwater, Kansas, Monday, on account of the serious illness of her father, J. J. Bagley, who has been in ill health for some time, having suffered a stroke of paralysis, from which he never recovered. In addition to those ailments he slipped on the ice and fell recently, and it is feared his injuries may prove fatal. Mr. Bagley was formerly a resident of Beaver, and pastor of the Presbyterian Church and he, with his good wife, have a host of Beaver friends whose sympathy and well wishes are with them, and all trust for an early improvement, and that the illness may not prove fatal, as is now feared.

Walter E. Fickel departed Monday for Emporia, Kansas, where he expects to enter college and complete the regular academic course. Mr. Fickel is a live wire in Beaver's social circle and his departure is much regretted. The best wishes of all follow him.

The HERALD is glad to welcome a new correspondent from Floris this week which promises to be a good one. We trust that "Nix" will let us hear from him (?) or her (?) regularly. Who'll be the next to represent a neighborhood that is not already represented in our columns?

H. E. Bartholomew, formerly owner of the Texoma Times, was a business caller in the county seat Saturday and Sunday, and made a pleasant call at this office. Mr. Bartholomew may become interested in the newspaper business at some town along the W. F. & N. W. R.'s in the near future.

The Beaver Mercantile Company is having a new canvas awning put in place on their building this week. They have recently just completed an artistic stairway leading from the center of the first floor to the floor above. It is a neat and attractive piece of work, and adds greatly to the appearance of the building.

Walter Kennedy moved a couple of pool tables from Beaver to Couch Tuesday, and he will open a pool hall at that place, we understand. The business hasn't flourished in Beaver of late. It is a poor business asset to any man or community. We'd like to see Beaver prohibit them entirely.

Dave Evans, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Evans, of Riverside, took up work in the Beaver post office today and will learn the intricacies of Uncle Sam's business as relate to this department. Roy Brown, who has served as chief clerk in the office for several years will leave the work March 1st and Mr. Evans take his place.

All members of the Teachers' Reading Circle, District No. 3, are requested to be present at the next meeting in Beaver on Saturday, February 17th, as there is important business to transact. The lesson is to be the first two lessons in Book II, Public School Methods. Leaders—Eliot Haworth and Laura Miller.

ETTA RECORDS, Sec. R. C.

Postmaster J. R. Thomas was the first to appear on the scene with his little Maxwell runabout, after the six weeks of anti-auto weather. We rather expected Dr. Long to come out of the winter retreat first but this is once the "old man" beat Doc to it. The familiar sound of the "honk-honk" wagon will be most agreeable once more. They have been on the shelf a long time and we have missed them.

Cliff Cope, who was shot three weeks ago last Sunday night, was taken to the hospital at Wichita Tuesday morning of this week. Cope has been in a critical condition for several days and it was thought for a while that it would be impossible to save him and the case may yet prove fatal.

Frank Maple, of Beaver, was in the city the first of the week. He reports a very light loss on cattle during the recent cold spell.—Englewood (Kas.) Leader.

The Honorable Board of County Commissioners are in session this week. They ground out the usual amount of business with dispatch and accuracy. Beaver County has just reason to feel proud of the present Board of County Commissioners, for, so far, they have given us a business administration and looked well to the interests of the taxpayers. There is every reason to believe they will continue along their well chosen way, too, for they are now acquainted fully with the needs and possibilities of our commonwealth.

Among the recent institutions of social, business and public benefit to Beaver which has been instituted within our midst is the organization of the humane Society for the prevention of cruelty to animals. H. N. Lawson is the prime factor in the new move, so we are informed. Your efforts are all very laudable, Mr. Lawson, but, listen to a little advice which may save you future embarrassment as president and general manager of the H. S. We hear it noised about that the citizens of Beaver are going to combine and compel you to buy a vacuum cleaner to eradicate the dirt and fleas from "Togo."

Word comes from Urberville, Ohio, that our old friends J. V. Thompson and wife, familiar figures of the pioneer days of Beaver, and among the best people that any community ever possessed, were both in ill health. Mrs. Thompson has been in a feeble condition for some time and has almost entirely lost her eye-sight. J. V. is now in poor health, also, and his sight is badly affected. No one regrets more to hear this sad report than the writer, for we have known "Uncle Jim" and "Aunt Hannah" since childhood, and they have always been all that the word "friend" implies, to us. Many more Beaver people hold a warm place in their hearts for these good people, and trust that we may soon hear better news from them, and that they may both be restored to health.

LOST APPETITE AND HOPE

This is the season of the year when mothers feel very much concerned over the frequent colds contracted by their children, and have abundant reason for as every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality and paves the way for the more serious diseases that so often follow. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures, and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all dealers.

Rag Tackies.

The Marthas met with Mrs. L. L. Shaw Tuesday evening and spent several hours tacking carpet rags. They not only got away with a large bundle of rags, but an immense pan of popcorn balls also disappeared, and a big lot of wholesome pleasure was indulged by those present.

A Growing Church.

Improved conditions and a gratifying growth in membership were shown in reports made to the Fourth Quarterly Conference of the Methodist Church, held at the parsonage Saturday afternoon. District Missionary Lawrence presided in the absence of the District Superintendent, W. V. Burns. This conference deals with the winding up of the Church year in March. Committees were appointed and Stewards elected.

The Stewards for the Circuit are: For Beaver—Dr. J. A. Miller, Mrs. J. A. Miller, Mrs. Robert McFarland, W. T. Meador. Forgan (North Flats)—F. J. Imel, D. W. Le Crone, W. A. Coldwater, George Nichols. For Hibbs—Mrs. Nancy Robins, Mrs. Etta Sublett, Mrs. Nina Hester. For Brown's—Frank Brown, Mrs. Frank Brown, Mrs. Hattie Horn, Mrs. Frank Henderson. For West Union—H. A. Brewer, Mrs. Nellie Smith, Mrs. Mabel Page.

J. A. Spohn was appointed Trier of Appeals.

Rev. Lawrence preached to a good audience at the Beaver church Sunday morning, and at North Flats church at night. The sermon proposed for Saturday night was cancelled on account of the storm.

Do you know that more real danger lurks in a common cold than in any other of the minor ailments? The safe way is to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, a thoroughly reliable preparation, and rid yourself of the cold as quickly as possible. This remedy is for sale by all dealers.

Being Re-Modeled.

The K. of P. Hall, which is used for lodge purposes by the various fraternal organizations of Beaver, is being much improved by a general repairing and re-modeling. Elbert Clift has charge of the work.

It is the purpose of the K. of P. to fit the hall up for lodge purposes only, and when all the improvements are made which they contemplate, it will be an ideal lodge home.

In the future the lower floor will be used for public entertainments instead of the hall above. It is being lighted and fitted up for that purpose.

Missionary Meeting.

The Ladies' Circle, of the Presbyterian church held their regular Missionary meeting today at the home of Mrs. Frank Laughlin. A large number were in attendance and a profitable afternoon was spent.

Social and Business Meeting.

The Y. P. S. C. E. held their regular monthly social and business meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thomas, Friday evening of last week. The usual good time always prevailing at these gatherings was enjoyed by a large number of Endeavorers, and the evening was most profitably spent. Delicious refreshments were served.

An Antique Heirloom.

J. H. Thompson, who resides with his daughter, Mrs. Geo. Robison, in this city, has a very ancient heirloom in his possession. It is a copy of the Bible, and while its exact age is not known by Mr. Thompson, yet he is certain it is more than two hundred years old. It was the property of his wife's mother's grandmother, and is covered with a cloth binding over the leather cover, which was carded, spun and woven by that owner of the Book. It has been handed down from generation to generation, and is still in a fair state of preservation and the print is very clear and legible.

Almost Lost His Life.

S. A. Stid, of Mason, Mich., will never forget his terrible exposure to a merciless storm. "It gave me a dread full cold," he writes, "that caused severe pains in my chest, so it was hard for me to breathe. A neighbor gave me several doses of Dr. King's New Discovery which brought great relief. The doctor said I was on the verge of pneumonia, but to continue with the Discovery. I did so and two bottles completely cured me." Use only this quick, safe, reliable medicine for coughs, colds, or any throat or lung trouble. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Fred C. Tracy.

Too Bad for the Kids.

The children of the town have been enjoying the cement walks more than anyone having converted them into an extended roller skating rink and they had lots of fun out of it but last Saturday the city dads found it necessary to interfere with the kiddies sport, and as a result Marshall Quinn notified the youngsters that they would have to lay aside their skates until some other rink than the sidewalks was provided.

This is too bad for the kids but they had a good long season for skating and lots of fun out of it and, while we like to see the children get all that's coming to them in the way of fun, it was quite annoying to try to attend to business amid the clatter that fifteen or twenty youngsters with their steel-roller skates and shrill boisterous voices kept up just outside the door on the cement walks.

Wait a spell children until we get the railroad and get used to the noise and bustle of the city then, perhaps, we'll not object to your noise.

Pleasantly Surprised.

A number of friends of Mrs. Nettie Brown were invited to spend the evening with her at the home of her sister, Mrs. F. C. Tracy, Wednesday evening, the occasion being her birthday anniversary.

All had a most enjoyable time. At the close of the evening refreshments were served.

Around the Court House.

R. C. Fain is complaining witness in a charge against W. L. Williams Jr., for disposing of mortgaged chattel property. The case was filed in the County Court February 8th, the defendant arrested and upon being arraigned waived preliminary examination. His bond for appearance at the District Court in April was fixed at $500.

Disposing of property covered by a chattel mortgage is a felony in Oklahoma.

A man giving his name as Campbell was arrested Wednesday the 7th, at the Winters' place north of Beaver, where he had taken refuge, according to his story, from the officers at Gate. He undoubtedly had been drinking and was in a delirious state, as he hurriedly went through the window and explained to the Morrow family who live there that someone was shooting at him. He had dropped his coat about a half mile from the house and evidently run the entire distance. He is being held by the officers here, pending further investigation. He claims to be from one of the railroad camps near Gate.

County Judge Healy, during January, appointed C. C. DeGraw as Probation officer of the county. The Board of County Commissioners, at their last session, refused to approve the appointment for the reason that no funds have been provided to pay such officer. The law provides, that the County Judge, may by and with the consent of the Board of County Commissioners, appoint a probation officer at a salary of $30 per month. The duties, under the law, of such an officer is to assist the County Court, in looking after and caring for neglected, dependent or delinquent children, under the age of 16 years. The Supreme court has recently held that the Board of County Commissioners cannot refuse to approve the appointment of a probation officer on the ground, only, that no necessity exists for such officer.

There is no better medicine made for colds than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, opens the secretions, aids expectoration; and restores the system to a healthy condition. For sale by all dealers.
