Come to the Farmers' Mass meeting Feb. 26 and 27.

Beaver is very busy hustling for the railroad.—Farmers' News.

The snow is all gone now except where it drifted down into the draws.

Quick Money, Easy Terms. Apply to John W. Savage, just across the "bridge", for your farm loans.

The roads are still in rather bad condition, but are improving, and will soon be all right.

For insurance that insures and Abstracts that are reliable, see FRAZER just north of Mansfield's Cafe.

Revival meetings are in progress this week at the Christian chapel and will continue indefinitely.

Loans and Insurance. I have what you want. John W. Savage, first building east of Court House.

Put out your onion sets and plant your radish and lettuce seed as soon as the ground gets thawed out.

For Sale—Two good dining oak bedsteads with springs, one dining table, at a bargain. Inquire

HERALD office.

Automobiles should all be fat and slick now. They haven't been used since December 15th.

Money to loan on farms. See John W. Savage, first building east of the Court House.

Farmers, don't forget that Prof. Black's illustrated lecture will be given on Monday evening, Feb. 26.

DRY CLEANING, DYEING and PRESSING. Call on Mrs. W. H. Robertson at the millinery store.

A laugh is a good tonic—but be careful who you are laughing at—you may need a doctor after you have laughed.

One two-room and one three-room house for rent.

WALTER C. FRAZER.

This section of country is pretty damp now. Monday night a good rain fell, and Tuesday night it rained nearly all night.

E. Y. Ogilvie has sold the office of the LaKemp Mirror, including the franchise, subscription list, fights, and other things that go with a print shop, to W. F. P. Munsey, who will take charge immediately.

An editor was dying, but when the doctor bent over, placed his ear on his breast, and said: "poor man, his circulation is almost gone!" the dying editor shouted: "You're a liar! We have the largest circulation in the country!"—Exchange.

There is no better medicine made for colds than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, opens the secretions, aids expectoration; and restores the system to a healthy condition. For sale by all dealers.

Miss Erma Crabtree was taken sick the first of the week, and by Tuesday was seriously threatened with pneumonia. Miss Maude Thomas left the office to take care of her and will probably succeed in keeping the disease from getting a serious hold. We sincerely hope she will soon be out of danger.

Do you know that more real danger lurks in a common cold than in any other of the minor ailments? The safe way is to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, a thoroughly reliable preparation, and rid yourself of the cold as quickly as possible. This remedy is for sale by all dealers.

"It never rains but it pours." seems to hold good with railroads as well as other things. With one railroad now building and another in sight, things in Beaver County are looking up. Well, we are not a bit selfish, and we do not object to other people getting a R. R. as well as ourselves.—Farmers News.

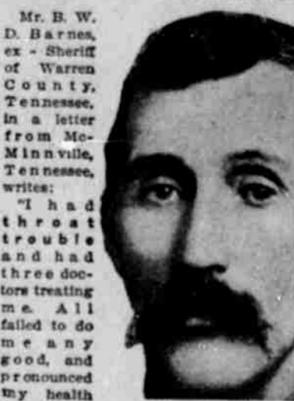

Elmer Boston, a young bachelor living southwest of town, got married Tuesday week ago. He kept out of sight of "the boys" until Monday night last, when they cornered him and his bride at home and "chivareed" them in great style. What they did to them in the way of noise was a plenty. Elmer called them in and set up a treat, including cigars. Billy Mason can give you the particulars.

Dr. W. B. Strong, an old timer, and well known in this part of the country, died at his home on the Kiowa last Thursday, and his remains were shipped to Kansas for burial.—Gate Valley Star.

Dr. Strong was Mrs. Grant Perkins's father, and her many friends will regret to learn of her loss. Mrs. Perkins and daughters had been at her father's bedside for a couple of weeks.—Farmers News.

Doctors Said Health Gone

Suffered with Throat Trouble

Mr. B. W. D. Barnes.

Unable to Work.

Mr. Gustav Himmelreich, Hochheim, Texas, writes:

"For a number of years I suffered whenever I took cold, with severe attacks of asthma, which usually yielded to the common home remedies.

"Last year, however, I suffered for eight months without interruption so that I could not do any work at all. The various medicines that were prescribed brought me no relief.

"After taking six bottles of Peruna, two of Lacupta and two of Manalin, I am free of my trouble so that I can do all my farm work again. I can heartily recommend this medicine to any one who suffers with this annoying complaint and believe that they will obtain good results."

Have private money to make a few loans on good quarters. Low interest. No rake-off.

If you toot your little tooter

And then lay aside your horn

There's not a soul in ten short days

Will know that you are born.

Campbell-Parker.

Miss Carrie Parker became the bride of Mr. Charlie Campbell in County Judge Healy's office, Tuesday afternoon.

Both contracting parties are from Elmwood. The marriage was solemnized by the pastor of the Beaver Methodist Episcopal church, W. J. Groat.

"Christ, The Trouble-Maker"

The subject of the pastor's sermon at the Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday night at 7:45 will be "Christ The Trouble-Maker."

Sunday School at 10:00 a. m.

Junior League to be announced at Sunday School.

WILLIAM J. GROAT, PASTOR.

Christian Church.

Revival services at the Christian Church every night this week. The interest and attendance is increasing with every service. Men and women have been accepting Christ from the very beginning. Below is a list of subjects for the remainder of the week and Sunday.

Thursday evening—"Christ in Prophecy."

Friday evening—"The Terms of Forgiveness."

Saturday evening—"The King's Business."

Sunday morning—"God's Estimate of Man."

Sunday afternoon—Men's mass meeting at 2:30, subject—"The Destiny of Man." Special music by Male Quartette.

Sunday evening—"The Second Resurrection; or, Infidelity Met on Its Own Chosen Ground."

Special music at each service. Come—You will be made welcome.

L. L. SHAW, Minister.

For a sprain you will find Chamberlain's Liniment excellent. It allays the pain, removes the soreness, and soon restores the parts to a healthy condition. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers.

In another place in this paper is a notice headed, "Farmers, Attention," which it will be well for all to read and heed. The illustrated lecture by Prof. Black will be well worth coming a long distance to hear, no matter whether you are a farmer or not. The matter of securing a State Ecampment School for Beaver County next summer is of interest to all of us. The State pays these men high salaries to find out things for us that will be a great help to the farmers, and we want them to come here and teach us what we have paid them to find out. We are all interested in learning how to make "two blades of grass to grow where only one grew before." These teachers profess to know how to do this, as well as how to increase other crops, and if they will tell us how to do these things better than we have been doing it will put money in our pockets.

Gate Academy.

(Too late for last week.)

Old mother earth looks good again even with its little patches of white here and there to remind us of the sleigh rides.

Prof. Fellow was called to Guyton last week to look after educational interests, he being the superintendent of that department in the church. He will return home by train and on his way drop in on two other academies a few moments.

The seven boys are to contest for a silver W. C. T. U. medal Tuesday evening. The Gate band will furnish part of the music.

Misses Dena Hall and Augustine Laverty were guests of Miss Pearl Williamson Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Nina Wolf went home Friday evening and is enjoying a visit with her brother from Canada.

Ray and Nettie Halleck go home on Friday and return on Sunday evening. Their sister, Mrs. Johnson, and her daughter have been guests at their home for a while but have returned to Buffalo.

J. R. Newkirk, our quarterly meeting superintendent of evangelistic work, preached a fine sermon Sunday.

Friends Quarterly meeting will be held at the academy the 23, 24 and 25th inst. L. Clarkson Henshaw, the yearly meeting superintendent, is expected to be here. Don't fail to hear him.

The literary at the Academy Friday was enjoyed especially the debate on "Resolved that the horse can stand more work than the mule." Ray Halleck was chief debater on the affirmative and won. Both sides put up good talks.

The boys are enjoying their gymnasium room in East Hall these winter days.

Maurie Hedges, after severe illness, was at church Sunday. We were pleased to see her again.

The church officials came and repaired the windbreaks for their horses on the Academy grounds, one day last week.

The Physic class has interesting discussions along with the experiments. Chester Groendyke was a guest at the Hall Sunday. He is one of the gold medal contestants and teaches at Cline this winter.

Fred Harris, Earl and Ruby Hester attended services at the academy morning and evening. We welcome these earnest young men in our midst.

The Academy Board met Monday to look after the interests of the school. Mr. John Morgan is faithful in driving the long distance to attend.

Some Why Don't You's?

Why don't you take more pains to be self-sacrificing? Time is rapidly passing. Why don't you send away that little gift you have been planning to send? Mere kind intentions never accomplished any good. Why don't you speak out the encouraging words that you have in your thoughts? Unless you express them they are no use to others. Why don't you make the promised visit to that invalid? She is looking day after day, and "hope deferred maketh the heart sick." Why don't you answer your friend's letter at once? It will have double value if written promptly, and take no more time than by and by. Why don't you create around you an atmosphere of happiness and helpfulness so that all who come in touch with you may be made better? Is not this possible?—Altoona Tribune.

Almost Lost His Life.

S. A. Stid, of Mason, Mich., will never forget his terrible exposure to a merciless storm. "It gave me a dread full cold," he writes, "that caused severe pains in my chest, so it was hard for me to breathe. A neighbor gave me several doses of Dr. King's New Discovery which brought great relief. The doctor said I was on the verge of pneumonia, but to continue with the Discovery. I did so and two bottles completely cured me." Use only this quick, safe, reliable medicine for coughs, colds, or any throat or lung trouble. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Fred C. Tracy.

A Big Smoke.

Last Tuesday a couple of little four-year-old boys, namely, Hale Looftbourrow and Wilburn Groat, were looking around for something to help pass away the time. They went down to an old barn which stood on the lot east of Judge Looftbourrow's residence. They went there to play, and of course boys can't play unless they do something. So Wilburn asked what sort of a game they should play, and Hale said he didn't know. Now there was a lot of old hay and other trash scattered around there, and Hale said it would be a good thing to pile it all up in a big pile. So the boys raked the old hay and trash all up in one big pile. "Now," said Wilburn, "if we only had some matches we could have a big bonfire." "Well," said Hale, "I got some matches, but mama don't know it." The boys couldn't resist the temptation of a big blaze, so they set fire to the pile of trash, and it made a terrible smoke at first, so much, indeed, that people who saw it thought the whole town was afire. Then the blaze broke out, and the boys felt repaid for all their hard work. The people in that part of town ran with buckets and tubs and yelled at each other and had a good time. There was no wind, and no damage was done. Some felt mad, but what's the use of getting mad at four-year-olds?

Mrs. Ada Smith went to Kansas City on Tuesday to purchase her spring stock of millinery goods. Her mother, Mrs. W. H. Siekler, accompanied her to Kansas City, and while there will consult a specialist in regard to the condition of her health. Mrs. Smith will spend a couple of weeks in a wholesale millinery house in the city.—Coldwater (Kas.) Star.

Herding Sheep in Beaver County.

The story comes from the western part of the state that a college graduate from the effete east, arrived on a ranch and applied for a job herding sheep. The young man had longed for the western life, but had seen little of it. Animals of the range were strangers to him.

But he was anxious to learn and the ranchman put him to work. He sent the ambitious college man out to herd sheep, admonishing him to bring all of the lambs into the corral at night so that the coyotes would not make way with them.

That night darkness fell with no sheep herder at the ranch house. The ranchman had returned to the fold at the corral, but whether all were in could not be told.

Soon the college hero returned. When asked why he had been so late, the young man stated that he had driven all the lambs into the fold early, but that one had run away and he had been detained to catch it. He had overtaken it and had it in his arms.

The ranchman looked at the herder and the burden in his arms and exclaimed: "Boy, that ain't no lamb; that's a jack rabbit."—Oklahoman.

This is an old one, but so long as it gives Beaver county some more free advertising it's all right.

Here is a message of hope and cheer from Mrs. C. J. Martin, Boone Mill Va., who is the mother of eight children. Mrs. Martin was cured of stomach trouble and constipation by Chamberlain's Tablets after five years of suffering, and now recommends these tablets to the public. Sold by all dealers.
