

That "Spring Feeling!"

We can't help it. There is something about Spring-time, its awakening from the lethargy of winter, that makes everyone take notice.

As Mother Nature dons her spring clothing these warm days, one's thoughts turn to new garments for comfort, for style, for outings or vacations.

This store is now dressed in its spring raiment; its shelves are filled to overflowing with a bewildering display of spring dry goods in colors, textures and styles ample to meet your most exacting demands.

Come in and see the new goods. It is always a pleasure to show them to you.

Think of the memories that magic name recalls! Think of the days when had men settled their differences with the pistol and the bowie knife! But today all is changed. The iron horse has come, but is drawing plows instead of a train of cars.

Mr. Frey, who lives near Knowles, is plowing for Mr. Taintor with a gasoline tractor and gang of plows.
