MONEY TALKS

Work hard,
Save money
Prepare for the future

A great many people who earn less than others have bank accounts because they are prudent, saving regularly a part of what they earn.

It doesn't take much figuring to see the folly of spending all you earn, thus robbing yourself of future independence and happiness.

A bank account is the result of a sand look ahead. We will help you save. Begin with any amount, however small.

Interest paid on savings.

Decoration Day Plans

THE following arrangements have been made for the observance of Memorial and Decoration days, this year. All are urged to take hold of the work which has been assigned to them and this notice is to advise all such that they have been so selected. No further notice will be given. Let us not forget that it is not only our Privilege but our Duty to see to it that this day on which we honor our Nation's dead, be fittingly observed and let all do their full part. We should each one feel a pride in assisting in this noble work.

Memorial Sunday, May 28th

Services will be held at the Baptist tabernacle. Rev. Chas. D. Norman, pastor of the Methodist church will deliver the Memorial address. Music will be in charge of the Music Committee.

Decoration Day, Tuesday May 30th

On account of the large crowd always attending these exercises, it has been decided not to attempt a procession. All will meet at the cemetery at 10 o'clock, where the regular G. A. R. exercises will be held. Those who desire to decorate graves other than those of the Old Soldiers are requested to attend to this either before or after the G. A. R. exercises so as not to interfere with the regular exercises for which this day is observed. Let us not forget that this one day is set apart to pay tribute and honor to our Nation's dead. Automobile conveyance will be provided for all Old Soldiers. Others will make their own arrangements to get to the cemetery. The following are the committees selected:

MUSIC—Mrs. W. G. Stranathan, Chairman, Miss Edith Miles, Mrs. A. G. Thomas, Miss Emily Nicholson, Miss Pearl Caylor, Mrs. E. J. Horne, J. O. Ellis, Mrs. W. H. Hill.

FLOWER GIRLS TO DECORATE GRAVES—Young ladies to be selected and directed by W. H. Hill, Geo. T. Murphy and Miss Lena Wright. This committee is expected to provide sufficient flowers and decorate 35 graves.

CHILDREN TO STREW FLOWERS—Children from 4 to 10 years of age will meet at the cemetery gate and be directed by Mrs. P. L. Thomns and Mrs. Chas. Hartrnft. Each child must have a basket of flowers.

FINANCE—Misses Reola Mansfield and Orveta Quinn.

TABERNACLE DECORATION—I. W. Moore, chairman, W. T. Quinn, Chas. Hartrnft, Mrs. A. C. Emberson, Mrs. John Caylor, Mrs. L. L. Shaw, Mrs. O. D. Smith.

THE NEW CHAMBER OF COMMERCE OF BEAVER.

With the meeting of a group of Beaver citizens in the court room last Thursday evening, assembled in response to an announcement in the papers of that morning, made by Judge Loofbourrow, was laid the foundation for a new era of prosperity and advancement for Beaver. It wasn't a large crowd—some thirty or forty. Neither was it a boisterous one—in fact quite the contrary to the general conduct of such gatherings, there was an attitude of quiet and seriousness about the entire proceedings that stamped them with a mark of efficiency and determination.

Judge Loofbourrow called the meeting to order. He spoke briefly of the sudden great advancement of the commercial interests of Beaver; of the bustling activity in the building line since the coming of the railroad; and of the resultant growth of the city, carrying with it a growth in the municipal duties and responsibilities. He made known the deficiencies of the municipal light and water plant; the need of a new engine, of further extensions of the water and light systems, and of the organization of a voluntary fire department. Then he told of the need of some force to initiate improvements along these lines, to help advertise Beaver's advantages, and to locate prospective citizens and business men. And, finally, he called for suggestions towards the organization of a commercial club to supply this need.

One after another of those representatives of Beaver's solid business interests present at the meeting arose and expressed their hearty endorsement of the plan. A temporary organization was formed, with Mr. H. R. Barnard acting as chairman and Claude T. Smith acting secretary. The roll of membership in the permanent organization was then opened, and every man at the meeting attached his signature, paid his initiation and first year membership fee of five dollars, and the ship of the New Chamber of Commerce of Beaver was launched on the sea of its municipal endeavors, to be piloted by a President to be elected at its next meeting, on Monday, May 22nd, and manned by a crew in which will be enlisted every business man and citizen of Beaver who has the welfare of Beaver at heart, and the development of a bigger and better city as its goal.

Are we to have a Commercial Club in Beaver that will be a success, that will take the lead in working for needed improvements, that will prove an active, vital force in the development of the city? Or is this Chamber of Commerce of Beaver to follow the listless way of other like organizations previously formed here, to bud with a great show of enthusiasm, only to die in a few months for want of active support and encouragement? On you, Mr. Citizen, and you, Mr. Taxpayer, and you, Mr. Businessman, on each and every one of you rests the responsibility for the ultimate success or failure of this Commercial Club. The eyes of all the neighboring little towns will be on you. Put your shoulder to the wheel; join the Club, pay your dues, and above all, ATTEND THE MEETINGS. With the hearty, unselfish co-operation of each and every one of you, and an active participation in every meeting, the New Chamber of Commerce will prove to be here as it has been in every other city where this co-operation has been secured, the best booster for your own business and your own interests, and the most vital factor in the continued growth and prosperity of our own little city, Beaver.

CHRISTIAN REVIVAL CLOSES

The revival which has been in progress at the Christian church the past three weeks closed with the Sunday night service. During the meetings thirteen additions were made to the church. Baptismal services were conducted Sunday afternoon at the pool west of town.

AIRDOME UNDER WAY

Material is being placed on the lot just south of the Herald office this week for the construction of an Airdome which will be built for Spangler Brothers, owners of the Globe theatre. Spangler Brothers plan to equip the Airdome in the latest approved manner and will conduct an open air theatre during the summer months. At the present they will build 25x70 but they have planned their building so that it may be extended and later they expect to build the full depth of the lot.

N. D. Neff has purchased lots in Beaver Heights and is placing material on the ground this week for the erection of a new home.

COMMERCIAL CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

The Beaver Commercial Club, pursuant to call by the temporary chairman, Mr. H. R. Barnard, met in the Court Room at 9 p. m. Monday, May 22nd. The meeting was called to order by the chairman. After receiving and approving the reports of the various committees appointed at the previous meeting of the Club, proceeded to elect the following members as a Board of Directors for the Club:

E. D. Humphrey, J. W. Culwell, J. E. Spurrier, W. T. Quinn, W. H. Robertson, Claude T. Smith and Rosecoe Rizley.

The Committee on Constitution and By-Laws was continued, and instructed to report at the next meeting.

The Club selected Friday, May 26th, as "Clean Up Day" in Beaver, and instructed the committee to prevail upon every man, woman and child to put forth their best efforts to co-operate with the committee in observing this day.

The Board of Directors met immediately after the Club adjourned and selected the following officers of the Club:

E. D. Humphrey, President.
J. E. Spurrier, Vice President.
Rosecoe Rizley, Secretary.
C. T. Smith, Treasurer.

The Chairman appointed as a Committee on Membership: W. H. Robertson, F. C. Tracy, A. M. Burnam.

An Executive Committee, consisting of the following was appointed: J. W. Culwell, Harry McCoy, H. P. Garrett, L. L. Shaw, and J. K. Davis.

BEAVER GETS INDIANS SCLAP

The base ball game Sunday between a team of Cheyenne-Arapahoe Indians from the reservation at Hammon, and the Beaver team resulted in a victory for the Beaver boys by a score of 13 to 4. A game was also played Saturday between the same teams, the Indians winning by a score of 16 to 14. Unusually big crowds attended both games, many being attracted by reason of the game being with Indians.

Mrs. J. W. Noble of Six Mile, has been quite seriously ill the past week.

Mayor's Proclamation

CLEAN UP DAY

TO THE CITIZENS OF BEAVER, OKLAHOMA

Friday the 26th day of May, 1916 is hereby set apart as Clean Up Day in the town of Beaver.

All citizens of the town are notified to clean up their premises, alleys and streets adjoining such premises. This "clean up" will not only improve the appearance of the property and town, but will guard against infection and disease likely to be germinated in all filth and trash. Teams will be furnished to haul away the rubbish, etc. All Business Houses in Beaver are requested to close Friday afternoon from 1:30 p. m. to 6 p. m.

By Order of Board of Trustees.

R. H. LOOFBOURROW,
President Board of Trustees.

Attest: O. F. PRUETT,
Clerk.
