Personal Items

Rain threatened several days the past week but terminated with only a slight drizzle Saturday.

Mrs. Jeff Holland and children returned Friday from a visit with Mrs. Holland's parents at Artesia, N. M.

A brick addition 16x20 is being made this week to the W. T. Quinn building, which is occupied by the Narrow Gauge cafe.

Miss Edith Miles left Tuesday for Norman, where she will resume the study of music at O. U. the coming year.

Mrs. Minnie Lee and children, of Gate, were county seat visitors and guests of the Rev. and Mrs. L. L. Shaw the past week.

C. K. Drum, who has been employed at the Bank of Beaver City as assistant cashier, has resigned that job and is out on his farm sowing wheat.

Court Clerk DeGraw was looking after farm interests down the river this week, sowing wheat and looking after other matters.

Jeff Holland was ill and unable to be at his place of business Monday. He was on deck as usual Tuesday, but not feeling the best in the world, however, at this time he is improved.

Miss Reola Mansfield left Saturday for Norman to re-enter the State University. Miss Reola is taking pharmacy. She was employed at the Davis Drug Company during vacation.

Mrs. Geo. H. Healy returned this week from a summer outing spent in Colorado. Her mother, Mrs. C. M. Savage, who was with her, went on to Illinois for a visit.

John Phelps, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Phelps, was quite seriously hurt Tuesday evening. He was wrestling with David Kile and in the throw struck his head forcibly on the ground, dazing him seriously. He is improving but will not be able to return to school for a few days.

J. R. Quinn received a picture the past week of his two sons, Enoch and Orville, who enlisted a few weeks ago at San Francisco and will serve Uncle Sam in the medical corps. The boys were dressed in their khaki and, while the picture did not do them justice, they looked like sure-enough Sammies.

Miss Adeline Goddard, Christian Endeavor worker, was here the past week in the interest of that organization. A meeting was held at the Christian church Monday night, at which time Miss Goddard spoke on matters of interest to church workers in general and Endeavor workers in particular.

Mrs. Annette Ehler, grand representative of the O. E. S., will be here tomorrow (Friday) night to pay her official visit to the local O. E. S. Chapter and to conduct a school of instruction. All members will take notice and arrange to be present. Meetings will be held at the Chapter rooms Friday afternoon and evening.

The Social Hour Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Jim Couch Friday afternoon. The time was spent in making bandages for the soldiers under the direction of the Red Cross. This club meets every Friday. They have arranged to meet at Red Cross headquarters every other Friday and at the homes of the members the alternate week, but will do sewing for the Red Cross at all meetings.

Bill Taylor, carpenter, is very critically ill of cancer of the liver. He was brought to Beaver last week, his house being moved in by men of the Modern Woodmen order, of which he is a member at Oklahoma City. Men of the same order are taking care of his broom corn crop this week. Mr. Taylor's condition is considered very critical and attending physicians can give no hope for his recovery.

The local Red Cross Chapter is indebted to the City of Beaver for electric lights, which were installed in their building free of charge. The Beaver Telephone company also furnishes a free telephone and other business people have donated liberally, when asked to do so, merchants selling us material at cost. Beaver is back of the Red Cross heart and soul. They will not refuse any reasonable request, of that we feel assured.

Thos. P. Braidwood, U. S. Commissioner, reports that word from his son, Tom, who is in training with the Second Officers' Reserve, is to the effect that, while the training is strenuous and about the hardest work a fellow ever done, he is enjoying it and getting along fine. We may expect only such reports from Tom. He is heart and soul in the work and it is our guess that he will make good. He reports that many are getting tired and quitting—we are not looking for such a report from Tom. He's no quitter.

RED CROSS SAVES SOLDIERS

Long ago some one remarked that an ounce of taffy is worth a ton of epitaphy. A 10-cent bunch of violets to the living outweighs a $50 funeral wreath for the dead.

That's the motto of the Red Cross, says a writer in the Philadelphia Ledger. It is much cheaper to soothe and heal a wounded soldier than to pension his family.

Erecting monuments at Gettysburg and Valley Forge is well enough fifty or a hundred years after the events, but a dollar for the stricken soldier equals a hundred dollars in marble over his body.

Red Cross money is an insurance policy. What does it insure against? It insures against death itself, which is something an ordinary insurance policy does not do.

Wipe out our hospitals and how many more persons will die every year? Doctors tell me the number would be many thousands.

Deprive the battle front of hospital facilities and the death rate will jump enormously. So your Red Cross dollar is out upon a practical errand—not a sentimental, sissy journey.

It is certain to be invested in the life of a liberty soldier, which is a good enough investment for me.

GERMANS BOMB AMERICAN RED CROSS HOSPITALS

German aviators on September 7 dropped bombs on an American hospital camp in France, killing and wounding members of the base hospital units from Harvard University and St. Louis. A dispatch from the correspondent of the Associated Press reports the following victims of the raid: The dead—First Lieut. W. T. Fitzsimmons, Kansas City, adjutant to the colonel commanding the Harvard unit; Privates L. G. Wood, Streator, Ill.; Rudolph Rubino, New York, and Oscar C. Tugo, Boston.

The wounded—Three first lieutenants, six privates and one nurse.

"With bombs bursting about them and wounded men being torn by pieces of the exploding missiles, nurses hastened to their aid," says the dispatch.

"Officers stood at their posts, men responded to every call, and the first American units to be under enemy fire carried out the work they had to do with the utmost bravery."

OFF FOR O. U.

Harold and Bernard Loofbourrow and Doyle Davis left this week for Norman to engage in school work at the O. U. the coming year. This is Harold's third year. Bernard and Doyle are entering.

ARE YOU LOOKING OLD?

Old age comes quickly enough without inviting it. Some look old at forty. That is because they neglect the liver and bowels. Keep your bowels regular and your liver healthy and you will not only feel younger but look younger. When troubled with constipation or biliousness take Chamberlain's Tablets. They are intended especially for these ailments and are excellent. Easy to take and most agreeable in effect. For sale by Davis Drug Co.

Meet me at Jeff's Place.

Mrs. Uly Wright, of Balco, was a county seat visitor Tuesday. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Fessie Reagan, and by L. E. Mauget, D. C., both of Davenport, Iowa, and who are here on a visit at the home of Mrs. Wright. Her parents, S. L. Zimmerman and wife, of the same city, are also visiting her. Mr. Mauget is a chiropractor and is so pleased with the country that he has arranged to remain for a time and will open an office at the Merc Rooms here. Note his ad elsewhere in this issue.

Meet me at Jeff's Place.

A delegation from the local Red Cross Chapter, including Rev. L. L. Shaw, Geo. H. Wright, Mrs. E. L. Fickel and Miss Maude O. Thomas went down to Sophia Friday night, being called by the people of that neighborhood to organize a Red Cross Auxiliary. A well-attended and enthusiastic meeting was held at the South Flat Baptist church and an organization effected. Mrs. P. J. Gheen was elected chairman; Mrs. Arthur Williams, vice-chairman; Joe Michel, secretary, and Mrs. Joe Michel, treasurer. The organization started off with twenty-five members. All are enthusiastic in the work and anxious to do their bit.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY

This is a medicine that every family should be provided with. Colic and diarrhoea often come on suddenly and it is of the greatest importance that they be treated promptly. Consider the suffering that must be endured until a physician arrives or medicine can be obtained. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has a reputation second to none for the quick relief which it affords. For sale by Davis Drug Co.
