Buy Coal Now.

The Government is urging consumers to store a supply of coal for next winter. What are you going to do—Buy now and aid the Government in relieving congested traffic next winter or wait?

The case of the pinto bean shows how a substitute food may gain popularity without increasing in price. Last year the dry-land farmers of the southwest raised a pinto-bean crop four times as large as in 1916, and found themselves with three thousand carloads on hand. Because of an unreasonable prejudice against the color of the bean, and because consumers know little about it, the market offered a price too low for profit. The Food Administration has been carrying on a publicity campaign for the beans, and at the same time has used the control that lies in the license system. The result is that the pinto beans are selling at a fair profit to the growers, yet at about half the price of navy beans; and they are just as good in every way. —Youth's Companion.

Plate glass insurance adjusters were here this week replacing a broken glass in the front of the Peoples' Store building. It is a mighty nice consolation when those accidents come, to know the loss is covered. Plate glass costs real money.

TWO BIG 12-MILE AUTOMOBILE RACES

Red Cross Auction Day, Saturday, May 25th—Two Races, of $500 Each.

It's the purpose of the program committee to make this, the second day of the Red Cross auction, the biggest day ever for Gate. These two races will be pulled off promptly at 1 o'clock and must be over and out of the way by 3 o'clock. The winner of each race will be given a $50 prize—no entrance fee. These races are for FORDS ONLY and will be in two classes.

The first race will be only the regular touring car equipped as a stock car. The second race will be Ford cars stripped.

The Race Course The cars will be driven against time. Each car starting a few minutes after the other. Young boys or girls will not be permitted to enter. The cars will be sent away from in front of the postoffice, going west to Walter Estes' corner, south to corner of town, east across railroad tracks to east corner of Job Newby's farm, north past oil well to Old Town, west to George Merrett's corner, south to railroad track—crossing track, south to John Bailey's blacksmith shop, west to starting point in front of postoffice. This is about three miles and is to be driven four times around for each race.

The streets will be closed where they intersect the course, and no cars will be allowed anywhere near the course during the race.

Any attempt of any contestant to foul another will disqualify them for the prize.

This should bring the largest crowd ever gathered in Gate.

This prize of $100 will be contributed by the business men of Gate.

A matched game of baseball in the forenoon.

The Red Cross bunch of Boosters from Beaver, accompanied with speakers and the County band will arrive strong late in the afternoon, and put on a little concert for us. They are out to help the different places raise their quota but they know they will get a "high ball" at Gate, for we are in the clear already.

And REMEMBER THE ROOSTER—Englewood and Rosston are coming but we don't believe any of these "little country towns" can take this rooster home with them. Maybe they can, but they will have to "show us."

DON'T EAT AT HOME—Extensive arrangements are being made to give you a good feed and this money is for the Red Cross also.

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative powers of Hall's Catarrh Medicine that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by all Druggists, Etc.

May 20th to 27th the Red Cross will ask the American people for another $100,000,000 to carry on its work of mercy. An account of its stewardship of the first gift makes us pause before the immensity of the need which it alone can meet. And as the battles rage and the bodies of men are torn the need multiplies. You will be asked for money. Give it freely. If we know the character of the women in the Red Cross trenches, says Good Housekeeping, this new drive on the part of the Red Cross will be instantly met. There is no need to justify the work. The great need is to continue it, and to continue it on as large a scale as possible. Recall what the Red Cross did at the time of the Halifax disaster, December 6, 1917. Only a few hours had elapsed after the explosion, when blankets, surgical dressings, medicines and clothing were on their way, and an entire equipment for a base hospital unit was speeded by special train. Multiply this work along hundreds of miles of battle line, where each sector on the western front may be regarded as a number of Halifax disasters, and one can then realize the magnitude of the need of the national Red Cross.

Dr. E. O. Nicholson and family are enjoying a visit from their son and family, who drove over from Tyrone last week. A daughter and two children arrived from the eastern half of the state recently for a visit and now the visiting children are undergoing a siege of measles. With ten grown-ups in the house and six "measley" children, they are having a siege of it, sure enough.
