TWIN MOUND
Some folks have made garden and planted potatoes the last week.
The rain on Sunday prevented the folks getting to meeting. The new minister about to be here. Have not heard of if he got there or not.
Flu patients all better. No new cases reported.
The rains are fine on wheat and pastures.
Fine prospect for a big crop if nothing happens later.
The entertainment for the soldiers boys at Sunset was well attended. The music was fine.
Mrs. Frank Robinson and son, Lee, of Laverne and Mrs. McClurg of Logan, were visiting at Mrs. Howe's and Mrs. Jim Young's on Thursday.
Mrs. Valentine gave the young folks a party on Wednesday night in honor of Miss Mary Valentine, who is visiting her uncle. A nice time was reported.
Word has been received by Evoy Booth's folks that he had been hit with a shrapnel on his left arm and almost broke it. He was in the St. Mihiel battle. We don't always hear when they are hurt.
A dance was given at the Hughes home on Wednesday evening.
Irvin Young was at Laverne on Saturday so he got the good of the rain that came most all day Sunday.
Lots of land changing hands this spring.
Mr. Simpson has sold his farm and is going to the oil fields to work.
Henry Martin is doing quite a lot of fencing this spring.
Word has been received from Mr. Macy. They like their new home fine. The children are all in school and like it fine.
Stock has come through the winter fine and with the rains it won't be long till the pasture will do to turn on.

SUNSET
(Too late for last week.)
Frank Shockley was assessing in Sunset Monday—March 17th.
John Sanders was buying hogs in these parts Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. Austin have arrived from Colorado and are making their home with their daughter, Mrs. L. W. Nixon.
E. A. Lake, Ross Cables and Mr. Chestnut helped Roy Brown move his house over on Coon Creek Thursday of last week.
Inez Pound is working for C. M. Fouch.
Dewey Hebbert and Miss Oliva Shell formerly of this place, were married at Cambridge, Kansas, and will return here to make their home. We extend our heartfelt congratulations.
Ben Phillips and King Martin hauled grain to Pollett Tuesday.
Edgar Taylor returned home from Camp Bowie where he received his discharge. He was formerly at Camp Cody. He looks as though "Uncle Sam" had treated him well.
Alena Lunsford has returned home from near Beaver, having closed a successful term of school there.
Orville Mills and wife motored from Colorado and are visiting his parents, Evan Mills and family.
The reception given the soldier boys by the Community Club was a decided success. We had with us Messrs. Austin, Ogden, Wilkerson, Fox, Mills, Taylor, and Phillips. A good program was rendered after which the soldier boys told of their experiences, which was quite interesting. Lunch was served and everyone spent an enjoyable evening.
There was no Sunday School Sunday on account of the rain.
Perry Audrick from Kansas has purchased the old Wagner place of Frank Evans and is moving there this week.
Audra Rush spent last week at the E. E. Hoover home.
Mrs. Roy Brown is spending a few days in Beaver where she is recuperating from an attack of the flu.
Milt Hoover hauled a load from Knowles Wednesday for Perry Audrick.
Grace Thompson and baby are spending a few days with her parents, H. Phebus and wife.
E. A. Lake and family were guests at Walter Beach's Sunday.
Mrs. Neal spent Wednesday at Henry Elfers.

POLETT, TEXAS, NEWS
Chester Happington is carrying his arm in a sling, caused by a broken bone. Says a Ford "kicked him," yesterday evening.
Another soldier boy Lloyd Freeman arrived home from camp last Saturday. Lloyd was discharged from Camp Funston. After a few days visit with home folks he will go to his claim in Colo.
Mr. and Mrs. George Woodhouse of Gage are visiting Mrs. Woodhouse's parents, F. S. Haines and wife, Mr. Woodhouse recently returned from France. Mrs. Woodhouse is teaching school near Gage.
Another daughter is also visiting at the F. S. Haines home.
Mrs. A. B. Copple has the heartfelt thanks of this scribe for some fine turnips—that have been buried in the ground since last fall and are firm and crisp as the freshly pulled from the patch, and to prove that blessings never come singly, Mrs. Frank Smith of Twin Mounds, brought a bunch of green onions. Fine come again.
There will be school on Saturday this week to make up lost time.
Miss Mayne Clifford has gone to Colorado in the interest of business. Mrs. Roxie Reid has taken her place as clerk at the Crump store.
Mr. Garrett installed four new telephones in Pollett this week.
Little Margaret Wilson is spending a few days at Grandpa Dyche's in Beaver county.
Miss Hanna, of Ivanhoe was shopping in our city yesterday.
Mr. Long has his new produce house nearly completed.
Raymond Schnope and wife have moved to Catesby.
C. E. Wood is preparing to build a residence on his lots on the East side. Fay Hendrix has moved back to his farm.
Frank Frazier and family who moved to town last fall to be near school, went back to the farm this week.
Roy Wilson was up in Oklahoma vaccinating stock yesterday.
