JUDGE LOOFBURROW HONORED

Judge R. H. Loofburrow returned Sunday night from Oklahoma City and Norman, having attended the State Bar Association meeting at Oklahoma City. While at Norman he visited his son Bernard, a senior at O. U., and was honored by being received as an honorary member of the Phi Alpha Delta legal fraternity. His membership was the second honor of the kind to be conferred by the fraternity. Former Governor R. L. Williams was received as the first honorary member of the Phi Alpha Delta some time ago. Judge Loofburrow's son, Wade H., a graduate of O. U., last year, was at the head of the Phi Alpha Delta fraternity during his senior year at the university. It is not necessary to say that he is much pleased with the honor the fraternity has extended to his father.

HASKELL—KARNES

Friends of Miss Gladys Haskell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Haskell, of Elmwood, and of J. O. Karnes, a former employee in the county clerk's office here, received announcements this week of the marriage of this popular young couple, at the home of the bride's parents, on Sunday, December 21st.

The contracting parties are well known to a host of friends both here and at Elmwood. Miss Gladys has lived with her parents at the family home on Clear creek and is highly respected by all. Her family is one of the substantial, worthy ones whose residence in the county dates back to the pioneer days. The groom, while not having resided among us for so long a time, has a great many friends here. He is a capable young man.

The Herald joins with the many friends of both the bride and groom in extending congratulations and wishing them a long, prosperous and happily-wedded life.

NEW FEATURES OF ROAD LAW

Among the new features of the road law which is expected to go in operation the first of the year, so we are advised by County Engineer Ingram, is the provision for road maintenance which will be handled in a far more efficient manner than in the past. Road dragging contracts have been let in the past but no other provision made for road maintenance. Under the new ruling it is expected to let contracts for the entire maintenance, as well as the dragging. State roads will probably be appointed in 2 or 3-mile sections and contracts let for full maintenance, which will mean repairs to roads, culverts, etc., as well as dragging. It is the intention, so we understand, to make these new contracts about February 1st. Call for bids will be published in this paper later. Watch for the notice.

STILL AT IT

When it comes to sale bill printing or any other kind of printing for that matter, The Herald shop is right there. During the public sale season this shop is crowded nearly every day with orders for sale bills and, the beauty of it all is that we deliver the goods when they are wanted. "Service" is our watchword and it is the rarest instance indeed when a customer of this shop does not get his job of printing just when he wants it. With the present shortage of help this kind of service would be absolutely out of the question were it not for the fact that this shop is equipped to handle all printing, large or small, and turn out the finished job practically, "while you wait." It has cost this office some money to be so equipped—more than is invested by the average newspaper shop, but we believe that whatever is worth doing at all is worth doing well, and we couldn't handle the business promptly without proper equipment. Next time you want that hurry-up job, try this office for service.

WHERE DO YOU GET YOUR INDUSTRIOUS ONES?

We are advised that at a social gathering at Home creek school, of which Miss Hazel Groendyke is teacher, on Friday night of last week, in addition to the program and the sale of pies for the benefit of the school, a cake was put up and sold going to the laziest man in the house. S. S. Strong's name was proposed and after a spirited contest, he "took the cake." Well, if Mr. Strong is the laziest man in that school district, we can say this much for them, they have a mighty industrious set at Home creek for everybody knows that Mr. Strong and work are side partners.

TRACY'S BIG MID-WINTER SALE

Of course readers of The Herald cannot fail to see Tracy's big mid-winter sale advertisement in this issue. We would advise those who are interested in buying in these lines, to read carefully all that Mr. Tracy has to say to them through his advertisement. A large number of prices are quoted and upon comparison you will find that they are substantial reductions from regular prices. Look up the ad, read it carefully, then take it along with you to the store and do your shopping.

W. D. Hall, of near Riverside, was a visitor in the county seat Monday.

REV. CONNET PASSES ON

The following obituary, clipped from the Lebanon, Oregon, Criticon, was sent to The Herald by Miss Myrtle Connet, and tells of the recent death of Rev. Connet. Miss Connet and father were early day residents of this county, living near old Cline, and were well-known to all the people of the eastern half of the county as well as to many people of Beaver and other parts of the county, all of whom will regret to hear of the reverend gentleman's death and who will join with The Herald editor in extending sympathy to Miss Connet and to Mrs. Addie Muller, another daughter, who lives near Madison.

REV. ALFRED CONNET

Rev. Alfred Connet was born in Green county, Pennsylvania, October 17, 1834, and died in Lebanon, Oregon, November 24, 1919, being 85 years, one month and 11 days old.

He prepared for the ministry at Oberlin, Ohio, and was ordained October 20, 1861.

On October 17, 1861, he was married near Cynthia, Indiana, to Miss Anna E. Wilson, daughter of Rev. Lewis Wilson. Eight children were born to them, two of whom preceded him to the better world.

Mr. Connet held pastorates under the Congregational Home Missionary society in Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma and under the American Missionary Association in North Carolina. He also taught several terms of school and was interested in horticulture. In 1905 he published a genealogy of the Connet family and at the time of his death was preparing a large work of the same kind.

He moved to Lebanon, Oregon, in 1914 and resided here until his death.

He is survived by his widow, Anna E. W. Connet and the following children: Mrs. Nettie C. Sink, Myrtle H. Connet, Orthy M. Connet, Mrs. Addie C. Muller, Roy E. Connet and Photos Connet and ten grandchildren.

Funeral services were held in the Methodist church at 2:30 P. M. Sunday, November 30, 1919. Rev. Yarnes, assisted by Rev. Canoles conducted them after which interment was made in the Masonic cemetery.

The following poem found among his papers gives a slight insight into the character of the man:

I am looking over my labor,
 By the light of the setting sun;
 For I see behind me the shadows,
 That my day is nearly done.

My work for the blessed Master
 Do better than I have done,
 For less have I done in the vineyard,
 Than I hoped when the morning rose.

And yet while the daylight lingers
 I will work as well as I may;
 Nor waste the remaining moments
 Regretting a misspent day.

And O! if now in the vineyard
 Are any led thereby my hand,
 I give you this word at my parting
 As nearer the gateway I stand.

Do all you can for the Master.
 Do better than I have done,
 And then, when the day is ended
 You may welcome the setting sun.

—Lebanon Criticon.

Mrs. Nora Quinn, executive secretary of the Beaver County Chapter American Red Cross, was a business visitor at Forgan Monday and Tuesday, working in the interest of the classes in Home Nursing and Care of the Sick, which are being organized at that place and which will be conducted by Miss Anna Leonard, Red Cross nurse, who is just completing classes here this week. Miss Leonard has proven a very efficient instructor in her work here. All women and girls who can do so, should not miss this opportunity to receive absolutely free of charge, the excellent training which Miss Leonard is here to give them.

This office printed sale bills the past week for John W. Lewis, of the Tiffin neighborhood. The sale also was advertised in last week's issue of The Herald. A. M. Burnam was the auctioneer. Mr. Lewis has leased his farms and is moving with his family to Dunlap there he will engage in the mercantile business. He was similarly engaged at Dunlap before moving to this county some time ago.

Geo. T. Bailey, who recently engaged in the draying business here and who also conducts the East Side Feed barn, purchased the J. O. Judd dray and transfer business this week taking charge Tuesday. Mr. Bailey wishes us to say to the public that he will make every effort to serve them promptly and that he will appreciate anything they may have for him in the dray or transfer line.

Will Meeker and wife, of May, were here Tuesday taking care of business in connection with The Beaver and The People's stores, of which Mr. Meeker is owner. They also visited Forgan to look after business interests in connection with the big closing out sale which is being conducted by The People's store, at that place and of which Mr. Meeker is also owner.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Spurrier and son Ross left Sunday for Oklahoma City and Guthrie. They will visit for a few days at Oklahoma City with H. D. Truax and wife, going on to Guthrie to spend Christmas with relatives of Mr. Spurrier. Mrs. Spurrier will also visit relatives at Sapulpa before returning.

DO YOU ENJOY YOUR MEALS?

If you do not enjoy your meals your digestion is faulty. Eat moderately, especially of meats, masticate your food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals and take one of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately after supper and you will soon find your meals to be a real pleasure.

J. E. George and wife, of Liberal, Kansas, transacted business in Beaver County Monday.

BEAVER HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Lucile Phelps—Reporter

The students of Beaver High School were agreeably surprised Monday morning at chapel when a musical program was rendered by the B. H. S. Glee Club girls and Miss Beem M. Davis, teacher.

Tuesday night the Eudolphian Debate club met at the High School. The question: "Resolved: That there should be educational qualifications for suffrage," was debated. The affirmative side won the decision.

Wednesday night the Boys Basketball team of Beaver High School played the Beaver town team and beat them 25-15.

It was a mystery to the students of Beaver High why the following sign was printed on the bulletin board Wednesday morning. Notice: "The Glee Club will not meet this week, but the Boys Quartet and the Girls Quartet will meet tonight instead." However, this mystery was solved Thursday morning when a special chapel was called and the students were informed that they would be entertained that night by the faculty. So, at 7:15 Thursday night all the students and faculty met at Jeff's Place and then went to the Globe Theatre, where they witnessed a five reel moving picture show.

The business meeting of the school building where they spent the rest of the evening. Refreshments consisted of hot cocoa and doughnuts which were made by the Domestic Science class.

Friday morning the school was again entertained when the following program was rendered:

Song—By School.
 Song—Girls Quartet.
 Reading—Gail Madge.
 Saxophone Solo—Herbert Smith.
 School was dismissed at 2:00 P. M. We are sure that we will enjoy our two weeks vacation and be glad again ready to work harder than ever.

A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to all.

Senior Notes
 All the Seniors report that they spent a very enjoyable evening at the entertainment given by the faculty. A business meeting of the senior class was held Thursday afternoon.

The Seniors started skating last Wednesday, but as we got cold feet before reaching the ice we decided that the best policy would be to return to our daily duties.

Francis Carson has been absent from school the past week. He has finished "Macbeth" in English Lit. Friday.

The solid geometry class have resolved to go to Egypt in order that they may get a better idea of the "Pyramids."

A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to all.
 Reporter—Mildred Stehmas.

Junior Notes

The Juniors have done little but shake candy this week. We think we have a good supply of French Creams and Chocolates on hand for Christmas.

Mr. Murphy was very kind in giving us until after vacation to complete and hand in our theme.

The American Literature class have been having written lessons for the last few days.

Miss Davis assigned the Caesar class 10 chapters to work on during the holidays.

The class is getting along fine under the supervision of our new teacher, Miss Davis, alias John Duncan.

Sophomore Notes

The Domestic Science class have been making candy this week. We made fondant, mints, French Creams, and Divinity. Some doughnuts were also made.

The Geometry class had a very interesting recitation out on the hall diamond Wednesday afternoon. We enjoyed ourselves very much as the day was warm which was a change from the weather we have been having.

Miss Haley has been giving questions to the M. and M. History class to help us on our themes which are to be handed in after Xmas vacation. That goes to show that the holidays will all be spent in pleasure.

The Sophomore class, along with the rest of the classes, was entertained by the faculty Thursday night. They took us to the show and from there we went to the grade school building. The evening was spent very pleasantly with games, cocoa and doughnuts were served.

This being the last note that will appear until after Xmas holidays, we wish you a Merry Xmas and a Happy New Year.

Freshman Notes

(Last week's Report)
 As our reporter was absent last week, we failed to get our report in, but are glad to say we have them in upon ourselves to see that it gets in anyway.

The Ancient History class heard a very interesting lecture last week. Question: Resolved that the Athenians should send an expedition to Sicily. Negative: Nicolas represented by Mary Henderson; Affirmative: Alcides represented by Harley Holcomb. The class was the assembly and our words are those. "We certainly enjoyed the debate and wish to thank Mr. Murphy for our privilege of having it for it was a new method of teaching our history."

We have had several new methods this week and like all of them which better than reciting orally.

Miss Davis finished reading the book, "The Last of the Mohicans," Friday. We enjoyed the book very much but are very glad to say we do not have to report on it.

Freshman Notes
 The Freshman class has been somewhat few in numbers this week on account of some of the students preparing for Xmas vacation. We hope they will all be back with us when school starts again.

The majority of the class have been hearing the oration of Pericles as some of them did not know how to start it. But now as we have them written, we have come to the conclusion that we would give a somewhat shorter oration than Pericles.

Wednesday Miss Haley took the first science class out on the tennis ground to recite our lesson as we were studying about the clouds, atmosphere, etc., which was enjoyed by all.

We are spending much of our time on Algebra which has been very exciting this week.

The Freshman class along with the other classes of B. H. S. were entertained by the faculty Thursday night. Everyone reported a splendid time. We will close our work until after holidays.

Wishing everyone a Merry Xmas and a Happy New Year.

Miss Lois Quinn, who is attending normal at Weatherford, arrived home this week to spend the holiday vacation with home folks.
